GRANGE MOTTO In essentials, unity; In non-essentials, liberty; In all things, charity.

THOSE MEN WHO TRY To do something and fail, are infinitely better than those who try to do nothing and beautifully succeed. —Jenkin Lloyd Jones.

HE WOULDNT CO-OPERATE Said a wise old bee at the close of the day: "This colony business doesn't pay. I put my honey in that old hive. That others may eat and live and thrive; And I do more work in a day, by gee, Than some of the other fellows do in three. I toil and worry and save and hoard, And all I get is my room and board. It's me for a hive I can run myself, And me for the sweets of my hard-earned pelf."

So the old bee flew to a meadow lone, And started a business all his own. He gave no thought to his buzzing clan, But all intent on his selfish plan, He lived the life of a hermit free— "Ah, this is great," said the wise old bee.

But the summer waned and the days grew drear, And the lone bee wailed as he dropped a tear, For the varmints gobbled his little store. And his wax played out and his heart was sore, So he wined his way to the old home land, And he took his meals at the High Line Hand.

Alone, our work is of little worth; Together we are the lords of the earth; So it's all for each and it's best for all— United stand, or divided fall.

PROFITABLE KNOWLEDGE Knowledge of production alone may make a man a slave. Knowledge of distribution alone may make a man a plutocrat. Knowledge of consumption alone may make a man a parasite. Knowledge of all three makes a man an effective citizen of democracy. —Glen Frank.

EAGLE POINT GRANGE The last regular meeting of the Eagle Point Grange was one of the most enjoyable in its history, an open social night given in honor of the opening of the new Eagle Point Grange hall, which replaces the beautiful Grange hall destroyed by fire last February.

Several hundred people were present from all parts of the county, including a large number of Medford business men and their families. A regular country hot dish supper, which was enjoyed by most of those present, was served in the basement dining hall of the building. This was followed by a forum in charge of A. C. Mittelstaedt, master of the Grange, during which the Grange was congratulated on its energy, co-operation and business-like community spirit by the following: W. A. Gates, W. S. Holger, H. O. Frohach, Judge Sparz and others.

After these talks the following very interesting entertainment program was given, in charge of Mrs. Luella Ward, lecturer of the Grange. An orchestra number by the Young Folks' orchestra, composed of Billie Miller, violin; Vernon Monia, saxophone; Elsie Wilhite, guitar; and Dorothy Whitte, on the piano. Following this number was a vocal duet by Mr. Hatfield and Mrs. Dickery, reading "Jiggs and Maggie at the Gate of St. Peter," by Mrs. Strohmeyer of Central Point Grange; an accordion solo by Fred Hoberrecht, Jr., of Enterprise Grange; piano duet by Catherine Wendt and Mable Sims of Jacksonville Grange; vocal solo, "The Desert Song," by Doris Richardson of Central Point; reading, "The Jew Merchant," by Mrs. Mo-lin Burgess; instrumental solo on the steel guitar by Ernie Dayhach; fancy solo dance by Sylvia Hoberrecht, accompanied by her father, Fred Hoberrecht on the accordion; vocal solo, "Irish Eyes Are Smiling," by Catherine Wendt of Jacksonville; catchy vocal duet by the little Misses Helen and Ruth Truist, "Papa Ain't Got None." A humorous reading, "Betty at the Baseball Game," concluding by an accordion solo, "Swedish Valsen," by Fred Hoberrecht, Sr.

After the program the large crowd enjoyed dancing, the music being furnished by Fred Hoberrecht, accordion; Reed Carrier, saxophone; Mr. and Mrs. Truist of Trail, violin and piano.

The Grange especially appreciates the assistance of all who helped make this get-together such a success, also the splendid spirit of good fellowship which pervaded throughout the evening.

The Eagle Point Grange takes this opportunity of publishing the names of contributors to our building fund.

The names and amounts will be placed on our bulletin board in the Grange hall.

It is impossible for us to express our appreciation and we truly hope the Grange may exercise such a power for good in the Jackson county community that the above named investors in this good cause will feel amply repaid. Again, we thank you.

LAKE CREEK GRANGE A good number of Grangers were present for the Lake Creek Grange's meeting held Thursday evening.

For the first time since our Grange was organized, Master Floyd Charley was unable to be with us. We feel that this is an unusual record. Secretary Juba Sidley and Pomona Helen Sidley have never missed a meeting. They have certainly shown a true Grange spirit. A number of others have missed only one or two meetings.

In the absence of the master, the meeting was capably conducted by Overseer Reed Charley. The agricultural committee was reported busy on fair work. Chairman Alma Meyer asked that a number gather at the Lake Creek hall on Sunday before the fair, and help to label fruit, arrange grain, etc. She also asked that a few volunteers to gather moss and overgreens.

Reed Charley, chairman of the marketing committee, gave an interesting report on Pomona marketing committee meetings which he had attended recently.

Roll-call and discussion occupied the greater part of the evening. The most important topic was the question of making ourselves more comfortable for the coming winter.

Members are reminded that the men of the Grange, under the leadership of Chaplain Russ Moore, will furnish the program for the first meeting in September. All are urged to attend.

It was voted to hold the next meeting on the first Thursday in September, because of our regular date coming during the fair week. A large number from Lake Creek attended the Eagle Point hall warming Tuesday evening. All report a most enjoyable time and speak highly of the hospitality shown by the Eagle Point Grange.

PRICE IS HOST AT LAKE TO WINNERS OF FAIR CONTEST

CRATER LAKE, Ore., Aug. 27. —(Sp.) Beth Joy of Ashland, winner of the 1929 Oregon state fair, are guests of R. W. Price, manager of the Crater Lake Lodge, for this week. Mr. Price has for many years taken a great interest in the activities of the young people at the state fair and takes this way to show his appreciation of their splendid work. They are accompanied by Mrs. W. A. Pettit and Zelpha White of Ashland. They were driven down by Gen. Thomason of the state traffic department.

Jack Hargrove of Klamath Falls spent the week-end at Crater Lake.

Miss Maple Timmons, of Medford was a visitor at the lake Sunday.

Wilbur Telford of Klamath Falls was a visitor at the lake Sunday.

Ronald Robinson of Albany, Ore., and of the University of Oregon left this morning for Klamath Falls after spending several days visiting with friends at the lake. Mr. Robinson was employed by the United States Bureau of Public Roads during the year of 1926 when they were doing extensive surveying around the rim. He will visit friends in Medford.

Miss Lee Henderson is spending several days visiting with her father, Ranger Ray Henderson at the rim.

The Ranger Ship has been called many odd and twisted names but the one that scores highest was given by the tourist who asked to be shown a picture card of "Steamboat Rock."

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Richmond of Central Point visited Sunday with their daughter Wilba who is employed in the Patterson pictures at the lodge.

Thomas Roseberry of Medford was a visitor at the lake Sunday.

Mrs. H. C. Galey and daughter Ruth of Ashland visited Sunday with Miss Mary Galey who is employed at the lodge this season.

Mr. Steller and Mrs. Meter of Russell's store in Medford were visitors at the lake Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. MacDonald of Butte, Montana were visitors at the lake Sunday. Mrs. MacDonald is in the employ of the Shell Oil company and until a short time ago was residing at Grants Pass and less than a year ago was working for the Shell Oil company in Medford, where they have many friends.

ASHLAND CAMP FULL OF TOURISTS DAILY ASHLAND, Ore., Aug. 27.—(Sp.) The business of the Lillith Park auto camp has increased most satisfactorily under the management of W. E. Kissinger, who states that people are turned away every evening on account of lack of adequate accommodations, although five of the ten new cabins planned for this year have already been erected. All of the older cabins are being filled and many campers are provided with their own equipment. This week one more old cabin is being torn down and a new modern duplex started in its place. The delicatessen has doubled the volume of business that it enjoyed earlier in the season, and the volume seems to be limited only by the capacity of the kitchen.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Christensen of Linden, Cal., who have been visiting at Phoenix at the home of Mrs. Christensen's mother, were in Ashland on Friday for luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will M. Dodge on the Boulevard.

Rev. and Mrs. G. V. Falls and their daughter, Miss Rosalie, and Miss Harriet Thorn made a trip to Crater Lake on Friday.

Mrs. I. R. Bateman and her niece, Charliette Wolters, made a trip to Klamath Falls on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Galey and Miss Ellen Galey visited Crater Lake on Sunday.

ASHLAND GIRL GUEST OF PRICES AT LAKE ASHLAND, Ore., Aug. 27.—(Sp.) Miss Beth Joy left Ashland on Sunday for Crater Lake, where she will spend a week at the Crater Lake lodge as a guest of Manager and Mrs. R. W. Price.

Mrs. Henry C. Galey and her daughter, Ellen were in Medford on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam B. McNair left on Friday morning for Ilwaco and Crescent City to spend several days of the beach and in visiting friends.

Mrs. Katie Hill of Medford was in Ashland on Wednesday to visit with her sister, Miss Helen Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Harrison left for San Francisco on Thursday to make their home. Mrs. Harrison is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gillette on Graham street. The Harrison family have just returned from Portland, where they have purchased a fine modern home.
