Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bateman Write of Beautiful Scenes in Denmark; Oregon Apples on Sale in Markets

Every home, even those owned by the poorest families, have 750 yards with flowers, hedges and grass. The sanitary conditions are not the best, as the horses, cows, pig and chickens are all kept under the same roof with the family. Wood is very scarce, as the government owns all the timber, which is planted in patches scattered over the country, and the residents have to buy even the smallest lumber, such as we would not think of using.

Most of the cattle are of the Danish red breed, and are very much like our own red breed. All they are picketed as they do not have meadows and pasture lands, and the cows are milked three times a day.

Home Brewer is Accused of Sale Through Klamath

Fifteen gallons of beer mash and 57 quarts of beer were found in the alleged "beer joint" at Pitt View, a suburb north of the city, when it was raided last night as 8:30 by federal and county officers.

Nichols moved to the Pitt View district in May from Olney, Klamath county, officers say. They contend that he has been operating his place for the past two months. Two customers were in the house at the time of the raid.
