19th Anniversary Sale Now In Progress

Mann's 19th Anniversary Sale is held each year, and the momentum of its success seems to carry over from one year to the next. Customers remember it by the remarkable values they obtained, while our own personal pride in trying to surpass the previous year's record in value-giving, is an inspiration. There is no other event like it—none that offers greater buying opportunities. For the Second Saturday's Selling, the following items are highly commended and quick response is suggested.
