ARAB FURY AT HEBRON DESCRIBED

Maddened Mobs Broke Into Houses, Slaughtered Inhabitants and Mutilated Bodies—Many Children Victims—Natives Pillaged Jewish Section—Swords, Knives Used.

CAIRO, Aug. 30.—(AP) Graphic accounts of the massacre at Hebron Saturday in which three score Jews, including fifteen American students, were killed in the sudden and overpowering attack by maddened Arab mobs, was given today by travelers arriving here from Palestine.

Their narratives described horrifying scenes when the horde of natives, mostly from outlying villages, descended upon the town, broke into large Jewish houses, slaughtered all the inhabitants and mutilated the bodies.

Not even children escaped the fury of the assault. Before the authorities succeeded in restoring quiet, the attacking bands of Arabs had grown to about 5,000 and had run its deadly pillaging way throughout a large part of the Jewish section.

It was not until Sunday morning that repressive measures were sufficiently successful to admit a survey of the situation and to begin the gruesome task of collecting the dead. In one house alone nineteen bodies were found. In some cases bodies were hanging from windows; in others they had been carelessly thrown into the streets.

Slay Children
In practically every instance death was caused by swords or knives. Even young children of two and three years, many of them, did not escape the savagery of the attack.

While the death toll in Hebron is estimated at nearly sixty, only ten Moslems were killed by the Jewish defense. The American casualties in the town were in the rabbinical college, where the youths were pursuing their religious studies. Twenty-nine American students survived the attack.

Valuable work in removing wounded Jews from Hebron to Jerusalem was done by the Zionist executive committee in Jerusalem which dispatched motor buses escorted by armored cars for this purpose.

The Arab attitude toward the Jews in Hebron, by no means uniformly hostile, travelers report. There were cases at Hebron and elsewhere, they say, where Arab neighbors saved Jews from the fury of the mobs. Seven Jews thus were protected in a village between Hebron and Jerusalem and subsequently they were evacuated to Jerusalem. In another case two fellow-workers saved a Jewish driver of a steam roller.

CENTRAL PT. MOURNS DEATH OF MRS. MARTIN

CENTRAL POINT, Ore., Aug. 30.—(Special)—The friends of Mary Rebecca Martin were shocked to learn of her sudden passing. Her late years had been spent with her daughter, Mrs. Karl Skyrman, although many years of her life were spent at Trail, Ore., where her friends were numbered by her acquaintance.

At her funeral last week at Trail, flowers in abundance were offered as a token of love and esteem from relatives and friends. She was laid away in the Trail cemetery.

ACTOR SON VISITS AT WHITNEY FAMILY HOME

CENTRAL POINT, Ore., Aug. 30.—(Special)—Frank Whitney, actor and small son, Richard, of Los Angeles, Cal., started home Monday, after a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Whitney of the Hill road.

Mr. Whitney, a prominent actor has of late years been connected with the productions of Stephen Motronary at San Gabriel, Cal., under the stage name of Richard Sterling. Owing to a serious accident while bathing in the ocean he has been compelled to drop out of the new play "Theodora" that was put on early in the year.
