

M'GRAW GIANTS WESTERN TOUR DISAPPOINTING

Cubs Administer Third Beating—Eighth Inning Brings Flock of Hits Despite Master Minding—Cards Win Third.

By HERBERT W. MARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer

Much to the embarrassment of John McGraw, the New York Giants' current western tour to date has been a constant source of satisfaction to the growing Cubs of Chicago, traditional foes of McGraw's team.

For the third straight day the Cubs yesterday administered a beating to McGraw's punch-drunk Giants, 8 to 5, thereby increasing their lead over the second place Pittsburgh Pirates to one full game.

In justice to the Giants, it might be said that they put up a fight to save something out of the wreckage of their series with the Cubs. They gave red-hot Larry Benton a two-run lead in the second inning, then, after the Cubs had tied it up in the sixth, scored three more runs in the seventh, and held a five-four advantage as the Cubs came to the bat in the last half of the eighth.

Then the storm broke. Slughter by Glenn and Pinch-Hitter Hazen Cuyler brought another pinch batsman, Gabby Hartnett, to the plate. McGraw then yanked Benton and sent Karl Hubbell to the mound. Gabby's sacrifice fly brought home the tying run. A walk, an error by Rogers Hornsby and Hack Wilson's scorching double brought in three more runs and decided the game beyond a doubt.

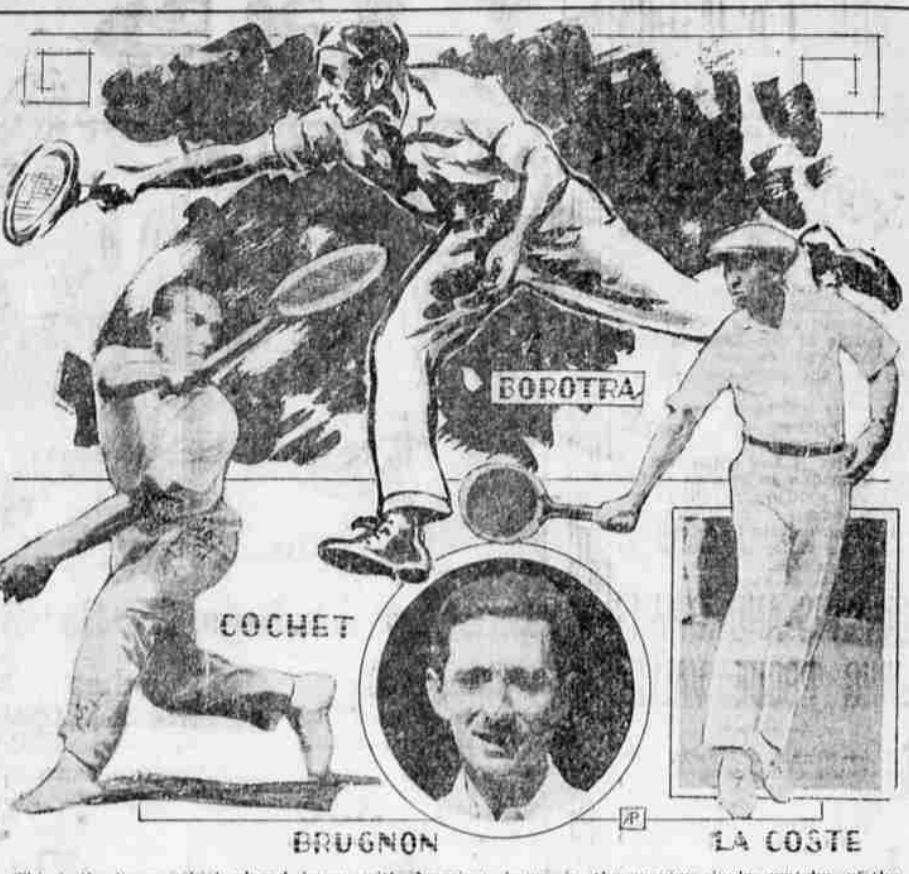

Wilson incidentally hit two doubles and his 26th home run during the day. Mel Ott drove out homer No. 27 in the second inning. Blake started on the Cal mound but gave way to Mike Creighton, who received credit for the win although he pitched only the eighth inning. Guy Bush finished up.

The St. Louis Cardinals, now operating under the personal guidance of Bill McKechnie, advanced to within three and a half games of the third place Giants by trouncing the Phillies for the third straight time, 10 to 3. Jess Haines held the Quakers to four hits, one of which was Chuck Klein's 20th of the season.

Behind clever pitching by Red Lucas the Cincinnati Reds buried the Boston Braves under a 14-0-2 count and closed the series with two victories apiece.

There were only two games in the American league, but in one of them the Athletics drove out 25 hits to crush Cleveland, 21 to 3, and extend their league lead to 10 1/2 games. Nine runs in the first inning decided the game and allowed

Great French Net Artists Defeat Americans

This is the lineup which played havoc with American hopes in the opening singles matches of the Davis Cup challenge round. Prospects of France retaining the trophy for the third straight year appear good, with only one match needed in Saturday or Sunday's play.

OUT OF KEELER'S GOLF BAG

By O. B. Keeler. "Golf is like life," said John D. Rockefeller, patriarch of American finance, shaking his head sadly at the treacherous eighth green of the Ormond Beach course recently. "It is up—and down."

Mr. Rockefeller's second put was not down. And it was on that very green, a few days before, that he had cussed a 20-footer, where now he would thrice. And Mr. Rockefeller is a very good putter; far more so than his smallest shots than of his new dimes.

The three-putt incident occurred the Saturday before the great financial bout at Whiting, Ind., between the Rockefeller interests and Colonel Stewart, who the following Thursday was deposed as chairman of the board of the Standard Oil company of Indiana. Mr. Rockefeller was not at Whiting. He was at Ormond Beach.

Lefty Grove to win his 17th game without extending himself. In the Athletics' hit column were two home runs by Jimmy Fox, his 21st and 22nd of the season, and four base drives by Grove and Hines, as well as doubles by Grove, Dyles, Hines, Simmons and Lyons.

Freddie Marberry weakened in the late innings and the White Sox eked out a 3-to-1 victory over Washington in 10 innings.

CHICAGO SHIEK GAINS TILT ON DUNDEE'S FOUL

Low Blow in Second Round Ends Bout After Champ Floored Twice—Skeptics Say Punch Delivered to Save Knockout.

By Charles W. Dunkley, Associated Press Sports Writer. DETROIT, July 26.—(AP)—Jackie Fields, sport of Chicago, rules today as undisputed welterweight champion of the world.

Fields won the title last night, defeating Joe Dundee, the titleholder, on a foul, in the second round of the scheduled 15-round battle.

Dundee, knocked down twice in the second round, cut loose with a sweeping right-hand punch that landed deep in the foul territory a minute and 55 seconds after the round opened.

Withering in pain, Fields was dragged to his corner, but was unable to get on his chair and fell into the rosin. After physicians made an examination, the low blow was pronounced a foul and Fields was awarded the fight and the championship.

Dundee was guilty of fouling after he had received $50,000 in advances for risking his title against the challenger. He was paid $10,000 at the time the match was made and got the remaining $40,000 before he entered the ring last night.

Some of the skeptics advanced the opinion that Dundee fouled Fields when it was apparent he had no chance of winning, and possibly would have been knocked out before the finish of the second round, or at least the next one.

The chin that absorbed Mickey Walker's punches, and the battering of Pete Lutz, was an open target for Fields' sharp right crosses and left hooks. Dundee started to sag under Fields' wallop in the first round and broke completely in the second.

A few seconds after the second round opened, Fields sent a crashing right to the chin that dropped Dundee to the floor for a count of nine. There was little strength left in his wobbly legs when he regained his feet. He staggered forward and ran into another right-hand punch that landed on the peak of the chin.

He went down again. This time for a count of seven. When he got up he fell into the ropes and then cut loose with a terrific right-hand punch that landed low in the groin.

Was Bewildered. Dundee claims the blow was delivered unintentionally, but it is doubtful in the opinion of ring-pickers whether he could have survived the round. After hitting the floor twice, Dundee appeared completely bewildered and the sting was out of his punches.

He staggered around the ring like a drunken man after he fouled his youthful challenger. Dundee barely made the welterweight limit of 147 pounds when they jumped on the scales at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He scaled about an ounce under the figure, while Fields weighed in at 145.

To all appearances, Dundee was forced to exert every effort to make the weight. The Michigan Board of Athletic Control, which governs boxing in the state, may find itself in the position of being unable to fine

NEW YORK, July 26.—(AP)—Helen Wills, three times tennis champion at Wimbledon, announced on her arrival here from Europe today that she doubts if she will ever play in Europe again.

"I never know," said the usually non-committal Helen. "My plan today is changed tomorrow."

"But I doubt that I shall ever play abroad again. This does not mean that I shall not continue active in America, for I will."

"Little Poker Face" did not explain why she does not expect to play in Europe again. Previously she had said that her approaching marriage to Fred A. McCoody, young San Francisco banker, will mean the end of her tournament playing.

She revealed that statement today, and said that she had no intention of retiring from tennis in this country. While she still withheld the date of her marriage, she did say that it would not happen before next Christmas.

In the meantime she will play in an invitation tournament at East Hampton, L. I., and at the Wightman Cup and National tournaments at Forest Hills.

Thirty news photographers took pictures of her for an hour before she was able to leave the Aqueduct today.
