Edison Test for Boy Candidates Embodies Ethical and Technical Problems Beyond Average Adult

WEST ORANGE, N. J., Aug. 2. (AP)—Forty-nine aspirants for the Edison scholarship offered by Thomas A. Edison and the honor of becoming the inventor's protégé took the examination to determine which of them is to be the winner.

The questions covered chemical, geographical and historical subjects. The boys were expected to know the specific resistance of copper wire and whether a bottle of mercury or a bottle of water would make the best float.

Several ethical problems were put to the contestants, who had to state which they considered "a little permissible" and tell if they would choose to become successful at the expense of happiness, comfort, reputation, pride, honor, health, money or love.

Others were more technically involved. For example, "On what physiological phenomenon is the success of motion picture projection dependent?" and "What is the underlying principle of an internal combustion engine?" Included in the questions were:

"What classes of books listed below do you most enjoy reading? Number them 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, in order of preference: Adventure, mystery, stories, travel, biography, fiction, invention, history, economics, and science."

"If you were marooned alone on a tropical island in the South Pacific, without tools, how would you move a three-ton weight, such as a boiler, 100 feet horizontally and 15 feet vertically?"

"If you have been given a certain experiment to perform and had been informed that it could be done successfully, but you had failed ten times, what would you do?"

"What new discovery or invention do you believe would be the greatest benefit to mankind? Why? If you were to inherit $100,000, within the next year what would you do with it?"

Two towns, on opposite sides of a river one mile wide, are cut off from communication with each other by any electrical means, due to

THREE PROPERTIES CHANGE HANDS IN BEAGLE DISTRICT

BEAGLE, Ore., Aug. 2. (Sp.)—Three land sales were reported last week in this neighborhood. The farm known here as the Case Estate was purchased by J. L. Frank. The Frinks have made this ranch their home for the past three years.

Luke Jennings has purchased the Earl Case ranch and Joe Mayfield has purchased the Tom Goffey ranch.

The Purcell brothers have rented the Gordon ranch for the coming year. We have no empty homes in Beagle now. Every place is rented or being bought. It surely proves that our district is coming to the front. There have been several here looking for farms to rent and could not find any.

Harry Ellis has rented the Cooley ranch for the next three years. We understand the Cooleys expect to leave before long. They will go to a warmer climate on account of Mr. Cooley's health.

Prayer meeting was held by Mr. Swinson, the subject being Faithfulness. Fay Ora Zook led the young people's meeting, the subject for the evening being "How the Church is Making Our Nation Better." There was a special song rendered by the junior girls. There were 23 present.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sanderson and two small sons, Robert and Ernest, returned the last of last week from a visit with relatives near Portland. On their return trip they went by way of Astoria and down the coast as far as Hebo. They report the weather much cooler there than here, but were glad to get to the Rogue River valley again.

Chas. Sanderson and daughter Thelma spent Tuesday at Dead Indian Springs.

The Carter breeding machine in making its rounds in our district. All report a good grain yield this year.

The Eugene Gray family and Lela Sunderland spent Sunday night in the Evans creek country.

Those who were Medford visitors the last of the week included Mrs. Mayfield, Raymond and Roberta Mayfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Frink and daughter Eva, Mr. and Mrs. Swinson, Harry Carter and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sanderson and daughter Thelma.

Hope Mayfield of Jump-off-Joe, near Grants Pass, is visiting this week with her father, Finis Mayfield of the Meadows.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred West, who have been living on the Jones ranch, left for Applegate Thursday where they expect to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Terrell of the Meadows passed through Beagle on their way to Medford Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Muthollen are the proud parents of an eight and one-half pound boy, born in Medford Saturday, July 27th.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McIntyre and family are moving onto the Jones ranch just vacated by Fred West. The McIntyres have been living on the Day place.

Several of the girls who are to take part in the play were at the home of Miss Leon Fish Tuesday making their costumes and others who enjoyed the afternoon.

Miss Elva Carter spent Wednesday evening in Phoenix, taking part in the practice for the play.
