HOME OF BREAD LIKE MOTHER MADE

Save For Rainy Day

With money plentiful and with everybody employed—now is the time to save for those rainy days—days when jobs are not so plentiful.

The easiest way to save is to buy where you buy the same for less—where you save without denying yourself the things you are accustomed to having.

That is just what you do when you buy here—our lower expense assures that. Saving the cost of that vast army of clerks necessary to handle our trade means a substantial reduction in prices which insures a substantial addition to your savings without self-denial on your part.

It's easy to save where you save without self-denial.
