

NATIONAL RACE PRIVATE AFFAIR BUGS AND CUBS

McGraw Girds for Series With Pirates—Just Four More Ball Games in Lives of Jaunty Leaders—Grimes Drops Game.

With the National League race threatening momentarily to become a strictly private affair between the Pirates and the Cubs, John McGraw deployed his forces upon the Polo grounds from this morning in an attempt to stem the Corsair rush. The impending series may be called crucial for the Giants alone; to the jaunty Buccaneers it constitutes just four more ball games.

The Giants brushed up yesterday for their do-or-die effort by bowing courteously to the fallen Cardinals, who came to life and accepted the decision by 6 to 1. The Pirates got only an even break at Boston, but nevertheless remained 10 notches ahead of the Giants in the important column dealing with games lost. The Cubs profited from the Pirate slip by smothering the Phillies, 16 to 3, and so gaining half a game on the leaders. The Pittsburgh margin now is just two games.

Burleigh Grimes lost his second game of the season when the Braves took the first game, 7 to 4, and Buccaneers coming back to take the second, 12 to 5.

Brooklyn crowned three Cincinnati pitchers for 17 hits to win the final game of the series by 16 to 8.

The Athletics dropped another one to the Indians, who won by 5 to 2 behind Walter Miller's six-inning pitching. Young Bill Shivers was the victim.

The Mackmen nevertheless remained eight games ahead of the Yankees, who contrived to toss off a four-run lead in the ninth and permit the Tigers to win by 9 to 3 in the tenth. Babe Ruth's 22nd homer and some smart pitching by Walto Hoyt, up to the final crash, went into the discard.

Sammy Gray gained an even break for the Braves in their series against the Red Sox by pitching five-hit ball yesterday to win by 4 to 0.

The Senators won from the White Sox in the final game of the series at Chicago, by a score of 6 to 2.

LEGION JUNIORS BOW TO EUGENE IN CLOSE GAME

Caldwell, of the Medford American Legion Junior Baseball team, pitching one of the greatest games of ball ever seen in Eugene by a boy his age, according to fans, was expected to turn in a win yesterday against the Eugene Juniors by everyone witnessing the game, but failure of his team mates to hit the ball, accompanied by errors at critical moments spelled a 6 to 7 defeat for the Medford boys. The local boys got men on base in nearly every inning, but lacked the punch to put runs across in a pinch.

Eugene scored first in the second frame on an error and the next man up hit a two-bagger, scoring two men ahead of him. Medford tallied once in the third and led the score in the fourth. Eugene also put over two in the fourth and one in the fifth on one hit and three errors.

Clay, in the seventh, made a slashing drive for a three-bagger with the bases loaded and only the speedy recovery of the Eugene centerfielder kept him on third. Clay hit four times out of four times up. Smith, Harrington and Caldwell was said to be the outstanding men in the field. Smith at second took several hard chances without a bobble, and Harrington caught a beautiful game.

Eugene scored seven runs, but four of them came in an error at critical moments, while all of Medford's runs were earned. The local boys were conceded to have played a brilliant game, but Eugene hit the ball harder and seemed to get the breaks. Inman, Eugene's pitcher wanted to leave the game in the early innings, but his teammates persuaded him to stay and he finally drove in the winning run. The locals say Eugene has a real ball club and wish them good luck in the state American Legion tourney.

Care to take the boys to Roseburg were donated by Mrs. Clay D. Parker, Mr. Lang, and Verne Shackle, coach of the team. Newton Chaney, who was one of the Medford rooters, was said to have enjoyed the game.

FIGHT TONIGHT BIG SHOT FOR JERSEY JIMMY

Jersey Boxer Will Win Little More Than Honor if Punch Is Successful—Poor Gate Expected, Despite Big Ballyhoo.

NEW YORK, July 18.—(AP)—Champion Tommy Loughran will have a four-pound weight advantage over James J. Braddock, challenger for the light heavyweight title, when they meet at Yankee stadium tonight.

Loughran weighed 174 pounds, one pound under the weight limit, while Braddock scaled 174 when they weighed in this afternoon.

NEW YORK, July 18.—(AP)—The light heavyweight championship falls some 20-odd pounds per man and many thousands of dollars short of being as big as the heavyweight title, but today it looks big enough to James J. Braddock of New Jersey.

"Jersey Jimmy" has risen in a brief boxing career to the post of challenger for the 175-pound crown and tonight he pits the devastating wallop that has carried him to the top over the battered forms of such scrappers as Tuffy Griffiths and Jimmy Slattery, against the boxing king of the champion, Tommy Loughran.

Although the fight is being staged in the Yankee stadium, biggest of New York's open air arenas, and is scheduled for the full championship distance of 15 rounds, it is not expected to be very profitable to either the champion or the challenger. So far it has drawn little more than passing interest, despite a frenzied ballyhoo, and only about 25,000 fans are expected at the ringside when the go starts at 10 p. m. eastern daylight time.

The show is for the benefit of the hospital fund of the home of the Daughters of Jacob, at prices ranging from $2 to $15. At these rates, the gate is expected to be about $100,000.

As for the fight itself, the eternal question of the fistie world—whether a boxer is better than a puncher, is the question to be considered tonight. Loughran is the superlative boxer, but his hitting ability is almost non-existent, while Braddock, purs his thrust in a death-dealing right hand and little else.

If he has not lost too much speed and strength in training down, Loughran is expected to justify the opinion that has made him a 6 to 5 favorite. Otherwise, Braddock is expected to get his punch over successfully.

DROPPING their plane gently to earth in a perfect landing at 2:13 p. m. Friday, July 12th, at Culver City Airport near Los Angeles, Loren Mendell and "Pet" Reinhart, co-pilots of the Buhl Wright-motored, air sedan "Angelino", completed the greatest endurance flight in history, establishing a record of 246 hours, 45 minutes and 32 seconds in the air.

Physically exhausted themselves, but with their motor in perfect condition, the flyers were brought down after nearly a week and a half of continuous flight because of the accumulation of foreign substance on the stabilizer which made further flying hazardous.

Both flyers paid high tribute to Richfield Gasoline and Richlube Motor Oil which they had selected after exhaustive tests and which made possible the perfect performance of their motor throughout the flight.

Carrying an over-load of almost seven hundred pounds in excess of the regular "pay load" of the Buhl air sedan, their total gasoline consumption was less than twelve gallons per hour of flying time, while their oil averaged less than one quart an hour—an almost phenomenal record best expressed in Reinhart's words, "The oil gauge might just as well have been painted. It didn't drop a pound of pressure during the entire flight."

Once again Richfield has helped make air history. The same qualities that made it the choice for the "Question Mark" army flight, first of the great endurance achievements; the selection of Captain Wilkins for his thrilling dash over the North Pole and the choice of winners in many other speed and endurance records are carried on in this epochal eleven days among the clouds—more than 22,000 miles of continued flight.

Use Richfield and Richlube in your own car—the ideal combination for everyday driving—better by actual test.

GIANT ARGENTINE WINS ON FOUL IN GO WITH DE KUH

NEW YORK, July 18.—(AP) Very little information concerning the fighting ability of Vittorio Campolo, Argentine's gigantic heavy weight, has come out of his North American debut. Campolo was in action just seven minutes 27 seconds against Arthur De Kuh, Italian-American boxer, in his first New York battle at Ebbets Field last night, winning on a foul halfway through the third round.

One thing proved was that the Argentine has all the necessary qualifications as to size. De Kuh is no small heavyweight but he was not in the same class with Campolo, who carries 226 pounds of solid beef on his 6 foot 7 inch frame.

In the short time he fought, Campolo showed little in the offensive line except a right hand wallop to the heart which did a considerable amount of damage.

De Kuh was ineffective all the way through and began hitting low almost as soon as he switched his attack to the body in the second round. He was warned twice for hitting low in this frame and once more in the third before a fourth blow sank in foul territory bringing his disqualification.

Frank Craven, actor, claims to have played on more golf courses than any player in a professional. He has sliced and hooked over 352 layouts.
