

PROMISE FIGHT BY SCHISLER CREW IN SOUTH

Oregon State Mentor Undaunted By Possible Loss of Two Aces Through Injury—Running, Passing Attack Planned.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 5.—(AP)—Whether the Trojan warhorse is the sturdy steed University of Southern California fans believe it to be, will be demonstrated today when it clashes with Coach Paul Schissler's Oregon State gridders in the second conference game of the season.

While weather forecasts call for a warm day, the Beaver mentor has ordered no shift, and, despite the fact that two of his men may be unable to appear because of injuries, the invading coach has promised a "good fight."

Roger Montgomery, substitute quarterback, is definitely out with injuries, while Cecil Sherwood, the halfback who caused New York University so much trouble last fall when the westerners went east to announce the university's victory, is suffering a muscle injury which may handicap him if not kept him out of the contest.

Plan Pass Attack

Schissler, with an abundance of backs, plans a running and passing attack which he hopes will sweep Coach Howard Jones' men off their feet. He admits his line is green, with the tackles especially an unknown quantity.

The shifting of his first string guards to tackle positions and two spare backfield men to the guard positions may strengthen the forward wall so that it can withstand the buffeting of the Trojans.

Coach Jones indicated his starting lineup would be approximately the same as that which handed the University of California at Los Angeles a 76-0 defeat last Saturday. While U. S. C. may try a passing attack of its own, including some clever lateral tosses, the chances are that offensive thrusts will be directed against the invaders.

Indications are that a crowd of more than 50,000 will witness the game.

MAJOR LEAGUERS TO WIND UP YEAR

After five days in hitting for most of the big league clubs, the entire enrollment of both circuits returns to action today to begin the final week-end program which brings the two campaigns to conclusions. The Cubs snatched one from the Reds, 5 to 3 in ten innings, and the White Sox cuffed the Tigers by 14 to 6 in the only two contests decided yesterday.

John McGraw retained his chance to finish second, even though his game with the Phillies went into the discard. As a matter of fact, this slender possibility was strengthened a bit by the cancellation.

LEVY LEAVES PORTLAND MATCHMAKER POSITION

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 5.—(AP)—The municipal boxing commission was without a matchmaker today after Joe Levy, who held the berth two years, tendered his resignation yesterday while American Legion members gathered forces asking discharge of all members of the commission and substitution of a new one.

Levy, who said he would leave shortly for Los Angeles to consider another position as matchmaker, declared he thought he would be handicapped to remain in Portland with so many offers tendered him in other sections of the country.

IDAHO COLLEGIANS HIT NORMAL SCHOOL SNAG

LA GRANDE, Ore., Oct. 5.—(AP)—The College of Idaho under-estimated the strength of the Eastern Oregon Normal school football team here yesterday and left for home with the small end of a 19 to 7 score.

Alfred Cornell started the second Coyote team and Normal marched down the field twice in the first quarter to score touchdowns. Cornell pushed in the first team which failed to score until the last quarter.

Klamath Battlers to Feature Special Four-Round Event on Tuesday's Card

Tickets for the big 30-round smelter Tuesday night at the armory were placed on sale today at Brown's in Medford and at Nininger's at Ashland and fans are urged by Promoter Joe Bickerstaff to buy seats early if the best is preferred. Principals for the bouts are in training at Klamath Falls and are reported to be sparing no efforts to be in the pink of condition.

Henny Hill of San Francisco, scheduled to fight the main event, arrived to begin training in Klamath Falls several days ago and is determined to defeat the Ashland marvel Gene O'Grady, who has not lost a fight out of 30. Hill will weigh in around 183 pounds and O'Grady will tip the scales at 175.

A six-round semi-windup at 126 pounds will present Johnny Spencer, Seattle high school "speed ball king," against Jack Davies, Chilquin's best. These boys will fight on a winner-take-all basis and if Spencer wins he will be matched with Joe Marcus, Pacific coast champion.

A four-round special event will have Steamboat Jackson matched against Billy Hoff at 150 pounds. Both are of Klamath Falls. The latter is the trainer of O'Grady and the former has won his last six fights.

Two heavyweights will mix gloves in another four-round event when K. O. (Tiny) McComber meets Battling Bunker of Dorris. McComber hails from the small town of Dairy in Klamath county and is 6 feet 4 1/2 inches tall. He weighs 186 pounds. A four-round curtain raiser presents Milling Miller of Marshfield and Hurricane Harry of Chilquin. They will weigh in around 125 pounds.

SPORTSMEN MEET AT WEASKU INN

A spirit of cooperation and common good will predominate, the Isaac Walton League and the Jackson County Game Protective Association met at Weasku Inn, on the Pacific highway last night to discuss matters affecting the sportsmen in both counties.

T. E. Daniels, E. W. Gould and several other members of the local organization attended the meet and presented reports concerning the work accomplished for game protection. Mr. Gould gave a report of conditions on Lower Rogue river where he has spent the entire summer.

State Senator Miller of Grants Pass, an active worker for the Isaac Walton League was present and gave a number of constructive suggestions for the work to be carried on in both counties during the ensuing year.

DERN TOPPLES GIANT GRAPPLER FROM RING

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 5.—(AP)—Ira Dern, Salt Lake heavyweight grappler, defeated Pete Saour, Los Angeles giant, here last night, two falls out of three. Dern won the first in 29 minutes but Saour countered to take the second in 12 minutes. Saour was knocked from the ring during the third fall and when he failed to come back Referee Verne McCullough counted him out and awarded the match to Dern.

FASTEST MAN IN WORLD SERIES

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 5.—(AP)—Connie Mack has been asked so many times recently who will pitch the first game for the Athletics in the world series he is getting tired answering.

"Well, I can say truthfully," is Mack's invariable reply, "that right now I don't know, and I don't think I will know until the series is about to start. Here's the way I argue it:

"Suppose I tell someone he is to pitch and later on conditions compel me to change my mind. That pitcher starts to worry and wonders what has happened.

"I haven't decided even whether it will be a right-hander or a left-hander. All your questioners can keep right on guessing, but nobody will know who is going in until 15 minutes before game time."

Pendleton vs. Hood River
MEDFORD, Ore., Oct. 5.—(AP)—The Pendleton high school football team will meet the Hood River high school eleven here this afternoon. It will be the second game of the season for Pendleton, which team defeated Hood River last year.

KIKI CUYLER

Kiki Cuyler, the National league's speediest base runner, is in top form for the 1929 world's series and his activities on the paths are a factor in the Cubs' attack for the A's to reckon with. It is his third world series.

OREGON ELEVEN KEYS FOR TEST AGAINST CARDS

Conference Chance Hinges On Showing at Palo Alto Today—All Oregonians in Good Condition—Eager for Action.

PALO ALTO, Oct. 5.—(AP) Keyed to concert pitch for the game which is expected to make or break them as Coast conference contenders, thirty-three University of Oregon gridirers made ready today to face the Stanford Cardinals in the conference debut of both elevens.

The Webfooters, with Coach John J. McEwan in charge, arrived here yesterday, took a brisk workout in the Stanford stadium and rested last night in San Jose.

Every man on the squad, including Captain Dave Mason, recently recovered from a leg injury, was in good condition and eager for action.

Oregon, openly pointed for the Cards, must face a Stanford eleven which, hampered by injuries showed its mettle in turning back the powerful Olympic club last week.

The northerners have a big veteran team, headed by "Flying Dutchman" Kitzmiller at quarter, but Coach Pop Warner has ironed out the rough spots in his team's play. Fans expect to see the big red team clicking more smoothly than any Warner team ever did so early in the season.

The line-ups:
Oregon: Pos. Stanford; Erley, (c) Muller; Colbert, (tr) Tandy; Shields, (lcr) Helser; Stadelman, (c) Helmecke; Lillie, (rgr) Driscoll; Christensen, (rt) Artman; Archer, (rcl) Neill; Kitzmiller, (q) Fleishacker; Robinson, (hr) Rothert; Mason, (e) Phil; Frentpry; Moeller, (f) Smalling

Co-Eds, Athletes Better Scholars, Avers Stanford

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Oct. 5.—(AP) Hats off to the weaker sex. Figures compiled by the registrar's office on a basis of one point each "c" grade made during the past university year, revealed that woman students averaged 66 1/2 credits against 1500 "c" for men students. Athletes showed a high average when compared with their non-competing classmates.

Oregon University Gridiron Stars Shown Working Out For Today's Struggle Against Powerful Stanford Team

Here are four University of Oregon luminaries and Coach McEwan for today's game with Stanford's powerful eleven. Captain Mason, who has just booted a high one, is playing his last season. Johnny Kitzmiller, the "Flying Dutchman," shows just how he dodges the tacklers. Eric Forata, sophomore center, and George Christensen, giant tackle, are following Coach McEwan's instructions by charging, and charging hard. Captain McEwan is smiling, which is just another way of saying he is pleased with the outlook.

HOLLYWOOD HAS GAME EDGE AS SEASON WANES

Victory Over Ducks Leaves Stars in Favorable Position for Second Half Honors—Seals Are Sure of Third Money.

By the Associated Press.

The race for second half honors of the 1929 Pacific Coast league season still remained today with the Hollywood Stars and the San Francisco Mission Reds, but the two clubs were tied no longer. The Stars, with the advantage of a one game lead over the Reds by virtue of a victory against the Portland Ducks, looked forward to winning the last half of the season's play and a chance for the league championship by at least one game.

With only today and tomorrow left of the regular Pacific Coast league schedule, the advantage lay with the Stars, but the Reds were fighting a weaker team than the Stars had in the Portland outfit, and uncertainty still prevailed as to the outcome. Rarely has a season's schedule wound up in so close a race as the present one.

While Seattle defeated the Mission Reds at Recreation park 13 to 6 for the first victory after dropping three, the Hollywood club downed the Portlanders 8 to 2 at Los Angeles. Hollywood must win two more games to lead in event the Reds win their remaining contests. A tie would result if the Stars won only once to three wins for the Reds, and in that event a three-game play-off, opening at San Francisco Tuesday would be the result.

The San Francisco Seals made sure of third money by taking both ends of a double header from the Sacramento Senators in the California capital by scores of 15 to 4, and 5 to 1.

Howard Craghead won against Los Angeles for the Oakland club at Emeryville, the score being 10 to 1.

NIPPONESE GRAPPLER FOULS WILDCAT PETE

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 5.—(AP)—Wildcat Pete, local wrestler, won on a foul from Y. Fujita, Japanese jiu jitsu and grappling star in their match here last night. Fujita, maddened by an accidental fall on the nose, applied three struggle holds in a row, fouling Pete. This referee gave the match to the Wildcat and the Japanese made for him. Police interfered and carried the late Nipponese to his dressing room. The wrestler had a fall apiece when the foul occurred.

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 5.—(AP)—Seventy-seven candidates for admission to the Oregon bar, who took the annual state examinations last July were successful in passing. The names of the successful applicants were made public late yesterday by Arthur S. Benson, clerk of the state supreme court.

Among those passing were Fred O. Small, Medford.

CENTRAL POINT GRANGE BOOSTS MARKER PLANS FOR OLD FORT AT TOLDO

(By E. D. Strohmeyer)

CENTRAL POINT, Oct. 5.—(Special.) The Central Point Grange at its meeting last night took up the question of raising funds to assist in the erection of a monument marking the site of old Fort Lane near Toldo, where United States soldiers were quartered over 70 years ago when an Indian war was in progress.

Time has left its mark on the site and little remains where the fort once stood, with the exception of trenches and foundations. A subscription list has been started and a monument is expected to be completed and dedicated by the end of this month. In its present condition, a little plowing and harrowing would blot out the marks of the site forever.

GOOS BAY BOYS LIGHTEST TEAM PAST SIX YEARS

Invaders Ready for Annual Grid Struggle With Medford High—Sprague and Green Only Holdovers On Local Eleven.

Football fans journeyed to Van Scoyoc field this afternoon to see the first game of the season between Marshfield and Medford high school squads. The starting hour of three o'clock prevented many from attending, as they had to be at their places of business in the late hours of the Saturday afternoon rush. Hereafter the high school games will be started at the former hour of two o'clock, whereby the game can be over, and people in their homes, before darkness.

The Marshfield team arrived last night by stage, and the squad retired at once. They were up bright and early this morning, and had a short limbering up on Van Scoyoc field. They are the lightest Marshfield team in six years of competition with the locals.

The Medford team finished its drill last night, with skill practice and a light workout. Sprague and Green, guards, are the only two first string members from last year's champions, but most of the lineup were under fire as second string players last season. Cunningham, Zumburn and Dobbey were junior high players.

Other southern Oregon high school games are: Grants Pass against Crescent City at Grants Pass, and Ashland against Klamath Falls at Klamath Falls.

Ashland is rated as a winner, and Grants Pass and the coast city as figured as even.

THOUSANDS ARE STARVING!

RIGHT here in the U. S. A., the wealthiest country in the world. Some are starving and do not know it, while others know that something is the matter and cannot find the cause. These unfortunate people we refer to are not suffering for want of bread and cheese. They may be surfeited with quail and terrapin; but their minds are starving because really good reading today is hard to find. Goodness knows, there is plenty of reading matter piled mountains high on every newsstand, but it does not satisfy the mind hungry for normal stimulation.
