Oscar and Roscoe Forage for Food In Lobby of Lodge at Crater Lake; Bruin Also Busy Procuring Supply

By Myrna Bush

CRATER LAKE, Ore., Sept. 17.—(Special) "Oscar" and "Roscoe" are the names of the two pet chipmunks who are making themselves completely at home in the lobby of the lodge. They tear around the lobby seeking candy and nuts to store for the winter and it is miscellaneous the amount of provisions they can store away in a day.

The two little fellows are not invited guests but have imposed themselves upon the good nature of the management and other employees and are continually under foot begging for food.

They are the delight of the children who visit here and even allow the youngsters to pet them.
