

Professors Reimer and Hartman Important Statement Regarding the Best Time to Pick Pears

"When to Pick Pears" is a joint statement compiled by Prof. Harry Hartman of the Oregon State Experiment Station, Prof. E. C. Reimer of the Southern Oregon Experiment Station, and F. K. Norton, who has been in charge of the pear orchards at all times...

The date of picking affects not only the appearance and keeping quality of pears, but also the amount of sugar and acid in the fruit...

That time of picking affects not only the appearance and keeping quality of pears, but also the amount of sugar and acid in the fruit...

The difficulty of determining time of picking, especially in the case of pears, is a matter of some importance...

Of the several lines of pears considered, the most desirable is the one which is picked at the time when the sugar content is at its maximum...

Making the Picking Test. In making the picking test, the pears should be picked at the time when the sugar content is at its maximum...

It is suggested that the pears be picked at the time when the sugar content is at its maximum...

VERONICA SEABROKE

Mrs. Seabroke first mentioned the name to me, I was very busy at the time...

For some unexplained reason, Seabroke seemed to resent my very presence in Blackwater...

"Who's that?" she asked, looking at the girl who was sitting next to me...

"That's my daughter, Veronica," I said, looking at the girl who was sitting next to me...

"Veronica?" she asked, looking at the girl who was sitting next to me...
