WEATHER SHARPS LET NATURE TAKE COURSE

Whether it was an accident, or conspiracy on the part of the employees of the weather bureau, has not been learned as yet, but because of their absence from posts of duty this morning, the weather failed to rise to its usual high standard.

JACKSONVILLE WOMAN SUFFERS BAD SCALD

JACKSONVILLE, Ore., Aug. 15. (Special.) Mrs. Chris Kenney is suffering from a badly scalded limb which she burned last week. She was treated at the Sacred Heart hospital by Dr. Haines of Ashland and is now improving.

SARAH M'KAY, 85, VALLEY PIONEER, GOES TO REWARD

Sarah Ann McKay, 85, passed away at her home in the Willow Springs district Wednesday evening after an illness for the past two months due to infirmities of old age. Mrs. McKay was born in Dade county, Missouri, October 6, 1843. She crossed the plains with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Slagle, by ox teams in 1850, settling in the Willamette valley, Benton county, near Corvallis, Oregon, residing there until she was 18 years of age. Mrs. McKay then moved to the Applegate district, where she was married to John McKay, December 1, 1861, moving to the Willow Springs district, where her husband took a donation and claim and on which she had resided for more than 60 years.

Her husband was one of the early miners in the Jacksonville district and died in 1902. Deceased was the mother of six children, all of whom are deceased. She was a woman of the fine hardy pioneer type, and will be missed by a host of friends besides her family. Mrs. McKay had a wonderful constitution and was in possession of mental faculties up until her death. She is survived today by two grandchildren, Lola Blackford and Vidal Blackford, and their father, Oscar S. Blackford, and one brother, Jefferson D. Slagle, of Central Point. Funeral services will be held at the Paul funeral home Saturday at 2 p. m. Interment in Jacksonville cemetery.

FIRE SITUATION MUCH IMPROVED

No new fires had been reported in this district of southern Oregon today, officials at the local forest service announced this afternoon. All fires which have been burning during the week are now under control, they report, and but a few more are left in the Pleasant Creek district to insure that section in which 25 small fires have been burning.

There is considerable smoke still hanging around the valley foothills, but the winds of last evening cleared the air in the nearby mountains, prospects reaching here today said Crater Lake park is entirely free of smoke.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Joseph E. Shelton of Eugene was elected secretary and general manager of the Oregon State Motor association at a meeting of the board of directors here yesterday. He succeeds George G. Brandenburg, who died at Eureka, Cal., July 3. Shelton has been a director of the association for six years. For eight years he was editor and publisher of the Eugene Guard. He now operates a printing plant in Eugene.
