

HUSKIES MOLD PLAY FOR FAST GRID ATHLETES

Power Method to Be Displaced By Open Field Maneuvers — Retain Punt Formations — Veterans in Forward Defense.

By Frank G. Gorrie
Associated Press Sports Writer
SEATTLE, Sept. 25.—(AP)—To capitalize on several speedsters, the University of Washington football team will go on the field of battle this season with emphasis on a new style of play—a distinctly open game, in contrast to the more closed in, powerhouse methods of former years.

The punt formation theory of attack, however, will continue to be the keynote of the Huskies' offensive system which has proven a consistent ground-gainer since its inception at Washington. Coach Enoch Bagshaw and his assistants are in favor of continuing the punt and semi-punt formations, which won favorable comment last year, but are injecting a variety of deceptive open field plays to take advantage of some exceptionally fast men.

Another reason for the change this season is that Bagshaw has lost "Chuck" Carroll, all-American halfback, who worked the punt formation to perfection.

Stronger This Year.

The Washington team, who won only two conference games last year, is figured a much stronger eleven this season.

Twenty-two men, including the complete 1928 line, have reported back for duty. With a veteran forward wall, and excellent material to select from for his back field, Bagshaw considers the grid situation this season one of the brightest since he joined the husky staff nine years ago.

This veteran line is composed of Sam Kraetz, center, Paul Jessup, six-foot, seven-inch captain, and Henry Wentworth, tackle; Jack Scaman and Bill Greger, guards, and Bill Snyder and Clarence Pautzke, ends.

There is a possibility that Jessup may go to center and Paul Schwagler, giant sophomore, to the vacant tackle berth. Bagshaw has any number of ends to pick from, including Tom Edlmann, Walter Shihl, Larry Westeweller and Roy Squifer, lettermen.

In the backfield, Merle Hufford, flashy sophomore ball carrier, is being groomed for Carroll's position. Other halfbacks seeking places include Elliott Pulver, Thurla Thornton, Johnny Stoultz and Bob Buzzard, sophomore and Gerdie Jenkins, a newcomer.

Charles Rosenhan, a 200-pound triple threat man, has been working at fullback. Rosenhan played the position with the freshman squad last year and was a brilliant performer.

For quarterback Bagshaw has Johnny Gehlan, a letterman and Jack Patrick and Ed Littlefield, Gechan, who was ineligible last year, looks like the best bet. Patrick came from the freshman team and Littlefield from a junior college.

Bagshaw will be in a better position to tell the worth of his men after their first game next Saturday in battle against Whitman College, a non-conference eleven.

CHAMPIONSHIP LIES BETWEEN REDS AND STARS

Two Principals On Even Basis As Coast Race Wanes — Keesey Breaks Oak Spirit With Homer for Ducks in Seventh.

By the Associated Press.
With the San Francisco Mission Reds fighting toe to toe with the Holywood Stars today for the Pacific Coast League leadership, and the Portland Ducks a full game ahead of the San Francisco Seals in the 1929 race, in its final two weeks of play, assumed definite proportions.

It was conceded that the outcome of the championship race lay mostly with the Reds and the Stars, and the determination of the bay city club no doubt accounted largely for yesterday's victory by the Killdeer crew against the Vittmen at Recreation park here.

The Missions romped off with the first game of the week's series 12 to 1. Thus they tied with the southern club for the league leadership, held by the movieland team for almost three weeks. The Missions lashed out 17 hits, which also accounted greatly for their win. The third paramount factor was the classy pitching of Dutch Reuther, who held the foe to but 7 hits.

Heavy hitting by the Los Angeles Angels on their home lot gave them a victory over the San Francisco Seals with a score of 9 to 7. Four home runs sailed out at convenient moments to aid the southern club, but the visitors outhit the Angels, 12 to 10. Webb's two homers, coupled with one each by Sandberg and Jacobs, resulted in six of the Angels' tallies.

Jim Keesey's home run in the seventh with the score tied at six-all, broke Oakland's spirit and gave the Portland Ducks the first game of the series in the northern city, 7 to 6. The Oaks outhit Portland, garnering 18 safeties off Caserella and Chesterfield, while the Ducks connected only a dozen times off Craghead and Knisch.

The Seattle Indians took a new lease on life and defeated Sacramento in the opener in the north, 7 to 2. Kutz, former Sacramento hurler, allowed his old team mates only six hits.

GRIDDERS DRILL FOR MARSHFIELD TILT OCTOBER 5

This week the Medford high school football team will start drilling for their opening game here Saturday, October 5, with the Marshfield high school. It will be the seventh year in succession the two schools have met. Marshfield never won a game, but has always abided by its schedule. Once or twice they have been beaten by slim margins, and they put up a battle.

This year, Marshfield is touted as a possible state championship contender, and has a more or less experienced team, that have been playing together a couple of years. They will be one of the toughest nuts the locals have to crack.

When the Medford team lines up against the Coos Bay outfit, they will have five weeks of hard practice, but no actual games, under their belts. However, the scrimmage this week and next will be as near regular contests as they can be made.

Coghlan has no first or second team picked. He has four big tackles, Cunningham, Doblyn, White and Lowry, and Green and Syrague, lettermen from last year's squad, as guards, but they are not even certain of starting. He may change tackles every quarter. He also has two sets of linemen with a good broken field runner in Stine, who also is a forward

FOR THE FIRST TIME YOU CAN COMPARE RADIO RECEPTION WITH BROADCASTING AS IT ACTUALLY SOUNDS IN THE STUDIO

By The Most Dramatic and Convincing Test for Radio Tone and Reception Ever Made

At 12:11 midnight, May 4th last, using the facilities of Station WABC in New York City, before an audience of great artists, eminent radio authorities and skeptical newspaper men, Brunswick made the most dramatic and convincing Test ever conceived to prove "Studio Quality" Radio Reception.

Every Brunswick Dealer is equipped to reproduce this test, with all its drama, with all its romance, right in his own store. It constitutes a demonstration that no other Radio has ever attempted.

You will hear great artists broadcast just as though you had been in the studio of Station WABC, and, at the same time, you will be able to listen to the identical program as it was received through a stock model of the NEW Brunswick Radio, miles away.

This test proves that Brunswick has created a new standard, a new conception of Radio Reception which outstanding authorities have termed "Studio Quality" Radio Reception.

This means that the Reception quality of the NEW Brunswick Radio is so perfect that you, as a listener-in, are literally transported to the studio from which the program is being broadcast. You hear the artists as though you were actually in the Broadcasting Studio — the elaborate apparatus that makes broadcasting and reception possible does not seem to intervene.

Wildcat Wins

Ace Hunkins

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Ace Hunkins, the Nebraska wildcat, knocked out Joe Anderson in the sixth round of their elimination bout last night.

The Wildcat belted the Kentucky galloper groggy in the first five of their scheduled 10-round rematch, and loosed a right hand thunderbolt to Anderson's face in the sixth. The blow uprooted a couple of molars, the referee called it a technical knockout. The victory cleared the path for a match with Mickey Walker here October 29.

HUGGINS' FIGHT FOR LIFE CASTS PALL O'ER PLAY

Solemn Tone Evident Among Players and Fans — Mel Ott Ties Hornsby Homer Record — Zachary Hurls Twelfth Victory.

By William J. Chipman

Associated Press Sports Writer
With the attention of fans and players alike centered upon Miller Huggins' fight for his life in a New York hospital, a solemn tone was evident along the big league trail yesterday as the afternoon's program was unveiled. Melvin Ott of the Giants and veteran Tom Zachary of the Yankees shared such spotlight as there was. Ott, with his 41st and 42nd home runs and Zachary with his 12th victory in a season which has brought him no defeats.

Ott slashed a ball into the right field seats in each of two games at the Polo Grounds, and his drives were instrumental in bringing the Giants home in front in both encounters by 5 to 4 and 6 to 5. The two blows enabled the young New York outfielder to tie the National league record made by Rogers Hornsby in 1922 when the Rajah won the major league crown with 42 home runs.

The Phillies rallied sharply against Johnny Morrison in the eighth to pull out a decision over Brooklyn by 8 to 5 in a slambang game.

Chick Hafey again pulled his home run act with Jim Bottomley on base, and as a result the Cardinals outpointed Ted Lucas and it was Hafey's 27th. Wild Bill Hallahan pitched for St. Louis.

Pittsburg and Chicago were not scheduled.

The Yankees went to Boston yesterday to open a brief and inconsequential series, but their minds were with their stricken manager at St. Vincent's hospital in New York. The fallen champion nevertheless won from the Bostonians by 5 to 3 before a crowd of 8,000 fans celebrating the Hub's annual "Babe Ruth Day."

The victory not only added a 12th triumph to Zachary's perfect record, but also placed him one game further ahead of any winning mark ever made by a pitcher performing regular or semi-regular service.

When Willie Huggins faltered against Ted Lyons and the White Sox in the ninth game at Cleveland yesterday, Wes Farrell rushed to the rescue and the Indians won by 7 to 4. Arthur Herring pitched Detroit to a 5 to 4 victory over the Browns at Navin field. Alvin Crowder was his victim.

The Athletics and the Senators had an open date.

"They work while you sleep"

Cascarets is Good for the System

What do you do when a sluggish system tells you the bowels need a little help?

The best thing yet discovered for the purpose is still the little candy Cascarets! Take one whenever the liver and bowels are not functioning as they should.

Cascarets are pleasing to the palate, and pleasant in their action. You eat them just like candy. They work while you sleep. Gentle, but thorough. Cascarets don't stir-up the stomach or upset the system. But they cleanse the entire thirty feet of bowels in one comfortable, thorough action that leaves the system clean and sweet; leaves you with an untainted breath, uncoated tongue, and clear head.

Cascarets are made of cascara—long regarded one of the most beneficial laxatives known to medical science. They are sweetened with pure cane sugar and flavored with real licorice. Children love them. So do most grown-ups! Why take anything harsh when constipation threatens? Whenever a dull headache, lassitude, or sick stomach with loss of appetite warns you of poor elimination, a Cascaret or two is the most harmless form of help you could give a lagging system.

Take a candy Cascaret tonight and see how fine you'll feel in the morning—and for days after.

pass artist. Stine will probably alternate with Applegate, Clay, Potter and Zumbann in the backfield.

The squad the past week has been showing some form, with the line showing and the backfield getting some machine-like precision in its plays. Zumbann is being groomed as the kicker and shows promise.

In the southern Oregon conference games this week, Grants Pass plays Klamath Falls at Klamath Falls. Grants Pass defeated Crescent City last Saturday 6 to 0, and Weed and Klamath Falls played a 7-7 tie.

INVITATIONS TO GOLF TOURNEY ARE SENT OUT

Invitations to attend the southern Oregon golf championship, to be held here October 11-13, were sent out today by the Medford club, to all similar organizations in this part of the state.

There will be three, and perhaps four, flights of 16 players each, and two silver cups for first and runner-up prizes in each flight. There will be no handicaps, of course, but with four flights there will be a chance for any class player, the flights being arranged according to scores made in the qualifying round.

The main prize has been donated by Larry Schade, local jeweler, and will be known as the Larry Schade trophy. On it the winner of the first flight will have his name engraved, and it will become the property of the man winning it three times.

The Mail Tribune has donated a silver cup for the first flight runner-up, and other handsome prizes have been given. All the prizes will be placed on display in the near future.
