

FORMER ASHLAND COUPLE ARE WED ST. HELENS, WASH.

ASHLAND, Ore., Aug. 15.—(Special)—The recent marriage of Harold W. Allison and Miss Lillian VanNatta will interest many Ashland people who are acquainted with the young people. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. VanNatta of St. Helens, Washington. The impressive ceremony was read by Reverend Roy H. Walker. The bride was charming in white chiffon with tulle veil caught with orange blossoms.

Miss VanNatta was a graduate of the Southern Oregon Normal school and during her residence in Ashland made her home with her grandfather, George C. VanNatta. Mr. Allison was for three years a teacher in the Ashland high school and last year attended the University of Oregon where he had a teaching fellowship and where he has this summer completed work on his master's degree. The young couple will make their home at Eugene, where Mr. Allison will teach in the Eugene high school.

Mr. and Mrs. George VanNatta and Mrs. William Allison of Ashland were guests at the wedding.

Dr. Maude Hawley plans to leave soon for Montana where she will visit an uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Anderson and family have returned from a short vacation spent at the Dead Indian soda springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Edwards, former Ashland residents, arrived Monday and after visiting for a short time with friends, went to the Lake of the Woods, where they plan to spend a week.

Miss Audrey Brown has returned from Crescent lake, where she has been the house guest of Miss Virginia Rose. Miss Brown returned to Ashland with Miss Brown and will in turn be her guest at the Brown home on the Boulevard.

Merrill Gilbert, Alan Prescott and Arthur Gilbert spent the week end on a rambling trip to the Lake of the Woods.

J. Leroy Smith and his family from Portland are guests at the home of Mr. Smith's sister, Mrs. T. W. Hill, who resides on Fairview street.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland, daughter and son-in-law of Joseph Pfeiffer, are spending several days at the Pfeiffer home on Avery street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Andrews, who reside on the Rainier-Clutha tract east of town, expect to leave soon to spend a vacation of several days at the Lake of the Woods.

Little Carolyn Haynes, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Haynes, is recovering from an attack of measles.

Lawrence Gilbert on Church street, who came to Ashland from Hill about two months ago, is now employed at the Moon mill.
