Mr. St. Louis was born in Little Shute, Wis., September 10, 1855, and made his home there until April of 1927, at which time he came to Oregon. Funeral services were held at the Catholic church at 10 o'clock today. Father Black officiated, and interment was made in the Jacksonville cemetery.

HALL TELLS HOW AIR MAIL WORKS

"The Operation of an Air Mail Contract Line," was the subject of an intensely interesting and educational talk given before the Kiwanis club by Seeley Hall at the Hotel Medford this noon. Sketching briefly the history of the Pacific Air Transport and the air mail service, Mr. Hall brought his subject down to the vital present day problems and developments in both the passenger and mail service.

That the new port will be ready for use between September 15 and October 1 was a statement made by Mr. Hall. Ralph W. Swagler of Los Angeles, a visitor at the meeting today, gave a brief general talk on the development of aviation on the coast.

M'FARLAND DIED NATURAL DEATH REPORTS WIDOW

With the return home yesterday from Oakland, Cal., of Mrs. Lillian McFarland and sons, Andrew, Herman and Ernest, it became known that A. E. McFarland, the husband and father was not killed by a bandit in that city, as was rumored here last Monday, but died a natural death in an Oakland hospital from uraemic poisoning. Mrs. McFarland and sons Andrew and Herman left here for Oakland last Monday forenoon on receipt of the news of the death. The funeral and burial took place in Oakland last Wednesday.

Mr. McFarland who had been employed in one of the West Coast theaters in Oakland for some time past had been ailing for a week, but thinking it merely a temporary minor illness did not visit a doctor and continued to grow worse until Sunday afternoon, a week ago, he was taken from the apartments where he and his young son Ernest resided to the hospital where he died at 4 o'clock the next morning.

The report circulated here last Monday that he was probably the McFarland, a service station attendant shot by a bandit in a holdup on Sunday, arose thru the fact that several local people who read in Portland or San Francisco newspapers of the hold-up, and learning of the death telegram received here last Monday morning by Mrs. McFarland, which gave no details, concluded that he was the same McFarland who had been shot in the hold-up.

Mr. McFarland had resided in Oakland for the past five years, having gone there from Medford after several years residence here with his family.
