Coyotes are plentiful in the Applegate section, more so than they have been for years, according to Fred Lichens, who was in Medford today from Provost to collect bounty on a coyote he shot last Wednesday while he was rounding up four or five hundred cattle he had grazing in the mountain country the past summer. He shot the coyote in the log and a dog later caught the animal, after which it was killed.

HOME OF BREAD LIKE MOTHER MADE

AGE VERSUS APPETITE

You hear a lot of folks tell about that childhood relish for food—and as a rule the one thing that stands out in memory is that afternoon slice of bread with home made jam.

Do you really believe that age has anything to do with it? Maybe you'd relish it just as much if you had the same kind of bread. You must remember that mother baked all the bread then—it was always fresh—the crust was always brown and crisp—and mother didn't use any of the substitutes that have crept into commercial baking.

Perhaps mother isn't baking now but we are—and are doing it just as mother did—no substitutes—just those same home ingredients—handled and baked in the same way, and of course has that same flavor.

Come in tomorrow and take home a fresh loaf for lunch—if you haven't the jam—we have it, at a very small cost. We don't want to destroy those treasured childhood myths, but it might do you a lot of good to know that you are just as young as you used to be.
