

CANTALOUPE GAIN 50 CENTS IN PRICE

PORTLAND, Ore., July 25.—(AP)—With the exception of cantaloupes, which advanced 50 cents a crate, the produce market presented an unruffled front today. Cantaloupes of the best variety were getting scarcer. The season was expected to get under full steam next week when the Turlock fruit begins to arrive.

Butter, eggs, poultry and fresh meats were steady at Wednesday's levels.

Prices at the East Side Market of the Gardeners' and Ranchers' association were also without change. An immense amount of produce was brought in, but heavy buying kept the prices firm.

Wall Street Report

NEW YORK, July 25.—(AP)—Pro-nounced, reactionary tendencies developed again in today's stock market although a sprinkling of issues continued to show independent strength. Selling embraced a wide variety of stocks, including several of the recently popular rails and public utilities, with not declines ranging from 1 to 10 points.

Many of the early losses were recovered in the later afternoon, as the markets led a rally. General Motors, Chrysler and Packard rose 1 1/4 to nearly 3, and Marmon more than 7 points. North American scaled a new peak above 174. United States Steel regained all of its early loss. Commercial Solvents broke 9. National Biscuit 3 and Commercial Investment Trust 4 1/2. The closing was irregular. Sales approximated 2,000,000.

Truths About the Gas Meter

"Truths About the Meter" is the title of an interesting and educational booklet being mailed by the Southern Oregon Gas Corporation with their monthly bills.

The booklet explains in an understandable, non-scientific way, exactly how the gas meter works. Probably everyone has at one time or another wished they could read their own meter. How to read your meter is a simple and easy thing to do if you follow the instructions.

There are also numerous tips and pointers on such subjects as how to reduce your gas bills, and how to use the gas oven to its fullest capacity.

DAWES REMOVES 'NO SMOKE' SIGN

LONDON.—(AP)—Charles G. Dawes, the man who wanted the senate to reform its rules, already has put through one reform in the American embassy since he became ambassador. The "No Smoking" sign in the embassy reception room has been removed.

Ambassador Dawes was chatting with a group of newspapermen in his office, smoking, as usual, his famous understanding pipe, when one of the group suddenly asked:

"Do you mind if we smoke, Mr. Ambassador?"

"Certainly not," replied Dawes with a puzzled smile adding, "Surely you gentlemen don't feel under any restraint here?"

The sign in the reception room was described to him.

"What?" he exclaimed. "I hadn't seen it. We'll institute a reform right now and have that sign removed."
