PIRATES WALK PLANK BEFORE M'GRAW'S CREW

Bucs Retain Top Spot By Less Than One Game—Hubbell's Pitching Gets Credit for Win—Walberg Refutes Slump Rumor.

By William J. Chipman, Associated Press Sports Writer.

The first phase of John McGraw's own personal crucial battle against the high-flying Pirates had just the result Joe McCarthy himself would have asked. The Giants turned back the Pirates by 4 to 1 in the McCarthy group's sweep through the upper defenses of the Robins in Flatbush for an 11 to 7 decision. The Pirates remained in the top perch in the league standing, but they enjoyed a margin of less than one full game.

Another Chicago victory today, matched by another Pirate defeat, would send the Cubs back to the top by a percentage margin, with the standing in games a virtual tie.

The first effort of the Giants against the Pirates was successful largely because of the wizardry with which Carl Hubbell served up his southpaw shots. This budding Pittsburgh nemesis held the Bucs down to six scattered hits.

A five-run rally in the eighth enabled Old Alex the Great to pick up credit for the Cardinals' 6 to 4 victory over the Braves. The Phillies turned back Cincinnati by 6 to 4, in a game noteworthy because no one hit was a home-run.

The Yankees were rained out in Cleveland, and the Athletics picked up a technical advantage of half a game by defeating Detroit, 8 to 4. The Mackmen's margin now is eight and one-half contests.

More important to Connie Mack than this paper advantage of having won a game which the Yankees yet have to play was the showing of George Walberg, who in recent games had threatened to enter a slump. Walberg gave the Bengals nine hits, but so scattered these that the afternoon was an athletic walkover.

George's hit was handclapped by five neat errors among his supporters, but the Macks hit out enough earned runs to swing the decision to Walberg.

Washington opened its stay in St. Louis by winning a wild 10 to 3 decision. Seven Washington runs in the seventh decided the issue.

The veteran Red Faber shaded Danny MacFayden in a fine pitching battle at Chicago, and the White Sox defeated the Red Sox by 2 to 1 in 10 innings.
