AGAINST COLLETT ROUSES INTEREST

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.— (Special.)—Efforts of the government by many witnesses to show that F. G. Collett, on trial for mail fraud in the Rellimeo film case, to further the alleged stock swindle of "Dr." O. E. Miller, lecturer and Juglitive, was continued in Fed-eral Judge Louderhack's court. Mrs. Clara E. Herbert, Santa Barbara, testified that as late as 1927 Collett came to her and said he was representing "Dr." Miller in furtherance of the film venture. Collett was originally charged with "Dr." Miller, F. E. Miller and Lillian Granville White, but obtained a severance of his case and is now on trial alone. The trial went over until next Tuesday. F. G. Collett is executive chair-man of the Indian Board of Cooperation of San Francisco, and has for the past number of years been instrumental in obtaining funds from the Indians of northern California to further the expense of attorneys in the handling of the court of claims bill. U. S. Webb, attorney-general for the state of California, had copies printed of the court of claims bill and petition, August 10, 1929, and is the authorized attorney for the court of claims bill in the inter-ests of the California Indians.

This bill is the claim of Call fornia Indians against the federa overnment, based upon proceed-ngy under certain unratified reatles. The petition, pursuant to federal and state enactments, wa prepared and filed on the above
