GRAF ZEPPELIN OFF TOMORROW AROUND WORLD

Dr. Eckener Orders Every One to Be Ready By Six O'clock Tomorrow Evening Pacific Coast Time—Route Not Settled.

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Ger., Aug. 12.—(AP)—Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the Graf Zeppelin, this afternoon ordered the dirigible "cleared for early sailing" on the Tokyo stage of her flight around the world at 3 a. m. Wednesday (9 p. m. Tuesday, E. S. T.) He admitted the departure of the big air liner might be delayed by unfavorable weather until the same hour Thursday morning.

In any case, the start will be made in the early morning hours, as the low temperature then permits a maximum load of gas.

Dr. Eckener made the announcement after getting one of the closest haircuts in his life. The barber who was grooming him tonsorially persisted in going over the hero of Friedrichshafen's hair again and again despite Dr. Eckener's insistence that the haircut was already perfect.

Dr. Eckener declared rumors current in Friedrichshafen that the Zeppelin's departure would be delayed by procrastination of Russia in granting permits to fly over Russian territory were "arrant nonsense."

"There is not the slightest string attached, not even as to where we must enter Russia."

Weather Determines Route

Asked whether he had already decided on his route across Russia and Siberia, Dr. Eckener replied: "That is absolutely impossible to forecast.

"All I can say when we leave here will be that on the basis of the latest weather reports we will take the northern or southern route into Russia.

"After that I must depend upon the conditions I find there."

Passengers for the flight and newspaper correspondents covering the departure have been invited to the traditional tea on Tuesday when the last word on the start will be announced.

The Zeppelin works estimate that the Graf Zeppelin will cover a distance of 10,000 to 12,000 kilometers between Friedrichshafen and Tokyo according to the route chosen. This would be between 6250 and 7500 miles. The liner will need five days to cover this stretch.

To Be 19 Passengers

While the passenger list will not be officially announced until Tuesday it is authoritatively stated 19 men and one woman will go as passengers. A number of changes have taken place in the passenger list.

Nelson Morris of Chicago will not make the Tokyo flight. Joachim Rickard of Boston and Madrid is listed as the correspondent of the "A. B. C." Spanish newspaper.

The Russian geographer, Professor Karklan, will make the trip.

Other passengers include Lady Grace Drummond Hay, London; Commander Nashiro Fujiyoshi, Japanese naval officer; Commander Charles E. Rosendahl and Lieutenant J. C. Richardson of the United States navy; Sir Hubert Wilkins, Australian explorer; William B. Leeds, New York, and Carl von Weigand and Robert Hartmann, representing the Hearst publications.

RAINS IN ARGENTINE LOWER WHEAT PRICE

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Good rains in Argentine and Australia together with a sharp unexpected drop in Liverpool quotations led today to an early setback of wheat values here. Aggressive selling on the part of commission houses developed with the market showing but little power to rally. Starting 3c to 2¾c off, Chicago wheat later underwent some further loss. Corn and oats likewise were weak, corn opening ¾ to 1¼c down and subsequently declining still more. Provisions tended upward.

The announcement said the United Growers had been organized in compliance with the agricultural marketing act and the Capper-Volstead cooperative marketing act.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Representatives of all the wool growing associations will be invited to meet the federal farm board in Chicago in October to discuss the creation either of an advisory council for the wool industry or a co-operative marketing organization for that product such as has been set up for wheat.

MEDFORD LEGION HAD FINE TIME AT STATE MEET

By H. L. Bromley

Members of the Medford Legion delegations which attended the state convention at Salem last week who arrived home yesterday and today report a most interesting and profitable trip resulting in some fine advertising for this city. Medford was well represented by the Legion drum corps, the unique "40 et 8" train, the Auxiliary quartet and stunt group and the largest number of local legionnaires that ever attended a state convention. The fact that "Medford knows how" was again demonstrated when the Medford drum corps won the Realey trophy for first place in the military drill class of the drum corps contest and the Auxiliary quartet and stunt took first place in their contests. A signal honor for this city was also won by Mrs. Newton Chaney who was elected president of the state department of the Legion Auxiliary.

The "40 et 8" train was the most popular street stunt during the convention and was crowded with passengers from all parts of the state both day and night. Medford Legionnaires heard much praise for their participation at this year's convention and were advised again and again that the Medford convention held here last August was the best ever staged in the history of the state department. The advertising value of last year's event exceeded all expectations and has been worth many thousands of dollars to this city.

A big meeting of Medford post of the American Legion is scheduled for tonight at the armory at which time reports on the state convention will be heard. The handsome Realey cup won by the Medford Legion drum corps will be on display and many items of interest concerning the contest and other convention details will be divulged.

Some important business matters will be discussed and plans made for the annual Labor Day dance which falls on Monday, Sept. 2nd. All members interested in the final disposition of the post "kitty" should be on hand as this question is likely to be decided this evening.

inbound from Venice, a beach suburb.

Miss Rosella Zink of Los Angeles was killed. The seriously injured were Fred Zink, 30, driver of the car; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Zink; their daughter, Gladys Zink, 29, and Miss Marjorie Cobb, all of Los Angeles. The train, loaded with excursionists returning from the beaches, carried the wrecked car for 150 feet, scattering its victims along the right of way.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 12.—(AP) The victim of his own runaway automobile, D. E. Russell, 38, was killed here today.

He was cranking the car, which he had unwittingly left in gear. The engine started and Russell was carried over than 100 feet on the bumper before the car crashed into a building, crushing Russell to death.

Henry Ford to Rescue.

SUDBURY, Mass., Aug. 12.—(AP) An accident involving a Boston-bound bus and three other automobiles cost one man his life late last night, sent three others to hospitals in serious condition and brought Henry Ford to the scene to offer what assistance he could. The dead man is Captain Roy Durchanme, 35, of Worcester, commander of a medical corps unit of the 101st infantry, Massachusetts National Guard, who was in one of the automobiles.

The crash occurred on the new Henry Ford highway, recently presented to the state by the automobile manufacturer, not far distant from the famous Wayside inn, where Ford is staying. Mr. Ford, who has built up a colonial community around the inn, which he owns, heard the sound of the impact and hastened out, accompanied by E. J. Boyer, manager of the hostelry.

Police investigation was said to have revealed that in attempting to pass each other the three machines were nearly abreast when the bus sped into sight from the opposite direction and struck the line of cars.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Six Chinese of this city were burned to death on the highway near here yesterday, when the automobile in which they were returning from a wedding in Stockton collided with another machine, overturned and caught fire. Two other Chinese were injured. One may die. The dead:

Harold Low, medical student at the University of California; Ross An Tye, said to have been the bride at the Stockton wedding; Ella Low Ora Chang, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Pond.

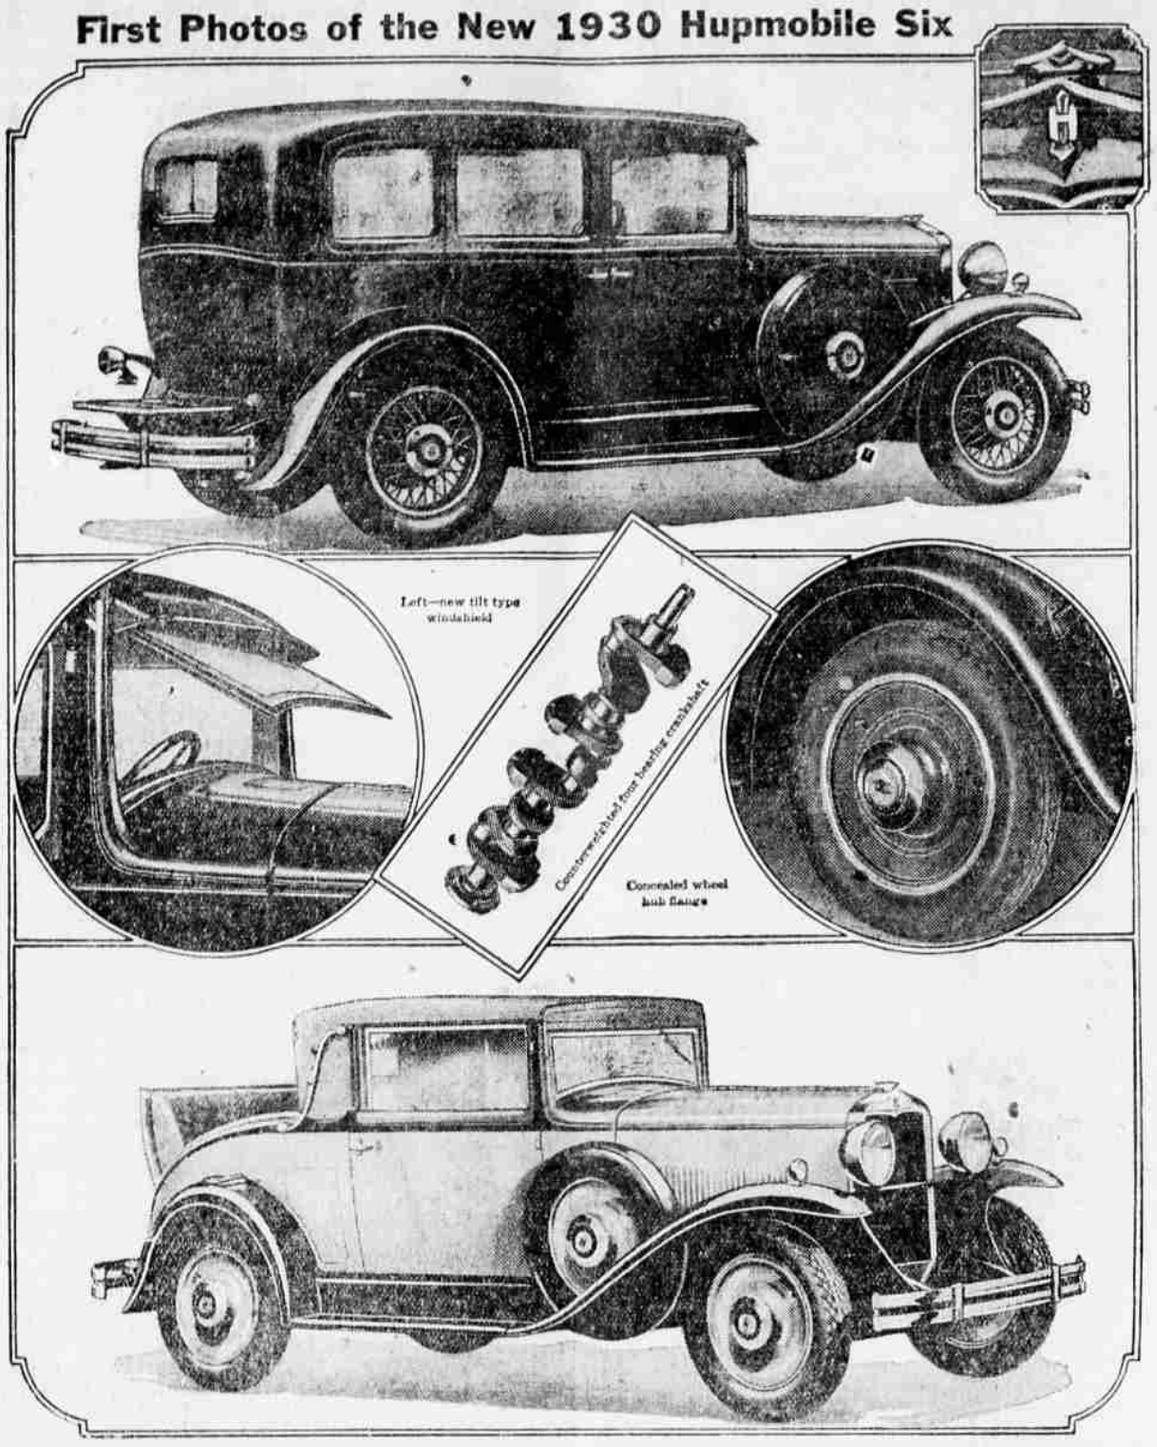
The injured: Bola Lowe, in a hospital here with injuries probably fatal; J. S. Yip, hands burned. He returned to Stockton.

Pending completion of an investigation of the crash, Henry A. Kreuter of Stockton, driver of the motor car with which that of the Chinese collided, was held by Sacramento county authorities.

None of the victims had a chance to escape after their car overturned, following the crash which occurred at Elk Grove, a suburb. The gasoline tank exploded, wrapping the wrecked machine in flames. The terrific heat drove off persons who attempted rescue work.

Portland—$100,000 addition will be constructed to Empire Oil & Food Products company's factory building at 1568 Macadam road.

First Photos of the New 1930 Hupmobile Six



New power, greater flexibility and added beauty characterize the New 1930 Hupmobile Six.

Advanced engineering gives this new car startling performance and vivid acceleration—from 5 to 25 miles an hour in 7 seconds flat and from 5 to 50 miles in 20 seconds; easily reaching 70 miles an hour.

Smartly designed bodies with greater leg room, trim sheet metal tailoring, artistically designed hardware and distinctive interior fittings assure this new Hupmobile of style leadership.

There are four body types—five passenger Sedan, Commercial Coupe, five passenger Phaeton and convertible Cabriolet with rumble seat. Custom and semi-custom equipment, available at unusually low prices, include six or five disc or wire wheels.

ASK POST OFFICE AT LAKE O' WOODS

ASHLAND, Aug. 12.—(Special) A petition was recently filed by the summer residents at Lake of the Woods and by others who live in the Dead Indian district, asking that a postoffice be established at the lake and also asking for the establishment of a star route thru the Dead Indian district. The petition has been met by the posting of a notice calling for candidates to submit application for the position of postmaster at the lake. The position would probably extend over about five months of the year.

Lake residents have felt for some time that some arrangement should be made for having the mail delivered and now that the population has become so large the situation seems quite necessary.

The display of art work offered to the public at the Civic Club house on Friday evening marked the close of the Ashland Summer Art School. The display was visited by a large number of people who were not only interested in art, but who were interested in the work of the school.

The work of each department of the school was well represented and the instructors were present to offer any explanations that might make the display more interesting. Some of the work is new this year. The department of design attracted considerable attention. Landscape work under Miss Belle Cady White, was as popular as ever and there were some fine examples in that class. Commercial art was of outstanding interest, and was unusual in interest and variety.

PROTEST VICTORY OF AIR GOLFER

A. R. Cunningham, Pacific Air Transport pilot, is winner of the week's McPherson prize for low net score at the Rogue Valley Golf club, Jack Hueston, club pro, reported this morning.

The card turned in by the aviator shows a net score of 82, but some of Cunningham's fellow flyers are doubting it. They say he must have made it under some of the big shade trees on the course.

But the score is attested by Ralph Verdan, so Cunningham has been awarded a pair of socks so that he can split the prize with his scorekeeper.

DON'T USE LIVE BAIT; IT'S AGIN THE LAW

Use of live minnows for fish bait is absolutely against the law, according to Rex Parr, deputy game warden who is in Medford today. Mr. Parr reports that he has found cases of several fishermen in the local district using live bait.

Sunfish, crappy, and perch minnows are being used, he says, in the district of the Hyatt dam. So far no arrests have been made but in the future those caught using minnows will be dealt with according to the law.
