

ONLY MIRACLE MAY UNSETTLE LEAGUE LEADS

Cubs and Athletics Hold Seemingly Impregnable Positions As October 6th Windup Nears—Babe's Homer Unavailing.

By Herbert W. Barker
Associated Press Sports Writer.

The day of miracles may not be over, but it would take a highly trusting nature to bet that Chicago and Philadelphia will not meet in the world series this fall.

With two months to go before the season closes on Oct. 6 the growing Cubs Joe McCarthy has developed an eight game lead over the National league field while Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics had to look back 1 1/2 games before they could see their closest rivals, the New York Yankees.

The Cubs have done little faltering in the last month or so and what few slips they have made have come when their nearest pennant rivals could not take advantage of them.

For example, the Cubs ran into Ben Cantwell when he was at his best yesterday and dropped a 4-2 decision to Boston in 10 innings. But this slip means nothing for both Pittsburgh and the New York Giants were beaten.

Cantwell held the Cubs to six hits, two of which helped the invaders to three runs in the sixth inning. Malone, Nehf and Guy Bush all were subjected to a heavy battering but stood off the Braves until the tenth when Bostons beat out a hit and scored from first when Blair threw late and wildly to catch him at the initial bag. Bush thus was charged with his second defeat of the season against 16 victories.

Johnny Frederick's homer with Gilbert on base in the tenth gave Brooklyn another triumph over Pittsburgh, 4-2. Chase Dudley was yanked in the first half of the tenth when Paul Waner doubled to open the frame and Johnny Morrison retired the side without a score although a sacrifice and two passes filled the bases.

A double by Kelly, single by Pittenger and Horace Ford's home run in the eighth gave the Cincinnati Reds three runs and a 5-2 verdict over the Giants. Pete Donohue limited New York to five hits, one of them a homer by Chick Fullis.

St. Louis downed Philadelphia, 7-5, in a freighting game at Baker bowl.

In the American league, the A's stretched their lead a full game by beating Detroit 6-0 while the Yanies were losing at Cleveland.

Rube Walberg gave up only five hits against the Tigers while the A's bunched eight hits off George Uhl with three Detroit errors to pile up a winning margin. At Cincinnati hit his 27th homer of the season.

Babe Ruth's 31st homer couldn't save the Yankees from an 11-7 trouncing by the Indians. Ruth's round trip blow with two on in the third couldn't offset weak pitching by Pingray, Penneck and Sherid.

Red Stuffer entered the Indian box in time to get credit for the victory and gave Cleveland fans something to cheer about by fanning Ruth, Lazzari and Meusel in the eighth.

Danny MacFayden was in form and the Boston Red Sox blanked Chicago 3-0. MacFayden yielded only three hits while Ted Lyons was beaten as early as the first inning when two walks, a triple by Rothrock and a double steal gave Boston three runs.

Doubles by Judge and Rice in the ninth gave Washington a 3-2 triumph over St. Louis. Garland Braxton gave the Browns only five hits.

DARK BEHEMOTHS FIGHT TONIGHT IN CALIFORNIA RING

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Two of California's biggest subjects, George Godfrey, of Leipersville, Pa., and "Long Tom" Hawkins, of San Diego, Cal., negroes whose combined weight closely approximates the quarter ton mark, will go to town, quads or less here tonight.

The great physical advantages which the "Black Shadow" usually boasts over his foes, will be lessened considerably in the meeting with Hawkins, the elongated San Diego fighter being almost his physical equal. Hawkins towers 6 feet 4 1/2 inches in height, a half inch more than Godfrey. Weight, however, will favor Godfrey. He will scale around 240 pounds, about 20 pounds more than Hawkins will peak.

Although Hawkins in the last year has chalked up a number of notable wins, betting odds favor Godfrey by a sizeable figure. The bout will mark Godfrey's first appearance in this section since he defeated Paolino Usodina, the Basque, here more than a year ago.

TIGER PLAYER HELD FASTEST ON PATHS

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—(AP)—The answer to the question, who is the fastest man in the American league—Carl Reynolds of the Chicago White Sox or Jack Rothrock of the Boston club—may be Roy Johnson of the Tigers.

Reynolds and Rothrock have been threatening for some time to match speed in a sprint race to decide who is the fastest runner in the league. While the race is postponed from one cause or another, friends of Roy Johnson have come forward with offers to wager that the Detroit player not only can outfoot either Reynolds or Rothrock, but could beat both of them, running as a relay team over the sprint distance.

"Stairs of Sand," Zane Grey Story, at Rialto Today

"Stairs of Sand," at the Rialto theater, is real, vivid drama—rugged and vital.

The "rough stuff" is furnished by Wallace Beery as the clever "bad" man who gets away with his bandit but fails to get away with the heart of the girl, played by Jean Arthur. Further villainy is provided by Fred Kohler, as the crooked boss of the little Arizona town who also loves the girl, but loses in the battle with Beery. Phillips R. Holmes, handsome new comer to the ranks of leading juveniles, plays the part of the earnest, who arrives at the scene in time to defeat the doubtful purposes of the two villains.

In the end it develops that Beery is a sympathetic villain and relinquishes his claim on the hand of the heroine in favor of Holmes.

"Stairs of Sand" is a pictureization of Zane Grey's story. Chester Conklin provides a wealth of brilliant comedy acting.
