MEDFORD WINS FROM COOS BAY SQUAD 20 TO 7

Coach Hagen's Big Green Team Has Possibilities—Stine and Sprague Show Class—Line Lacks Real Experience.

A green and inexperienced Medford high school team, that showed flashes of potential speed and power, defeated a Marshfield team, that was just as green and inexperienced, 20 to 7 yesterday afternoon, on Van Scoyoc field, before a crowd of 1500 people.

The locals showed their best in the opening quarter, when in four minutes of play, Zumburrn punted the ball across for first touchdown after Stine had carried the ball within striking distance. Marshfield was penalized for off-side. The Medford line seeped, and the Marshfield backs, were getting through for yardage. The ball was in Marshfield territory, all of the first half.

Halfback Stine and Captain Sprague by their long runs and line play, held the Coos Bay boys in check. Green, a veteran guard, did not get the smile off his face, and stung Charney, until well into the second half.

For Marshfield Corcoran was a flashy ground bainer. The visiting line held better than Medford, though Medford made the most yardage on power plays.

Zumburrn kicked the ball over again in the second quarter after Stine had carried the ball through a broken field, deep into Marshfield's territory, after an exchange of kicks.

Early in the second half, the play became rough, and Stine and Clay were taken from the game. Both had the wind knocked out of them. Before he was taken to the bench, Stine ripped off two gains of 29 yards, and Zumburrn again went across for a touchdown.

Zumburrn kicked two of the three tries for goals. Marshfield's lone touchdown came after a forward pass, brought the ball to the seven-yard line. Two attempts to buck the ball over, resulted in a loss or no gain. Then on a long end run, and cut-back Corcoran tore through for six points, and Guenther kicked the goal.

The Medford line when it did function, showed great possibilities. Bill Cunningham at tackle, playing his first big time game, played hard, and crashed up two or three of Marshfield's plays. Dobbyn's running mate did the same but the big boys, could not get started fast enough. Cunningham was replaced by Whyte. The game was what the kids needed to get a little experience and some of the finer wrinkles of football.

Ossie Newlin started at center, but Caye took his place. He is a small youth, but held up his end. In the early stages of the game, the green players suffered from nervousness, though it was not costly. When they got their bearings, they held Marshfield to three first downs in the first half.

In the final quarter Medford opened up with lateral passes, that netted heavy gains, and as the final gun sounded Stine carried the ball to within four yards of another touchdown.

One error of judgment was charged up to Medford. In the fourth quarter a power play was called, when a kick would have taken the ball back into enemy territory.

Coach Hagen, watching his first team play its first game, showed that he has laid the groundwork for a strong squad, with speed, undeveloped power, and deceptive plays. One more game, and the squad will start getting some polish.

touchdown, and kicked the extra point. Medford 14, Marshfield 0. The remainder of the period was both teams, holding each other to small gains, and kicking. Corcoran in the closing minutes, on a long end run carried the ball deep into Medford territory, but were held, and as the quarter ended, the ball was in Medford possession in Marshfield territory.

Second Half
Medford kicked and Marshfield fumbled after two small gains, and when they recovered, kicked. Medford launched a forward pass attack, and Stine on a beautiful lateral pass made 15 yards. Zumburrn and Stine started to alternate in carrying the ball, and resulted off 20 yards. Stine got away for two more flashy runs, and Zumburrn punted across for the third touchdown, but failed to kick the extra point. Medford 20, Marshfield 0.

Stine left the game after a hard tackle, and Clay followed by the same route a minute later. Herring took Clay's place and Murray went in for Stine. Both teams were content against routine. The Medford team did little the remainder of the quarter, but kept the ball away from the goal, and in other periods neither side was able to make long and consistent gains. Corcoran was always a threat, but a forward pass attack failed.

Fourth Quarter
Marshfield on a long forward pass that caught the Medford backs napping advanced the ball to the seven-yard line. Guenther was thrown for a two-yard loss, but Corcoran on a delayed end run broke through for a touchdown and Milesovich kicked the extra point. Medford 20, Marshfield 7.

Coach Hagen sent Cunningham and Stine back into the game, and Stine again tore off long runs. A perfectly executed lateral pass, Zumburrn to Stine, put the ball on the Marshfield four-yard line, as the final gun sounded.

The lineup:
Marshfield: G. Newlin, Johnson, G. Sprague, Green, T. Cunningham, Sampson, E. Dobbyn, Holmberg, Archer, Torison, E. C. Thomas, Hazen, Q. Clay, Milesovich, H. Stine, Guenther, H. R. Potter, Corcoran, F. B. Zumburrn.

MEMORIAL STADIUM, Berkeley, Cal., Oct. 5.—(AP)—Staving off a desperate St. Mary's challenge the California Bears stopped the Gaels' attack on the one-yard line in a hectic fourth quarter and their annual battle ended in a scoreless tie here today.

The first part of the final quarter had every person in the stadium, St. Mary's and California supporters alike, breathless. Taking the ball on the Bear's 22-yard line after Mack Stennett recovered a fumble by Benny Lon, the Gaels gained 19 yards at one stroke on a pass from Stennett to McCaffery.

The Bears gave the Gaels the ball on the Bear's three-yard line with four downs in which to make a touchdown. Stennett hit the California line three times but all he could gain was one yard. The fourth down he took the ball again, and attempted to crash the guard, but the California line held. The Bears took the ball on downs. Lon kicked out of danger, and the game ended in a punting duel.

Trojans In Passing Attack Win 21 to 7 Before Hugo Throng—Corvallis Have Edge In Punting—Hero For Losers Injured.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 5.—(AP)—Beating Oregon State by its own game, a passing attack, Coach Harold Jones' University of Southern California football eleven swept its way to a 21 to 7 for its second conference victory of the season here today.

Out of the conflict, which was started under a summer sun, rose two substitute stars for the victors and the vanquished, who gathered into themselves individual honors of the day.

Ergey Noster, sophomore substitute end for Tony Steponovitch, snared two pretty passes, one from Ernie Pinkert, a sophomore half back and the other from Marshall Duffield, substitute quarterback, for two of the three touchdowns scored by the Trojans, the other tally for the winners was made by Jimmy Musick, plugging fullback, who crashed over his own left guard.

Ergey Noster, substitute quarterback for Coach Gray's Schissler's Beavers, saved his team from a shutout when late in the third period he returned a punt by Everett Brown, U. S. C. substitute back, 45 yards in a clever piece of broken field running, to score. Henry Hughes, substitute for Ergey Noster, place-kicked the extra point.

The Trojan power reached its scoring peak in the second quarter, but lost momentum and failed to register thereafter.

Coach Schissler's men kept their passing attack under cover until well in the game, but before the final gun had sounded, the Beavers had attempted fifteen, eight of which were completed.

Jones' men attempted only six, but four of these were completed, two of which were for scores when Arbelbide took them out of the air in the end zone.

The Oregon State eleven thru the first period played a defensive game. Jungle Hill, substitute fullback, and Duffield, brought the 40,000 fans to their feet time and again with long, shifting runs which placed the Trojans in a position to score.

GLENNA QUEEN OF WOMEN GOLFERS

OAKLAND HILLS COUNTY CLUB, Birmingham, Mich., Oct. 5.—(AP)—Men golfers have their Bobby Jones. The women have their Glenna Collett.

But in this year of golf upsets which toppled Bobby from his national amateur crown, Glenna has succeeded and conquered. Today she not only defended her national championship but she became the first woman in history to be crowned queen of American golf for the fourth time.

To accomplish her unprecedented feat she shot probably the greatest golf of her career to turn back the brave but futile challenge of Mrs. Leona Fessler of Los Angeles 4 and 2 in the final of the thirty-third national tournament over the treacherous Oakland Hills country club course.

This week is to be an important one in the history of the Medford Golf Club. For beginning Friday, the first invitation golf tournament for the amateur championship of southern Oregon will be held at the local club.

Invitations have been sent to Grants Pass, Roseburg, Klamath Falls, Ashland, Croston, City, Marshfield, Weed and Yreka. Grants Pass has promised to send ten players, Ashland 8, and it is expected that between forty and fifty outside amateur golfers will be present when the qualifying round starts on Friday.

This will be a no-handicap search tournament, but there will be at least three and probably four flights, the flights being graded according to the qualifying scores. The majority of the contestants will probably be from Medford, but they promise to have plenty of competition, before the finals are reached.

Don Clark, chairman of the tournament committee announced yesterday he was particularly anxious for local players to sign up so the committee may know how many they will have to serve lunches on to on Saturday and Sunday. A free luncheon given by lady members of the club will be served in the clubhouse from twelve to two, on each of the two tournament days.

Handsome prizes, 8 silver cups in all, will be presented to the winners and runner-ups in the four flights. A picture of these prizes is printed in this paper today.

It is hoped to make this event an annual feature, the tournament to be held each year on the home course of the first flight winner. The championship cup becomes the property of the player winning it three times.

This cup has been presented by Larry Schade the well known Medford sportsman and jeweler. The Mail Tribune has given the silver cup for the runner-up winner in the championship flight.

These prizes will be exhibited this week in the front window of the Medford Pharmacy.

Not to be outdone by the men who are putting on a Southern Oregon tournament this week, the ladies of the Medford Golf Club have decided to put on a women's championship tournament from October 19th, open to all women members of the club, entrance fee 50 cents.

The championship prize cup has been donated by John Lawrence, local jeweler and golf enthusiast. The tournament will be conducted according to national golf regulations, 18 hole matches, with a qualifying round and two flights of 16 players each. The finals will be played Saturday morning, October 19th.

It has also been announced that the Wednesday "lady-day" called off during the hot weather of the summer, have been resumed with special women's matches Wednesday of each week.
