

SOX TEAM JINX AGAIN DEFEATS ATHLETIC NINE

Lena's Boys Within One of Tie Against A's in 15 Games — Hack Wilson Gets 32nd Homer — Robins in Celebration.

By William J. Chapman, Associated Press Sports Writer. All the big winners in American league history have felt, at least once in their respective seasons, the sting of a three straight defeats. The Athletics of 1929 qualified under this rule of baseball fate yesterday—presuming that the A's not only will win but will win by a margin great enough to place them in a class with the Red Sox of 1912 and the Yankees of 1923 and 1927.

Connie Mack's first run of three straight losses for the current season was accomplished in Chicago yesterday when the White Sox noosed out Moss Grove in the ninth by 4 to 2.

The White Sox already have qualified for the jinx team not only of Grove, but also of the Athletics themselves. The Chicago victory yesterday brought Blackburn's boys up to within one of a tie against the A's in fifteen games and left the coming champions faced by the necessity of taking at least two add game in the remaining seven to win the season's series from the lowly Sox.

The Browns batted hard against Hoyt, Phipps and Nikola yesterday as Sammy Gray stopped the Yanks with seven hits to win by 16 to 0. The Browns got 15 safeties.

After 10 days or more of good pitching the Cubs were forced yesterday to go through an afternoon of hard slugging. The Bruins adapted themselves to the job in hand, pounded four Philadelphia pitchers for 21 hits and won by 16 to 7.

Hack Wilson's 32nd homer was a feature of the Chicago attack. The Cubs made no answer, as the Pirates defeated the Giants by 6 to 2 in the battle for second place. Johnny Morrison pitched well enough to win a 13 to 9 decision over Cincinnati in Brooklyn after Watson Clark had permitted the Reds to pile up a lead of 5 to 0 in three rounds. The Robins celebrated with nine runs in the third, their biggest inning of the season, and so were in the lead when Morrison entered the box. Clark was deprived of the victory, however, by the National league rule which forces a starting pitcher to work five innings to win.

FOOTBALL STAR GETS FOUR BROWN SAFETIES

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Only once in five trips to the plate yesterday did Morris "Red" Barber substitute Browns' fielders, fall to get a hit. The former University of California football star batted in three runs and scored twice himself, accounting for half of the ten runs by which the Browns beat the world champion Yankees.

CUBS TO GET SUPPORT IN CINCINNATI CONTEST

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Plenty of home support will be with the Cubs Sunday when they invade Redland field at Cincinnati, for their "grudge" meeting with the Reds. The teams will clash in a doubleheader Sunday, then will return to Chicago for a two-day stand.

Three years ago, Big Bill Tilden was abruptly shocked by the surprising rash of youthful Frenchmen after capturing the United States singles championship six times in a row. Over the period of 1820 to 1927, Big Bill was supreme. The record of seven championships, first set by Dick Sears back in the eighties and equaled later by William Larned, appeared well within the grasp of Tilden until he ran into Cusher in 1926 and then Lacoste in 1927. Cusher turned back Frank Hunter for the singles crown in 1928. Tilden being in official oblivion as an aftermath of his player-writer row and was ruled out of action.

Now, the lanky American is back home after his last big campaign a broad, with no more Frenchmen in sight for the rest of the season. As a consequence, Big Bill has a royal chance to wade through the field at Forest Hills, starting September 7, to recapture the national title and equal the Sears-Larned mark. Should he do so, Tilden automatically would clinch the No. 1 ranking position on the national list for the tenth time in a row. Despite his ups and downs of recent years, he has never relinquished that dominating position at home, although he was re-instated just in time to be hit at the head of the class last February for the ninth year.

In the ten national singles championships he has tried for since 1913, Tilden has been champion six times, runner-up three times to L. Lindley Murray, Little Bill Johnston and Rene Lacoste and quarter-finalist once, when he bowed to Henri Cochet. The latter, the Big's victim five times in the national finals and once in the semi-finals in 1921, when Tilden's conquest of Walter Johnson in the finals represented an anticlimax.

When Dick Herman first broke in with the Brooklyn Robins, his awkwardness in the field frequently made it doubtful whether he would hook fly balls with his glove or his head. The Babe is still several kilometers short of the TTS speaker standard of outfielding, but his heavy hitting has set anything his critics may say about his defensive ability. Herman has been batting consistently around .400, threatening to give Brooklyn its first champion batsman since the palmy days of Jake Daubert and Zach Wheat.

Herman is only one of the big surprises this year in the Na-

DUCKS GARNER ELEVENTH WIN IN SUCCESSION

Seals Take Third On Chin in Portland Series—Walters Hooks Pair of Home Runs—Ducks Tie Stars for Third Place.

By the Associated Press. The third defeat in a row of the San Francisco Seals by the Portland club in the north convinced the boys from the Bay City yesterday that holding a place at the top of the Pacific Coast league this week would not be as easy as it was last week against the Hollywood Stars. The Seals were still second in the standings. However, with Los Angeles holding a half game lead.

The Ducks walloped the Seals by a 10 to 3 count. Five of the ten Portland runs were directly accounted for by two smashing homers Walters belted off Vernon Gomez, prize southerner of the Seals. It was the eleventh consecutive victory for the climbing Ducks. The victory put Portland into a tie with the Hollywood Stars for third place, half a game behind the Seals.

Wade Killefer's Mission Reds struggled to a 6 to 3 triumph over the Sacramento Senators at Recreation park here. It was their first win in the three games they have played here. Bert Cole was the winning server.

The Hollywood Stars won from the Oakland Aorns in Los Angeles by a tally of 14 to 13 in ten snappy innings. The Oaks used five pitchers, and Hollywood four, but the battering on both sides continued. The Stars batted to a total of 21 singles, while the Oaks could get only 12.

Seattle's Indians took the war-path and defeated the Los Angeles club in the northwestern city, in both ends of a double header. The score in the first was 8 to 7, and in the second 3 to 1. The second game, however, did not count in the standings. Webb of Los Angeles hit a homer in the first.
