

Her day need not be drudgery

No longer must the housewife work from early morning until late at night. No longer does her day need to be drudgery.

There is no longer a worry of burning instead of baking because today the wise housewife cooks by electricity.

Your electric dealer will be glad to tell you about electric cookery and how easy it is to have in your home.

Concrete masonry will keep your house young

STRONG, rigid walls of concrete block or concrete building tile insure a permanent, firesafe home.

Years after it is built, you will find your concrete masonry house still young—always protecting your investment.

RADIO PLEA PULLS MANY DONATIONS TO AUCTION SALE

Just about everything from a motor trap to an airplane, not including the latter, was pledged the American Legion for their auction sale by local residents who listened in on the Whoopee program over KMED.

The program, in charge of Earle Davis, presented a group of local artists in a variety of numbers. They included Margaret Huntoon Williamson, Elbow Mae Wilson, Fletcher Fish, Melba Williams, William Kirkpatrick, Lloyd Williamson in vocal numbers; Betty Brown and Gladys La Mar on the piano; Miss Dorothy Newman and Mary Greiner in a duet; the Herb Alford orchestra in a group of jazz numbers; the American Legion drum corps and others.

Between the numbers of the program, Impresario Earle Davis made brief pleas for articles, pledges for which were phoned in at a rapid rate.

The donations were as follows: A baby buggy and mattress; a flower pot, Standing Roofing Co.; an automobile, Aiken Motor Co.; $10 cash, Pinnacle Packing Co.; an automobile, Gates Auto Co.; a five gallon jug, a box of cigars, Jack Stewart; one piano, Palmer Piano House; service to get piano, Edas Transfer Co.; one suit of clothes, Model Clothing Co.; one motor range, People's Electric store; one automobile, Armstrong Motors; one battery, Lewis Super-Service; one range, Medford Electric Co.; one sweater, The Toggery; two nursery chairs; one white enameled tin bath tub, Modern Plumbing and Sheet Metal Works; Electric vacuum cleaner, Gates and Lydard; one $25 watch, Trophy Jewellers; one lawn mower, Monarch Mill and Seed Co.; one box cigars, Ross & Ross, of Central Point; $5 order on Hubbard Brothers; one electric washer, Southern Oregon Electric; $5 merchandise, Park Grocery; one Premium Ham, Marsh's Grocery; one bull calf, Ted Fish, Phoenix; one can cigars, Jensen and Dalley; one box of cigars, Putnam and Hoffman; one Royal typewriter, Mason and Ehrmann; one waterless cooler, Southern Oregon Gas Co.; one coat; one half dozen jars fruit; one thoroughbred dog, Mrs. Marshall.

Donors of further articles are asked to call 3124, and the committee will call for the contribution.

SWIMMING POPULAR SUMMER SPORT

Every week is "learn to swim week" at Merrick's natatorium. This summer where daily lessons are conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. McDonald, expert instructors formerly of Honolulu.

There's no age limit when it comes to learning to swim, it seems. One energetic woman of 71 years enrolled in a beginner's class several weeks ago. She practiced along with women and girls half her age and can now swim with the best of them.

Since the McDonalds began their swimming course two months ago, 87 good swimmers have been turned out. Sixty-four students are now enrolled for lessons at practically every hour of the day.

"Merrick's natatorium is one of the best equipped and most sanitary in southern Oregon, and is also one of the best I have ever seen," Mr. McDonald said.

Time, Place, Girl, Hunt's Craterian

"The Time, the Place and the Girl" singing-talking picture made from the musical comedy that was popular years ago, is drawing good-sized audiences to Hunt's Craterian theater.

Grant Withers is the boy and Gertrude Olmstead the girl. Betty Compton has an important role, and John Davidson, Bert Koche, Vivien Oakland and Mrs. Reginald Denny are in the cast.

EDMISTON GAINS TOP IN TOURNEY FOR NET RATING

Pounding the base line with deadly accuracy and mixing his deep drives and volleys with both soft and fast placements, Jimmy Edmiston, high school tennis champion, last night climbed to the top of the ladder in the Medford Tennis club tourney by defeating H. G. Wilson, veteran of the local courts, 6-4, 6-2.

The youngster's versatile attack at the net as well as his defensive game from behind the base line showed a steadiness and accuracy that called for high class tennis on the veteran's part to hold the scores within bounds.

On Sunday Edmiston will be called upon to defend his position against the winner of the Kenner-Denel-Wilson match to be played Friday or Saturday. Crack matches scheduled for this evening include Fish vs. Tollefson and Bailey vs. Butler.

UMPUQUA PARK PICNIC WILL DRAW MASONS

Invitations point to a general exodus of Masons and their families towards Roseburg on the week end. The members of Hillah Temple of the Shrine will be hosts at a monster all-Masonic picnic at Umpqua park near Roseburg on Sunday of this week.

The Masonic picnic, which is an annual affair with Hillah Temple, is always largely attended by Masons from all over southern Oregon and much interest and enthusiasm is displayed in the various athletic events and running races, which feature the picnic program.

Invitations to attend the picnic are being mailed to all Shriners and an invitation is also being extended to all members of other Masonic bodies to attend the function. Swimming in Roseburg's municipal pool and dancing at a special outdoor pavilion are other features promised.

CUT DOWN SPEED ON WORN TIRES

On road highways, with modern motor cars, 35 to 50 miles an hour is the customary pace these days. The danger factor which must be reckoned with rests in the tires.

"No motorist who has any regard for his own safety will drive at excessive speeds on badly worn tires," says Spence Jennings, local fish dealer. "Even race drivers, skillful as they are, have a hard time handling a low hung racing

BOLEN LAKE TRIP PLAN FOR SCOUTS
