

TIGHT PITCHING IS FEATURE OF MAJOR BATTLES

Three Duels Staged by Hurlers—Earl Whitehill Holds Yanks To Pair of Hits For Whitewash Win—Hornby Hits Homer.

By William J. Chipman
Associated Press Sports Writer.

The Athletics apparently have developed the knack of advancing while standing still, but the Cubs have gone down better by finding a way to gain ground while losing. The Mackinnon margin was stretched to 14 games yesterday when the Yankees lost to Detroit as the leaders sat idle in Cleveland; the Cubs won and lost in a Brooklyn doubleheader, but the Pirates obligingly dropped a 2 to 1 decision at Braves field, leaving half a game into the lap of Joseph McCarthy. The Chicago lead now is eight and one-half games.

Real pitching duels were on tap yesterday at Braves field, Navin field and the home of the Browns. The most noteworthy mound performance was turned in at Detroit by Earl Whitehill, who held the Yankees to two small hits to win by 3 to 0. The champions would himself until the seventh when Bob Meusel spoiled Whitehill's afternoon by outpacing Westling's throw and getting credit for a single. Roy Sherd, Whitehill's pitching opponent, got a clean blow in the next round, and that was all.

Sherd himself turned in a smart game, but he was not prepared to meet such extraordinary work as the Detroit southpaw flashed. Harry Rice placed the game beyond Sherd's reach in the very first inning with a home run. George Biscardi allowed the Boston Red Sox just three hits at St. Louis yesterday to win over Jack Russell, 3 to 1 while Fred Marberry and Gladson Draxton collaborated upon a four hit performance which set the White Sox down 2 to 4 at Chicago.

Earl kept the Athletics and the Indians indoors in Cleveland. Guy Bush trimmed Brooklyn 5 to 2 to gain his seventeenth victory of the season, but Dazzy Vance evaded things up by dueling the Cubs 5 to 4 in the second half of the program.

Rears Hornby collected his twenty-sixth homer in the first game, and Earl Carter hit for the circuit in the second.

Ed Brant turned back the Pirates with two hits at Braves field to win 2 to 1 from Renny Kremer. Lloyd Warner collected both of the safeties off the Boston hurler. Brandt was scored upon solely because of his wildness. Comorosy smashing a sacrifice fly in the sixth after three men had been passed.

GIANT ARGENTINE IS COMING CHAMP SAYS AUSTRALIAN

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(AP) Take it from Tom Heener, the "honest blacksmith" from New Zealand—the next heavyweight champion will be Victoria Campolo of the Argentine.

"Honest Tom" expressed his opinion of Campolo's worth last night after the six foot seven inch South American had stopped him in the ninth round of his landing and savage struggle as metropolitan fans have witnessed since the pasting days of Jack Dempsey.

Bobby Jones will be playing his first golf on the west coast when he starts out at the national amateur at Public Bench in September.

GROWTH ITALIAN AVIATION SHOWN IN CABINET DATA

By ANDRUE BERDING
Associated Press Staff Writer.

ROME—(AP)—The cruise of 25 big Italian bombing planes to the eastern Mediterranean and the Black Sea, and the annual report of General Italo Balbo, under secretary for aeronautics, have combined to reveal again Italy's astonishing growth in aviation.

The country of Ferrara and Del Poce and the Biennale del volo are among one of the chief levels in European military aviation strata, only a little behind France, ahead of Germany and the equal of England. In another few years Italy may be leading all Europe in military and naval aircraft.

At the same time, her commercial aviation is moving quickly forward. Within the past year several new lines, land and water, have been opened. Overcoming her geographical difficulties—namely, a mountainous backbone running down her long torso—Italy is connecting all her major cities with passenger and mail lines.

Local newspapers print the time tables of the air lines as they do the schedules of the railroads. Night lines run out of Rome north, east, south and west, across land and across water. Every day a seaplane starts from Ostia, Rome's old seaport, and flies across the Tyrrhenian sea to the island of Sardinia. Every day another plane arrives from the island. From the airport seaplanes leave for the long flight up the coast to Columbia city, Genoa. In the same direction seaplanes depart for Barcelona, Spain, and fly along the Ligurian coast, past celebrated Monte Carlo and Nice; or in the opposite direction to Naples, Palermo and Tripoli, in north Africa. Land planes take off from the Lido field, a few miles away, for Milan, Venice and Vienna, or London.

Throughout Italy a similar activity in commercial flying is constantly going on. Italian planes link the eastern and the western Mediterranean, unite the old civilizations of Rome and Greece, connect two continents, Europe and Africa, and bind Latin and Nordic Europe.

General Balbo reported to the chamber of deputies that in 1928 he, C. and D. five lanes; free-for-all, 10 lanes.

D class to include all E class motor. Time trials will start Monday, September 2, at 8:30 a. m., and official races at 10 a. m. Entries must be made by August 25, and may be mailed to J. P. Smith of Brown's Hardware company, or Lee Watson of the City Cleaning Works, Medford, who are the committee in charge. Entrance fee for all entries is $2.50 with exception of class A, for which there is no monetary fee.

The southern Oregon club is making a special effort to make their first race meet a huge success and every sportsman enthusiast in this section of the state is urged to participate.

In addition to the speed contests there will be a big program of water sports and races, dining, contests, etc., to entertain the crowds. A novel feature will be a rowboat race with single and double crews open to all entries.

Multiple prizes have been arranged for all events including the big bathing beauty contest which promises to be a drawing card.

A new standard diving board has recently been installed and diving contests will be well worth while, according to those in charge of the events. Plans are under way to take movies of the program at Lake o' Woods Labor day.

MUSTAPHA KEMAL REDUCES EXPENSE BY STAYING HOME

ANZIO, Turkey (AP)—The hard earned plasters of hard-up Constantinople (Istanbul) will be applied upon a triumphal arch in welcome to Mustafa Kemal this year. The Grand commander's annual summer visit to the city of the Golden Horn, and will remain throughout the summer, according to an official report in this city and news capital.

No business was given officially for this change in the president's usual program, but unofficially two explanations are being spread. One is that the Grand commander will continue out of his expensive custom of welcoming demonstrations of welcome which have been given by Turkey, Greece, and Italy, but in the light of present conditions of thousands of dead every summer in Turkey the president will be able to save himself for the great war's coming.

GROCERY CLERK HAD TWO WIVES

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(AP)—A Brooklyn grocery clerk was arrested today after police were informed he married two women and resided with both of them in a one-room apartment.

The clerk, Frank Saul, 25, was arrested on complaint of one of the women. She told police that she was married to Saul in June, 1928, the ceremony being witnessed by another woman whom Saul introduced as his sister.

Then, she said, all three set up housekeeping and lived happily until yesterday when the two women quarreled and the supposed sister produced a marriage certificate purporting to show she had been married to Saul in 1922.

Saul was charged with bigamy.

USE EXOTIC DISHES TO GET TRAVEL SENSATION

PARIS (AP)—Instead of making "arm chair tours" with the aid of travel books, Parisian members of the Society for Acclimatization have made their annual gastronomic tour of the world. Once a year the organization gives a luncheon composed of exotic dishes in order to permit untraveled members to taste the foods of far places.

The menus include such unusual delicacies as bird-nest soup, sharks' fins, camel hump, whale steak and bear virolin. This year's luncheon began with Chinese sausage composed of pork and soy bean cheese perfumed with artificial roses.

Brazilian fish caught was the next dish, followed by Bohemian wild sheep served with sweet potatoes and grass from Madagascar. Pig liver with sauce of Brazilian sweetmeat and scoured milk from Kirghiz, in Turkestan, completed the menu.
