A VERY ATTRACTIVE WEDDING, charming in its simplicity, which fitted so the lives and characters of the bride and groom, took place before immediate relatives and a few close friends at the old romantic log cabin at Hartman lodge on Pelican bay, when Eva Mae Jester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Jester was married to Albert Cooper (Jimmie) Allen, Jr., Wednesday July 10, at high noon. Rev. Vennet performed the ceremony. The Episcopal ring service was used.

The bride was most charming in a gown of white brocade of eggshell color and carried an arm bouquet of rare mountain lilies. She wore a necklace studded with diamonds and rubies, a gift of the groom.

After a wedding breakfast the young couple left for an extended honeymoon trip. They will be at home to their friends about October 15 in a house to be erected for them on a cozy, secluded spot on the Rogue, where "Jim" will henceforth get inspiration for his writing.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Albert of this city, and will be remembered as one of the outstanding figures of our first championship basketball team making the trip to Chicago.

A picnic was held on a large shady lawn followed by a short business meeting, also held on the lawn. One new member was added to the club. An interesting program was arranged by Mrs. Wedge. Prizes were given to winners of the games Neighbors Mason, Wilgamon and Vetheral having the honors.

Mrs. Anna Stallsmith, the district deputy of Jackson county was a visitor, also eight juveniles of the camp were present. Refreshments were served.

The Talent camp have a small membership but they are all wide awake, active workers and it is hoped that in a short time they will have a large membership.

Problems such as toiled and dyed leather, gesso decoration, linoleum block printing and batik will be considered.

It is a privilege to have such men as Mr. Fenton in our midst, and it's a shame to lose such an opportunity.

Only 27 pupils have registered up to date, and many of those from a distance.

Medford has six registered this year and even Ashland seems to be "asleep at the switch."

Ashland, Medford and the people of the immediate valley wish to make this the last season of Ashland's summer school they are surely going about it in a sure way to accomplish its demise. Miss White has labored hard for six years, brought excellent teachers here and spent her own hard earned money to reimburse them for their services, but the cannot get the message to penetrate behind closed doors.

Only three lessons will have been given by each teacher Saturday evening. There is still time to enter for a full or part time course.

A full time course comprises four subjects. Come and visit the art school, then return to study. Call 364-L evening and Sundays for added information as to course of study, etc.

Art lovers of Medford, do wake up to what you are missing.

Those registered from Medford are Mrs. Don Newbury, Miss Miller, Mrs. Harman, Margaret Osenberg, Walter Young and Mrs. Howard Barto.

Mrs. Carpenter Donates
Cabin for Girl Scouts
 A large cabin on the Applegate river above Rich, completely furnished with attractive wicker furniture and antiques from several countries, was donated to the Medford Girl Scouts last week by Mrs. Leonard Carpenter. There are approximately seven acres in connection with the cabin, and a private swimming pool will appeal to the girls.

Several camping trips for the near future have already been planned by Mrs. Helen Willson, general director of Girl Scout activities in this city.

Mrs. Carpenter, who has always shown a great deal of interest in organizations for girls, has accepted the position of community chairman in the place of Mrs. P. O. Crawford who formerly served in that capacity.

In the afternoon a short business session was held, after which guests of every description were engaged in. Delightful refreshments were served by Mrs. John Fulbright, the president of the society.

Mrs. Grigsby Hostess
Missionary Society
 The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the first Christian church was held on the lawn at the home of Mrs. Joe Grigsby, 315 Haven street, Tuesday evening, July 2nd, with about thirty members present.

Following the business session which was presided over by the president, Mrs. R. L. Ray, an interesting program was given by Mrs. Grigsby's group. The leader gave an excellent introductory talk on "America's Childhood Her Redemption." This was followed by a duet by Doris and Donna Mell.

Mrs. Ray told a true story of a baby girl taken from one of the poorest homes of which the Christian church maintains six and Mrs. H. J. Berrian read a beautiful poem, "They Sleep and Call" referring to the thousands of missionaries who have been buried in distant lands. Mrs. Cora Wilson read a paper, "A Quiver of Arrows for the Church," concluding an instructive program.

M. W. F. Wilmut conducted the worship period, it being in the nature of a memorial to Alma Evelyn Moore, one of the national workers who lost her life recently in an automobile accident. Sent eulogies were offered by the members of the group in charge of the evening's program and the missionary benediction was repeated in closing.

Eight members were seated around the birthday table which was lavishly with candles and sweet peas and adorned with a large birthday cake.

Delicious sandwiches, punch and candy was served on the lawn.

An interesting contest was launched at this meeting to continue for six months with Mrs. Lee F. Smith and Mrs. Gerald Barr as judges.

Receiving some "interesting news" from Hollywood, Miss Murrel Finley featured show girl of the Zigfield "Whoopie" production, who has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. William Swartz here for the past two weeks, has changed her plans to go back to New York City, and will leave Monday night for the movie center, instead.

The exact nature of the news from the south was not disclosed by the Zigfield beauty. She said, however, that the next few weeks would be given over to intensive study and hard work. She will be accompanied as far as Los Angeles by her sister, Constance Finley Reddy, who will, in accordance with their plans, go on to New York and remain there with another sister, for two months. She will return by way of Hollywood, and spend a few weeks with her sister Murrel.

BUSINESS WOMEN TO PICNIC TODAY

More than 150 members of the Business and Professional Women's club of the southern Oregon district and their families and friends will gather at a picnic to be held in Grants Pass today. The aggregation will take in representatives from Roseburg, Medford and Klamath Falls, with Grants Pass playing the role of hostess.

Talks by the officers of the various clubs and special stunts to be put on by the entertainment committee of the Grants Pass organization will furnish the program for the day. Some of the members and their friends will arrive as early as 10 o'clock in the morning, others plan on getting there just in time for the picnic dinner at 12. Swimming will be one of the main features of the afternoon.

NEW YORKERS LIKE
OREGON WELCOME

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Brigham of Brooklyn, N. Y., who are registered at a local auto camp and are making a three months' tour of the country, say that the people appear to be more friendly and courteous here than in the east. Their main purpose in coming west was to visit relatives on the coast. Mr. Brigham, who is a New York lawyer, said that they expect the confinement in 14 days and did not have to go out of high gear, because of the good roads which are much better than he expected.

Mrs. Brigham said that the southern Oregon country is much more like the east than California and which is much pleasanter. The hottest weather they encountered was on the Nevada desert, where it was 111. Mr. and Mrs. Brigham are going to Crater lake tomorrow.

STOCKHOLM—Dr. Gustaf Dalen, Nobel prize winner, has invented a cook stove which stores heat generated by coals and prevents cooking at temperatures regulated by a dial. It also heats the kitchen water supply.

LOCAL SAMARITAN SOCIETY GIRL OF TO ERRING WOMEN
ENJOYS HER WORK

Mrs. J. E. Daniels who, ever since the election of Medford as the county seat, has taken care of the annual task of "mothering" was man criminally and county charges in her home, has not grown cynical. One glance at the kindly smile and humorous twinkle in her grey eyes, and it is easy to believe that she can even enjoy her work.

"They all have interesting stories to tell, and each presents a different problem to the one who takes care of them," she said. To the court house janitor's wife, every one placed under her care is innocent until he or she is proven guilty. The stories they tell interest her, and her listening to them through in sympathetic and sometimes amused silence.

Often these stories are as changeable as the weather, taking on different shades and contours as the days progress. The janitor's wife asks few questions—never any that are embarrassing. Perhaps that is why those in her care feel themselves so drawn to her, and so anxious to "tell her everything." Nor does she feel the urge to violate their confidence to the officers of the law.

Once in a while a woman comes under her care who is sullen and moose. This type, given little duties around the house and yard, the same as the others under Mrs. Daniels' supervision, soon finds herself warming up to the inspiration of the well known smile.

The sullen type of prisoner is offset considerably by the kind who never knows herself, nor does she let anyone else know what she is going to do next. The janitor's wife recently had a youthful feminine prisoner of the description under her care. The girl was full of exuberance all of the time, and manifested wild flights of the imagination in the stories she told concerning her past. Finding little tasks for her to do and furnishing her with books and magazines to read, the girl was kept pleasantly occupied during her stay at the house next the court house.

Mrs. Daniels, in almost every case, receives letters of appreciation from those who have sojourning in her home, or in the county jail under her care, even after the prisoners have gone on to the penitentiary or to distant places. Most of these are full of plans for the future and promise to "turn over a new leaf." She answers the first letter always. Often she follows this up with a second and third—encouraging notes, also suggesting a smile.

GIRL BANDIT OF KANSAS IN COURT

TOPEKA, Kan., July 13.—(AP)—Mrs. Vivian Seraper, 25, and Cecil Street, 24, were arraigned today on a highway robbery charge in connection with the $14,000 payroll robbery June 28 of W. L. Statton, chief clerk for the Security Benefit association here.

Mrs. Seraper waived a preliminary hearing and was bound over to the district court. Street entered a plea of not guilty to the charge and his preliminary hearing was set for Tuesday.

NO NEW TRIAL IN
ANN'S BALM SUIT

CHICAGO, July 13.—(AP)—Franklin Harding, wealthy oil burner manufacturer, was denied a motion for a new trial in the breach of promise suit brought against him by Ann Livingston, Tulsa divorcee, and allowed 90 days in which to file an appeal.

Attorneys for Harding, arguing the motion before Judge Charles Miller of Benson, Ill., contended the $25,000 judgment awarded to Miss Livingston was excessive and not in accordance with the evidence.

DRESDEN—97 Violators of railway rules, such as that against crossing the tracks, have become so numerous that the division management of the roads has had special receipts printed for two marks, or 400 cents. The management thinks that these receipts are for to pay that amount rather than be haled into court, as the law provides.

FRISCO HELD FOR BOOZE, SPEEDING

SAN JOSE, Cal., July 13.—(AP)—Miss Josephine Grant, San Francisco society girl, who three years ago was presented at the court of St. James, was lodged in jail here last night pending the filing of hit and run driving charges. An automobile she was driving collided with one driven by Charles E. Smith of San Jose.

Miss Grant, who is 24 years old was taken into custody after Smith had pursued her in his own car for five blocks following the accident. Traffic officer Clinton Moon took her to police headquarters, where a search of her car, police said, revealed three bottles of liquor.

A report filed by Dr. Paul Sanford, who was called to examine the girl, stated that she was under the influence of liquor.

The accident occurred, while Miss Grant was believed to have been driving from her father's ranch near Mount Hamilton. Smith told police she sped away after her car had crossed into his.

Miss Grant was no effort to get in touch with her family or friends, and was placed in the matron's quarters of the jail, where she went to sleep. Smith said he would file charges in the morning. Her bond was set at $1,000.

SIAMESE TWINS IN DOUBLE MARRIAGE

MANILA, P. I., July 13.—(AP)—The Filipino "Siamese twins," Licio and Simplicio Godino, were married today to Natividia and Victorino Matos, sisters. The ceremony, which took place at a Catholic church, was followed by a wedding festival at the home of Teodoro Yanco, guardian of the 21-year-old twins.

The marriage was despite the opposition of a license clerk, who argued that the twins were "one individual with a dual personality, and that their marriage would result in one individual having two wives."

The Philippine department of justice ordered that a license be granted.

HOLD BUTCHER FOR HORSE TENDERLOINS

PORTLAND, Ore., July 13.—(AP)—Because he is accused of having sold horsemeat under the label of "Bunderpins" Fred Doehlers, Portland meat dealer, faced revocation of his license today. He was arrested yesterday by the city meat inspector after J. D. Mielke, state dairy and food commissioner, testified Doehlers admitted knowing he had sold horsemeat labeled "bunderpin."

SEES RADIO AS AID
MUSIC APPRECIATION

PORTLAND, Ore., July 13.—(AP)—Radio will increase attendance at musical concerts rather than tend to decrease it, Harold A. Lafount, Washington, D. C., federal radio commissioner, visiting here, said, because radio musicals will develop a taste for more and hearers will want to see the singers.

Lafount said he was making a tour of northwest states and was visiting the various licensed stations.

The commissioner said he believed "the outstanding thing in radio yet is the wireless telephone connections with the giant steamship Leviathan."

Contracts are being let, Lafount said, whereby within a reasonable time Oregon residents will be able to chat with their friends in Maine.

RYANRY—(AP) Police of this Australian city are struggling with gangs of drug addicts and vendors. The illicit trade in narcotics has increased greatly of late, and in their efforts to run down the leaders of the gangs the police have arrested a number of physicians.

LININGRAD—(AP) More than a half of the 2000 victims of street car and automobile accidents in this city last year were intoxicated at the time they were killed, hurt or crippled. Street cars accounted for 1300 victims, and 500 persons were injured or met death in automobile mishaps.

Forest Grove—Streets will receive gas tax in South Park addition.
