

MEDFORD AIDING EUGENE FESTIVITY

EUGENE, Ore., July 19. (Special.)—Medford will do its part in helping plan across the Sunset Trail celebration here next week by entering floats in the industrial and pioneer parades, and sending the Medford post American Legion drum corps, officials of the pageant announce. Members of the various parade committees highly praise Medford townspeople for their spirit in this event, a concentrated effort to refresh in the minds of the public Oregon's background and future.

Eugene has called to the state to help put across its celebration and every person available is entering in the spirit of the show in great style, officials say. Medford especially is taking a prominent part and, besides entering floats, several hundred people are expected to be present during the three days, word received here states.

BEAGLE, Ore., July 19.—(Special.)—D. C. Seegmiller of San Francisco is visiting at the home of his brother, Mr. Seegmiller of the Williams and Seegmiller ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baldwin and family of Beagle, Cal., arrived here Thursday evening. They are staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moon at the present, until Mr. Baldwin finds work. Prayer meeting was led by Walter Blackman. His topic was "God's Help to Us in Temptation."
