AIR MAIL FORCED TO NEW PORT BY EARLY FOG BANK

The storm of last Sunday night and rainy period since, and the first fog of the fall season early this forenoon, followed by sunshine and the forecast of early weather for tonight and unsettled weather with rain for Friday is evidence that the time of year has come when most anything in the weather line can happen.

This morning opened bright and clear, but at 6 a. m. telephone reports received from the airway weather stations along the line by the airways department of the local weather station showed that there was a solid bank of quite heavy fog. The south end of this fog finally rolled into the valley about 8 a. m. and the most of it had disappeared here by 10 a. m.

During the fog the south bound air mail plane arrived in the valley, intending to land at the old airport, but did not do so because the pilot could not locate the landing field in the fog. The plane circled around a few times above the old airport where Superintendent Seeley Hall, the postoffice assistant messenger and O. Kenneth Anderson of the weather bureau were awaiting it. They could not see the plane but could hear it plainly and the pilot could not see the airport, and doubtless did not hear Superintendent Hall's shouts in an endeavor to give him his location. Hence, the plane retraced its way north to the new airport over three miles from the city and landed at that port.

Telephonic communication between the old and new airports soon established the suspected fact that the plane had landed at the latter port, whereupon the air mail messenger and others hurried there. After fueling, etc., at the new airport the plane continued on its journey southward.

This budget, to be legal, has to be submitted to the voters of the district for approval, and the election for this purpose will be held in about three weeks.

The members of the citizens' committee are M. B. Jarmin, John C. Mann, O. O. Alenderfer, E. E. Wilson and W. W. Allen.

The Jacksonville chamber of commerce meeting which was to have been held this week has been postponed until a week from Saturday, October 19. At that time election of officers will take place for the ensuing year as well as the disposal of a quantity of important business.

ELKS WHOOPEE FROLIC OPEN TO PUBLIC TONIGHT

The program committee for the Elks' Fall Frolic which opens tonight at the Medford Armory has worked overtime in order to provide the public three nights of the best and most varied entertainment ever offered in this city.

Large delegations of visiting Elks are expected from all parts of southern Oregon and northern California to participate in the frolic. The public will be admitted to the armory free of charge and the doors will open each evening at 7 o'clock.

Cole Holmes is general chairman of the affair, with nine committees working under his supervision. The exact nature of the entertainment to be kept secret by Earl Davis, who, with his staff of performers promises plenty of originality and fun.

In addition to the vaudeville skills, carnival features and "whoopie" activities, dancing will be featured each evening with a popular dance orchestra furnishing symphony. Wilson Walte's band will also be on hand with its usual high type of music. The frolic will continue on Friday and Saturday.

HOT SPRINGS DANCES OPENED FOR WINTER

The Jackson Hot Springs dance pavilion, which held its first dance of the season two weeks ago, will hold its next dancing party Saturday night and has been drawing large crowds regularly. The pavilion was recently redecorated and given a number of improvements, making the hall one of the most attractive in southern Oregon. The dances are being held weekly with a special dance scheduled at intervals. The well known Pep Peddlers supply the music.

Meet Elmer Kane

IN THE WORLD'S SERIES OF LAUGHTER

A ten o'clock boy in a nine o'clock town! You'll learn about women from him—he admits it! And funny? You'll strain a rib howling at his wise-cracks.
