

HOOVER IS WELCOMED IN VIRGINIA

Formal Greeting Extended By Citizens of Mountain Community — President Says Angler Reminded of Democracy — All Men Equal Before Fishes— Aid to Humility.

MADISON, Va., Aug. 15.—(AP)—President Hoover was formally welcomed today to the soil of Virginia by the citizens of this mountain community near his Rapidan river fishing camp and in a brief speech in reply explained why he considered angling a happy pastime for the chief executive of a powerful nation.

Fishing, he said, afforded an avenue through which presidents might escape to their own thoughts away from the "inexorable hammer of constant personal contacts," and add:

"Moreover, it is a constant reminder of the democracy of life, of humility and of human frailty—for all men are equal before the fishes. And it is desirable that the president of the United States should be periodically reminded of this fundamental fact—that the forces of nature discriminate for no man."

Besides the welcome from these friends, he received a week-end salute from Mr. Hoover, who was formally greeted by Gov. Harry F. Byrd, a Democrat, in the behalf of the state which for the first time since the Civil war broke away from the Democratic party to give him its electoral vote last November.

The president said he and Mrs. Hoover were "greatly honored by the generous reception accorded them," "it is a welcome," he added, "to one of your neighbors, and it is as a neighbor that I participate with you."

"I often think," he went on, "the test of good neighbors is whether one can always be sure when the family meets an emergency it can cheerfully borrow half a dozen eggs or a few extra dishes."

Appropriate Camp Site

Mr. Hoover said that, unaccustomed as Virginia in the early years of the republic was the home of presidents he felt it appropriate with the changing years that the president at least should have a week-end camp in the state.

The president said he had discovered the reason why presidents like to fishing, which he described as the "silent sport." He offered the opportunity for solitude, he said, continuing that it was "generally realized and accepted that prayer is the most personal of all human relationships." "Next to prayer," he added, "fishing is the most personal relationship of man and of itself, everybody concedes that the fish will not bite in the presence of the public."

President Hoover is now in Virginia, in his address of welcome, he said that "resident Hoover teaches a 'healthful lesson' in simplicity of pleasure seeking by his week-end visits to his camp here.

"The very simplicity of that camp carries a healthful lesson," he said. "Here is the most powerful executive of the wealthiest nation in the world choosing to find recreation in a fashion that is not beyond the means of our citizens. Nearly every week end he comes quietly to his Virginia retreat with out pomp or ceremony in order that he may recapture in the sweetness of the silence of the mountains the strength he spends during the week in carrying great burdens of power and responsibility."

Each school, led by its principal or teachers, will pass in review. The county fair board is offering cash prizes to the school which has the largest parade, and the school which has the largest per cent of its enrollment present in the parade. Prizes are as follows:

The enrollment is figured as the actual number of pupils on the roll September 2nd at 1:00 p. m.

Schools desiring to enter should notify R. C. Fowler, secretary of fair board by Monday, September 9, 1929, giving school and approximate number which will be present, and not later than the hour of the parade (to be announced later) the principal, or teacher, of any school entering must file with Mr. Fowler the following information on the forms provided:

  4. A list of the names of pupils actually present in the parade.
- Forms for making the proper entry may be secured from the secretary of the fair board.

A second new feature of children's day is the awarding of banners to the several schools of the county which won in the health honor roll contest during the last school year.

Health Honor Roll Awards.

The Jackson County Fair Board offers the following prize awards to ribbon children of the Jackson county health honor roll.

MILLIONAIRE IS DROWNED WHEN BOATS COLLIDE

Charles Lipe, Wife and Pilot Lose Lives in St. Lawrence River—Speed Boat Strikes Excursion Craft at Full Speed.

ALEXANDRIA BAY, N. Y., Aug. 17.—(AP)—W. Charles Lipe, Syracuse millionaire manufacturer, his wife and Ford Dugas, his pilot, are believed to have drowned when their speedboat crashed into a pleasure boat in mid-channel of the St. Lawrence river last night.

The Lipe yacht, the "Clay," smashed at full speed into the excursion boat, "Thousand Islands," and sank almost immediately. The "Thousand Islands" has hull damaged, raised with its 30 passengers unharmed and was beached on a ledge six feet under the river surface.

The excursion boat, commanded by Captain Devilla Rogers, was returning from a trip to beauty spots of the immediate vicinity and was brightly lit. Its searchlight was playing about the lake when the Lipe's speedboat, rounded an island point and plowed into the bow of the pleasure boat.

"I didn't see the other boat approaching," said Captain Rogers. "The first thing I knew my bow was struck. Then I saw bodies from the other boat thrown high into the air."

KYACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 17.—(AP)—W. Charles Lipe, believed to have perished with his wife and their pilot last night in a collision of his speed boat and an excursion boat, on the St. Lawrence river, inherited a large portion of a $10,000,000 estate.

Requirements for the honor roll were distributed to teachers last year and may be had either from the county school superintendent or Miss Mildred Carlton, president of the Jackson County Health association.

Honor roll pupils from each school must be certified to by the teacher or principal, and the name, age, sex, date of birth, and address of the child must be in the hands of the county school superintendent on or before September 5, 1929. The county superintendent in turn certifies to the secretary of the fair board before September 11, the date set for the award.

An appropriate banner is awarded the winning school by the fair board in each of the three divisions.

The following are schools already listed to compete at fair time: Howard, Phoenix, Talent, Rute Falls, Fern Valley, Mt. Pitt, Eagle Point, Willow Springs, Meadows, Neil Creek, Wagner, Creek, N. Phoenix, Ashland, 3rd Hill schools, Central Point, Gold Hill and Jacksonville.

Timid Indians of Venezuela Live on Bugs, Worms

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—(AP)—A race of Indians along the Orinoco river in Venezuela so timid they are afraid to fish, was described today by Herbert Spencer, director of the American Indian Hays foundation, upon his arrival on the Furness liner Silvia.

He said the Indians live secluded in a canyon 1000 miles up the river and subsist solely on worms, bugs and ants. They do not eat animals in the belief that the souls of men enter beasts after death.

Dr. Hays, who had set out to trace the headwaters of the Orinoco, termed his expedition a " dismal failure."

SURPRISE PARTY GIVEN FOR ROGUE RIVER GIRL

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey today was attempting to settle some of the many difficulties that have beset Max Baer's German fighting career from Germany.

At the request of the former heavyweight champion, Schmeling and his manager Joe Jacobs, Dempsey was to accompany him to Germany to discuss the terms of a proposed fight between Dempsey and Schmeling in America.

While Dempsey refused to discuss the conference, it was believed he would attempt to buy the German heavyweight's match disarmed contract or would attempt to buy a battle between himself and Schmeling. Dempsey is representing a group of Chicago sportsmen as a promoter.

NOVELTY SEEN WHEN LEAGUE LEADERS FAIL

Cubs Fall Victim to Brooklyn—Macks Merely Hold 14-Game Margin—Babe Collects 32nd Round Trip Blow of Season.

By William J. Chipman, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Novelty was injected into the two major league races yesterday when the Athletics failed to increase their lead and the Cubs actually lost ground. The Macks won a spirited game in Cleveland by 4 to 3, but the Yankees won with them—from Detroit by 12 to 2—leaving the Philadelphia margin stationary at 14 games. In the National league, the Cubs were defeated in Brooklyn by 2 to 1 while the Pirates were scalping the Braves by 3 to 2 to reduce the Bronx advantage to seven and one-half games.

George Barnshaw held the Indians well in hand for eight innings in the brush at Cleveland, while his mates prodded the Messrs. Shante, Holloway and Shafler with such vigor that the A's took the field in the home ninth with a lead of 6 to 3. At this point, the home forces launched a series of blows at Barnshaw and young Bill Shores was called upon to stop the trouble, which he did.

The Yankees' victory at Detroit was notable for Babe Ruth's drive home from the box in three innings. Eddie Weiss was right all the way.

Al Thomas pitched well enough to bring the White Sox home ahead of the Senators by 3 to 0, and Charlie Stuflet tossed the Red Sox to a 2 to 2 decision over St. Louis.

Ray Moss, young Brooklyn right-hander, set the Cubs down without a run until the ninth at Ebbets field. The Robins themselves had no little trouble with Charley Root, being held to two hits in the first six rounds, but they finally broke through for three runs in the seventh. Johnny Frederick placed the decision definitely beyond the Braves by striking Root for a homer in the next round after Moss had singled.

The Pirates had one of their famous hitting afternoons at Braves field, pounding Messrs. Seibold and Peery, the Providence recruit, for 15 hits and nine runs. With such a margin to work on, Kirby Brantz breezed home with the slightest difficulty.

Frank O'Doul celebrated with his 74th homer at Philadelphia, but Cunningham rounded Lou Kestel and others to trim the Phillies by 7 to 2. Ray Kolp was the winning pitcher, but had to leave the aid of Rube Khrushch of the finish.

The Giants and the Cardinals had an open date in their schedule, but are due to mix in a double-header today.

BOBBY JONES ON WAY TO PEBBLE BEACH TOURNEY

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Bobby Jones, national open and amateur golf champion, accompanied by Mrs. Jones, his parents and a party of friends, planned to leave Atlanta today over the southern route for California, where Bobby will defend his title at Pebble Beach, September 2 to 12.

The party, which includes Charles E. Slack, Jr., also entered in the tournament, will spend four days in Los Angeles where Jones and George Von Elm have an exhibition match with Cyril Talley and Angus Storey, British stars, on Aug. 23. After the exhibition Jones will go directly to Pebble Beach to begin practice on the tournament course.

This will mark the twelfth time Bobby has entered the national amateur event, four of which he has won. Last year he defeated Phil Perkins, 18 to 9 in the championship flight at West Newton, Mass.

OUT OF KEELER'S GOLF BAG

By O. B. Keeler.

Henry Cuel, the bright-eyed Italian professional from Mill River, was one competitor in the recent national open championship at Winged Foot who was sure of a gallery, no matter where he finished.

As a matter of fact, Henry finished very well up indeed. His scores of 78, 74, 75, 75 brought him a single stroke under 300 and left him in solitary state in the seventh position of the great field.

It was that 74 in the first round that kept him from catching one of the huge galleries at the finish—granted that a good first round could have been followed by the other three as they actually happened.

This, of course, is debatable; there are those who maintain—and they cannot be contradicted with any authority—that no one round, and no one hole of one round, could be altered in such a competition.

Sport Slants

By ALAN J. GOULE

Gene Sharpen took the last open golf championship seriously enough to go in for a rigid course of training and dieting for it. He finished two strokes away. He blames his golf on the diet.

"Bobby Jones used to be the big runner-up in these events, but since he has taken to winning them, I seem to be always one or two strokes short," remarked Gene.

Bronzed, genial, Scraper looks more like a young, successful business man than a golf professional. As a matter of fact, he is. No other "pro" has kept so conspicuously in the competitive limelight, gathering position and substance, without the lustre of championship honors.

Scraper is a caddy ten years ago, is now one of the highest paid professionals in the game. He won the open championship seven years ago at Chicago, the P. G. A. title the same year. The reaction to this double success upon his youthful balance and his game, for a time, but there is no more even-tempered competitor and none more popular nor than Gene's friend of Fresh Meadows.

"The secret of championship play is taking it easy and playing it safe," remarked Gene, as we sat in the grill room. "Yes, most of us refuse to do that. I did it for two rounds at Winged Foot this year and was tied for the lead. I started taking chances then and lost."

"But anyone who beats Bobby Jones is just lucky," said Gene.

"Our open championship now is the one big event. There's no getting away from that. In fact, somebody was kidding Hagen up in Montreal by ranking the Canadian open ahead of the British open."

"Why has Hagen been so successful abroad? I'll tell you one big reason: the gallery. When Hagen starts out over there in England or Scotland, all the gallery that hasn't gone after Buzman and Mitchell follows Hagen. This show of interest would be gratifying to most any player and it acts like tonic to The Hag. He thrives on it and plays his best golf."

"I think Jones benefits from more than he may be handicapped by his big galleries in our open. For an experienced competitor, it is natural to respond to the gallery."

The reaction to the enthusiasm of the mob affects most of the big stars in any line of sport. No one loves his crowds more than the great Babe Ruth. The Bambino has picked world's series audiences for most of his most spectacular stunts at last. Tommie Spurgeon have inspired, although also annoyed, the Hill Thien. The bigger the crowd the bigger the thrills furnished by Jack Demsey.
