CUB OFFENSEIVE RATED STRONG FOR BIG SERIES

Batting Averages Give Outfield Group 18-Point Margin Over Big Guns of A's—Defensive Strength Is About Even.

By Alan Gould
Associated Press Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(AP) It doesn't take more than a quick glance at the figures to realize that the "big punch" of the Cub attack is possessed by the outfield trio of Riggs Stephenson, Kiki Cuyler and Hack Wilson.

No one member of the Chicago cast has a thing on the very useful Mr. Aloysius Harry Simmons of the Athletics, who happens to be just about the best all-around outfielder in baseball but collectively the Cubs have a distinct edge on their rivals on attack. On defense there is little, if anything to choose with Simmons and Cuyler ranking as the best of the ball hawks.

Not since the palmy days of Cobb, Crawford and Veach, the great Detroit trio, has there been any harder outfield group than this Cuyler, Wilson, Stephenson combination.

Their batting figure, collectively, on the basis of the latest unofficial averages, is .354, a margin of 18 points over the aggregate mark of .336 for Simmons Mule Haas and Bing Miller of the A's. The big three of the Cubs has accounted for 678 of the 952 runs scored by the team, either by crossing the plate personally or driving mates over. Their rivals have figured in 621 of the 882 runs tallied by the A's. Individually Wilson has the best run-producing record. In fact the big Chicago dash to the top dated from the time the rotund Hack was shifted to the clean-up role where his faculty for hitting in a pinch could best be capitalized.

Cuyler Is Factor

Among a number of vital factors in the Cub rise, few are more conspicuous than the work of the fleet Cuyler, the league's leading base stealer, who has enjoyed his greatest all-around year since he helped the Pirates win the pennant in 1925. Stephenson is less spectacular but the ex-Alabama collegian also has surpassed anything previous in his major league career, with a batting mark that is the highest he ever has had in fast company and second only to Hornsby's in the Cub lineup. When injuries kept either Cuyler or Stephenson out of the game, the Cubs had an able substitute at hand in the speedy Cliff Heathcote.

The development of Haas and the steady work of the veteran Miller contributed much to the triumph of the A's. The former's batting fell off toward the close of the season but when the Mackmen were building up their decisive lead the young centerfielder hit at a sensational clip. Haas hasn't the punch of his rival, Wilson, but he is faster and rangier. Miller, 35 years old and five years older than Stephenson, nevertheless has retained unusual speed as well as a keen batting eye.

SATURDAY'S GAME TO TEST POWERS OF HAGEN SQUAD

The Medford high school football team, will swing into action next Saturday, against the Marshfield high school, in its first game of the season, after a month of drill and practice under Coach [illegible]

SEVEN GRADUATES OF LOCAL SCHOOL SEEK GRID BERTH

The idols of Medford football followers, the coach and seven of the players of former local state champion teams, donned moleskins yesterday afternoon at the University of Oregon, in the first practice of the freshmen squad.

Prink Callison assumed the coaching reins of the frosh squad, and Bill Morgan and Al Stoehr, tackles, Bernard Hughes, center, Jack Hughes, guard, Clifton Garnett, halfback, Clifford Moore, halfback, and Bill Bowerman, end, went through the opening drills.

Al Melvin, a football and basketball flash of the local school, will not enter the university, until after the first semester, and will turn out for freshman basketball.

Fred "Red" McDonald, star end last year, and basketball keystone, registered at Oregon State college, and reported yesterday for the first rook practice.

At the university, all but Bernie Hughes will have plenty of competition for places. Counting himself, there are two candidates for center.

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 1.—(AP)—Sixty-nine University of Oregon freshmen answered first call for football, yesterday with Prink Callison, former Medford high school coach, supervising the first practice.

Seven of his last year's high school team are among the freshmen aspirants this season. Of the 69 in the turnout, two are centers, 15 are either tackles or guards and the rest of the lot are seeking backfield and berths.

PROSPECT BRIGHT FOR LOCAL FIELD FROSH-ROOK TILT

Prospects brightened today for a University of Oregon Freshman-Oregon State College Rook football game in this city Saturday, November 9, under the auspices of the Medford post of the American Legion.

Telegrams were received last night from Paul J. Schissler, Oregon State coach, and Carl Losdell, graduate manager.

The telegram from Schissler read:

"Am considering Medford proposition. Personally favor it, but am not sure schedule can be shifted right now. Will try to make it."

Graduate Manager Lobdell in a telegram to C. T. Baker, favored the game.

The University of Oregon athletic heads have agreed to the game.

The Medford proposition guarantees the visiting collegian squads $500 each, and a percentage of the gate receipts.

The game would draw like a porous plaster in this vicinity. The Oregon yearlings would be coached by Prink Callison, former high school coach, and the lineup would include the heavy stars of last year's state champion team.

The State College would probably present in its line-up "Cocky Red" McDonald, the only Medford player of last year's crop to register at Corvallis.

The game scheduled for this city would be played the Saturday before Armistice Day, and is now scheduled for Saturday, November 15. The Eugene game was transferred to Portland.

DOG FIGHTS FOR POSITION CLOSE BASEBALL YEAR

Giants Battling for Second Place With Pittsburg — Washington and Detroit May Change Status in American League

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.
Associated Press Sports' Writer.

Dog fights for positions down the line in the two major league standings featured the closing week of the campaign.

In the National league, there is the possibility that New York's Giants can take second place away from Pittsburgh with a strong finish. Battle for the top of the second division is going on between Philadelphia and Brooklyn. The only other question left for the older circuit is whether the champion Cubs can run their total of victories up to 100 games before the end.

The American league has only one real change among the possibilities. Washington in fifth place and Detroit in sixth may reverse their positions before Sunday night. A mathematical possibility remains that St. Louis may gain a tie for third with Cleveland.

The Giant-Pirate squabble also is nearer the realm of pure mathematics than of probability. Pittsburgh has a three game edge with as many to go. The Giants have five to play. Brooklyn and Philadelphia are tied for fifth place with three games apiece left.

McCarthy's Chicago boys have 95 victories on the books so far and six more possibly in sight. The Cub schedule calls for a five game series at Cincinnati before they close at home against Pittsburgh.

Cleveland fans expect to have little trouble in clinching third place in the American league. St. Louis has to capture all games to gain a tie.

Washington has a rather tough row to hoe in keeping fifth place out of the hands of Detroit's Tigers. The Senators have only a two game margin and have pairs of games to play against the Athletics and Red Sox. Detroit's schedule calls for a four game series with the lowly White Sox, already beaten in eleven of their 18 encounters this year.

No games were scheduled yesterday.

PHIL M'GRAW HANGS UP BOXING GLOVES

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(AP) Phil McGraw, the Detroit florist, has retired from the ring.

The veteran lightweight announced he was thru with the cauliflower industry last night after he had taken a terrific beating from Jack (Kid) Berg of England, in a ten round bout at the St. Nicholas arena.

McGraw said he had amassed a fortune of more than $100,000 in the ring and felt that the time had come for him to hang up his gloves forever.

More and More Colds Treated Externally

Growing Demand for Vicks Vapo-Rub Compels Another Increase In Famous Slogan.

A generation ago, when Vicks VapoRub was originated, the idea of treating colds without "dosing" was almost unheard of. Today more and more colds are treated externally, and the whole trend of medical practice is away from needless "dosing."

As a result, the demand for Vicks has increased so rapidly that it is again necessary to change its familiar slogan. First announced when Vicks reached "17 Million Jars Used Yearly," this famous slogan was raised to "21 Million" a short time ago. Once more the figure has been outgrown, as there are now "Over 26 Million Jars Used Yearly" in the United States alone.

Mothers of young children especially appreciate Vicks, because there's nothing to swallow and, of course, nothing to upset delicate stomachs, as "dosing" is so apt to do. Just rubbed on, this modern vaporizing ointment acts through the skin like a poultice or plaster, and at the same time it gives off medicated vapors which are inhaled direct to the inflamed air passages.

Year after year the popularity of Vicks has spread all over the world until it is now the family standby for all colds—adults' as well as children's—in more than 60 countries. —adv
