JEW'S PLEA HEEDED BY KIND JUDGE

Annul Marriage Descendant of Aaron to Widow—Violation Mosaic Law—Would Have Lost Privilege of Worship and Burial in Hallowed Ground—Shame to Tribe.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—(AP)—From the book of Leviticus, 21st chapter, 14th verse, Judge Joseph B. Davis yesterday took authority to annul the marriage of Louis Leon, 61.

Leon told the court he was a descendant of Aaron, brother of Moses and the first high priest. Under Jewish orthodoxy he is a "kohen," a title inherited by all male descendants of Aaron. As such, he told the court, he is governed by the special laws of his faith concerning priests, though by profession he is a tailor.

Through his marriage to Mrs. Rose Davis, 59, widow and a divorced woman, he lost his title, was barred from worship and forfeited the privilege of burial in hallowed ground—a crushing blow for an orthodox Jew, he explained.

It was not until after his marriage last February, he said, that he learned she had twice married before, her first husband dying, the second having been divorced. Thus, he told Judge Davis, he had twice violated the Mosaic law as laid down in Leviticus.

"A widow or a divorced woman... these shall be not taken; but as shall take a virgin of his own people to wife."

Seeking relief in Illinois statutes, Leon was beaten to court by his wife, who sought separate maintenance. Leon's attorney countered with suit for divorce, basing his petition solely on the ancient Hebrew law. He produced witnesses and records to substantiate Leon's claim.

Judge Davis delayed decision until he had time to consult several prominent rabbis. They agreed that under Jewish law Leon had forfeited his rights of worship.

"I will not bring shame on the tribe of Aaron," Judge Davis said. "Though under the laws of this state you have almost no claims, I will stan the order."

SIR THOMAS HOPEFUL LIFTING AMERICA'S CUP

LONDON, Aug. 28.—(AP)—Sir Thomas Lipton, noted British sportsman, was in an optimistic mood as he left for the United States Tuesday to make final arrangements for his fifth attempt to win the famous America's cup, premier yachting trophy, for Great Britain.

"I hope to come back with the cup this time," said Sir Thomas. "I have never felt so confident about it."

SAVE TANK STEAMER THREATENED BY FIRE

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—(AP)—The fire which broke out in the first room of the tanker Paulsboro last night was under control this morning and the American tanker Bonaville was standing by, according to the Vacuum Oil Co. With a cargo of 10,000 tons of crude oil the Paulsboro was bound from Houston, Texas, to Bayonne, New Jersey. Her commander is John T. Pearson of New York and she has a crew of 33 men.

SINGER FAVORED OVER CHOCOLATE IN THURSDAY GO

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—(AP)—For perhaps the first time in his American career, Kid Chocolate, dusky Cuban featherweight, will enter the ring for his 12-round bout with Al Singer at the Polo Grounds tomorrow night in an underdog in the betting.

Quotations of 8 and 9 to 5 and some as high as 2 to 1 on Singer were offered freely in the past week. Indications were that these odds would hold good at ring time.

Chocolate and his handlers apparently are doing little or no worrying over the fact that the Cuban will be on the short end of the betting odds. Few opponents have hit Chocolate with a right hand and that's Singer's most potent weapon. And as for comparative records, the Cuban "keed" has all the best of it.

Jack Kid Berg, English lightweight, and Spug Meyers of Chicago are booked in the 10-round semi-final. Harry Ebbe of Freeport and Izzy Gove, New York middleweight, meet in the first 10-round.

EMMA LOU-CARPENTER UNION GIVES MEDFORD NEW SHOPPING PLACE

(By Mary Greiner)

When a man marries his troubles begin. That is an old saw and trite, but some people take stock in it. Another is "two can live cheaper than one." Well maybe. Those on the affirmative are referred to the case of Emma Lou Kavanaugh, local milliner and U. C. Carpenter, shoe man. And of course everyone knows that Emma Lou is Mrs. Carpenter now.

Mr. Carpenter once owned a shoe store on Sixth avenue, Emma Lou, who operated and still operates the Emma Lou Shop in the M. M. Department store, opened her unique and artistic little Band Box Hat Shoppe next door. No, Mr. Carpenter wasn't mad. But he sold out soon afterwards and moved down to Texas for several months, where he was engaged in selling a few real estate problems.

Came the spring, and Mr. Carpenter returned with a wedding ring in his pocket. There was a quiet wedding and a honeymoon, during which time the Band Box Shoppe took a summer vacation.

Tomorrow, the lid will be taken off the Band Box and the secret will be out. The Band Box, more artistic than ever, will lead into something equally unique—the shoe box, where Mr. Carpenter, owner and operator will introduce a clever line of ladies' and kiddies' shoes. Oh yes, and there will be all sorts of colored balloons for the young men and women who come to the opening.

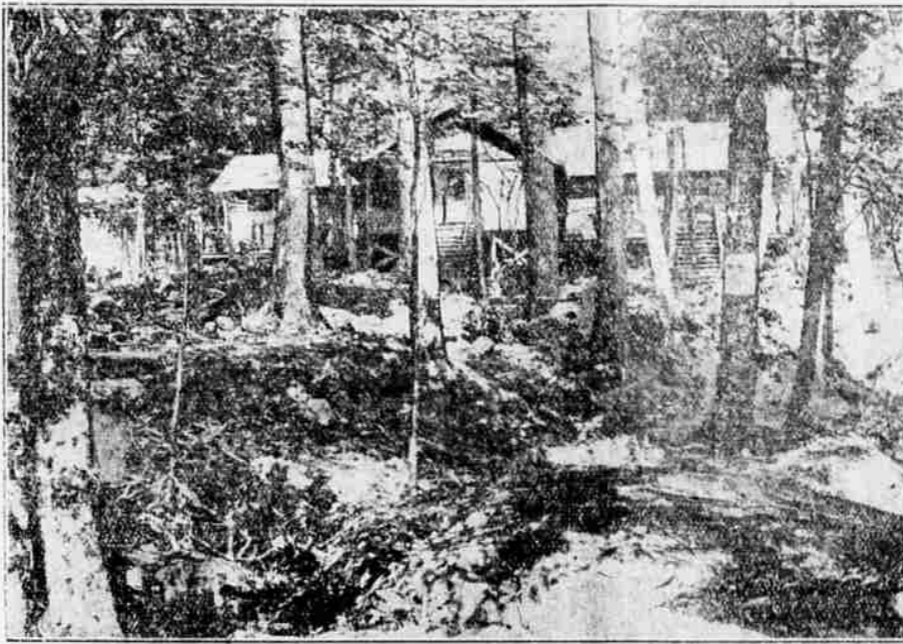

Two may not live any more cheaply than one—but they do it much more effectively, especially if one lives in a Band Box and the other in a Shoe Box with a friendly smiling archway between.

Representatives of Campbell-Ewald Co. Make Survey Here

H. F. Weller, special advertising representative for the Campbell-Ewald Advertising Agency of Detroit, Los Angeles and San Francisco, and C. P. Shaw, regional manager of the travel service department of the same agency, were in Medford Tuesday conferring with local dealers, who handle General Motors cars, making a survey of the general conditions of business in Medford and the valley and were called at this office. The Campbell-Ewald Agency places the General Motors advertising.

Both visitors were greatly impressed with the activity in Medford, the splendid business conditions, especially in the fruit industry, and spoke very highly of Medford's being both air-minded and air conscious, as well as metropolitan in other ways.

Ernest Rostel Sees Zepppelin Depart From Mines Field For Lakehurst, N. J. Half Million Witness Near Accident

(By Ernest Rostel)

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27.—(Special Correspondence)—Ending its 14-hour stay in Los Angeles, the Graf Zeppelin, conqueror of the Pacific, lifted its silver grey bulk into the air at midnight last night and bid adieu to southern California, en route on the last lap of its world flight. Its departure was marked by the largest assembly ever seen at the municipal airport, with 500,000 people crowded on the field, but held back from the ship for a half mile or so by policemen, ropes and fences.

It was a great night for the city and especially for those who braved traffic jams and collisions in reaching Mines Field, where a million knees quivered and some nearly sank when disaster almost overtook the giant ship in its take-off. It was either by super-navigational or good fortune that the ship barely cleared high tension electric wires by a scant five feet, averting destruction of the ship, and possible death to its crew and passengers and hundreds of spectators. The wires were 2000 feet from the mooring mast and the gray haired commander of the ship apparently thought the distance was sufficient, but an extraordinary heavy load did not keep in time with the calculations.

Beautiful Night. The night was beautiful and a half moon played tag with fleecy clouds dotting the midnight sky. There were no airplanes in the air and the runway, like the night, the airship first came over the field, was illuminated by many lights, bidding fair to rival the light of day. The sides of the ship, shown like silver, becoming darker toward the top in the waning moonlight.

Noise was incessant as motor-cycle police, blowing sirens long and loud, escorted passengers, officers and members of the crew to the ship, following an elaborate banquet in Los Angeles. Lights appeared dim and twinkled in the dust of a wheat field unaccustomed to the feet of aircraft, thousands and the wheels of many by every type of automobile manufactured. The police had some difficulty in keeping the crowds in line and waved clubs threateningly at the ones who were bolder than others. Amid all the noise played portable phonographs and other music-making instruments at the many concessions, but their effect was lost in the din, and little cared the excited spectators whether they partook of ice cream or soft drinks when a big event was about to take place. Sides now vendors cried themselves hoarse, but they further brought a minimum of spots.

Lead Speakers on Field. Loudspeakers placed conveniently in the crowd could be heard only occasionally if the speaker was too far removed, but if he wished a better position he faced the prospect of elbowing his way through countless hundreds

SOLD GOLD TEETH TO BUY CIGARETS

TURIN, Italy, Aug. 28.—(AP)—So poor that he sold his gold teeth to buy cigarettes, Edgar LaPlante, formerly of Pawtucket, R. I., a free man after serving five years in a Italian prison for theft, sailed for the United States today.

He said he bore no ill feeling toward the country where he had much notoriety five years ago. The American consul here gave LaPlante a little money for incidentals on the trip to America.

LaPlante posed as Chief White Elk of the Sioux Indians and traveled through Europe in princely style, with a number of the Italian aristocracy as his secretary. Five years ago an Austrian countess accused him of theft and a number of similar charges followed from other women. He was arrested and tried in Italy.

FINE APRICOTS GROWN EAGLE POINT ORCHARD

EAGLE POINT, Ore., Aug. 28.—(Special)—James E. Linn is preparing to pick his fruit within a few days. Mr. Linn has one of the best apricot orchards in the valley and it is above the frost line.

Eddy Chamber, bookkeeper for the road gang operating on the Crater Lake highway, was in Eagle Point Wednesday. Mr. Chamber tends to make his headquarters in Eagle Point.

Theodore Flory of Medford was in town Thursday, accompanied by the agent of the accident commission. While here they took pictures of the wreck and of the corner of the street where the accident of Mrs. Hill of Derby occurred two weeks ago.

Raymond A. Mische of the Monarch Food & Feed company of Medford called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ditworth Monday. Mr. Mische was interested in the potatoes grown by Mrs. Ditworth, which are always the very best.

Mr. and Mrs. Holcomb and family arrived in Eagle Point Friday morning from Bend. Mr. Holcomb is one of the crew that will start filing the highway from Prospect to Crater Lake.

Mr. Allen of the Chevrolet company and Frank Crow also of Medford were in Eagle Point Friday attending to business.

Paul Mayo, third secretary of the United States embassy at Brussels, has been appointed associate professor of social science at the University of Denver.

Jeannette Loff, charming Pathé star, says: "No matter what climate my pictures take me to, or how hard the water, I have found that Lux Toilet Soap keeps my skin enviably smooth."

"I am utterly enthusiastic about Lux Toilet Soap," says pretty Mary Nolan, Universal star. "Even the most expensive French soaps have not kept my skin so beautifully smooth."

9 out of 10 screen stars use it to keep their skin soft and smooth

Nancy Carroll's, to see how exquisite this delicately fragrant white soap keeps the skin. Small wonder that every one of the great film studios has made Lux Toilet Soap the official soap in all dressing rooms!
