

FEW TOMATOES IN PORTLAND MARKET COTS REACH PEAK

PORTLAND, Ore., July 26.—(AP) Eggs, butter, poultry and fresh meats were steady and unchanged today. Tomatoes were scarce and high at $2.50. The local crop has not yet begun to move in any appreciable quantities. The present season was fast reaching the peak of its canning period. A big movement of the fruit is expected over Sunday and Monday or Tuesday should see the fruit at its best for canning purposes. Shippers have held off in order to let the fruit ripen on the trees instead of in storage. Pending receipt of crops from more northern sections, the cantaloupe market is at a standstill, with prices high and the product scarce. The best were quoted at $1.75 to $5 a crate today. With the exception of French beans, which were down to 7 cents, prices on the East Side Market of the Gardeners and Ranchers association were on a level with those quoted Thursday. The surprise of the market is the steadiness with which berries have kept their values. With the raspberries and blackberries fading out, strawberries are still around $2 to $2.25 for raspberries and $2 for the blackberries. The canning demand has maintained the prices.

INVESTIGATE PORTLAND TANNERY DESTRUCTION

PORTLAND, July 26.—(AP) Investigation of the cause of the $175,000 fire which broke yesterday destroyed the West Coast Tanning company plant here, was being made by the fire marshals' office today. Uninsured stock valued at $50,000, and machinery and equipment valued at $80,000, also said to have been uninsured, were destroyed by the fire which started suddenly in the boiler section of the plant. The buildings are estimated to have been insured for $15,000.

THE NEBBS - And What Does the Future Hold?

IN NEW YORK THEATERS

By G. D. Seymour
NEW YORK—Since the works of Henrik Ibsen were first brought in translation to the attention of audiences almost 60 years ago, most of his dramas have been seen often on the American stage. But never have the plays of the Norwegian dramatist been given so extensive a hearing in the United States as they are receiving this season in New York. The Actors' Theater presentation, now current, of Ibsen's "Lady From the Sea," directed by and starring Plance Yurka, is the year's eighth Ibsen production here, and it receives a play which has been seen but twice on Broadway. Sixteen years ago it was done here, and before that Eleanor Duse played it in New York in Italian. "Lady From the Sea," a mystical and symbolic, was admired by the critics to be less than "The Wild Duck," the presentation of which, earlier this season, ranks as one of the high lights of the year. But it gives Ibsen a rank perhaps never attained by another play, for the records of plays not shown that seven different plays from the same pen were seen in New York in the same season. The late Avery Hopwood once had five plays on Broadway, all at the same time. Eugene O'Neill has been represented this season by four: "Strange Interlude," "Drama," "S. E. Greenland," and his one-act play, "Before Breakfast." There were half a dozen Shakespearean revivals in the same season a few years ago when John and Ethel Barrymore, Jane Cowell, Marguerite Blandeau and other ranking stars turned almost in a look to the head's plays. This season, however, Walter Hampden did "The Enemy of the People" for a time; Alexander Holst did "Ghosts" in German; Eva Le Gallienne's company has three Ibsen plays—"The Master Builder," "John Gabriel Borkman" and "Hedda Goller"—in its repertoire; and Miss Yurka has played "Gina" in "The Wild Duck," Hedda in "Hedda Goller," and now Ellida in "Lady From the Sea." All in all, Miss Yurka's Ibsen season has been so successful that she plans another in which she will do "The Enemy of the People," "The Master Builder," "The Master Builder," and "Lady Inger of Oestland," the latter never produced here. Bernard Shaw's dream of an Ibsen Theater may come true at last, and in New York.

METEOR FALLS IN MICHIGAN WATERS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 26.—(AP) A meteor, of unusual brilliance streaked across the sky last night and buried itself in Lake Michigan south of this city. It left a stream of flaming phosphorescence in the sky that caused several reports that an airplane had fallen in flames. Twenty miles west of here the flashing fragment illuminated many miles of countryside. Prof. Edwin B. Frost in charge of the Yerkes observatory at Williams Bay, Wis., said the meteor was a mass of iron, set afire by its terrific speed as it entered the earth's atmosphere.
