THIS SALE CANNOT BE COMPARED WITH ANY OTHER

This is my last event. Circumstances have arisen which compel me to liquidate at any cost. Much as I regret this action, it is imperative. Only one thing remains: I must close out my entire stock, not for what it is worth—but for what it will bring. Never have you had such an opportunity for extraordinary savings, and probably you never will again. This is my last sale—my final effort to wind this business and retire from the mercantile field.

This sale is far and away beyond anything I have ever attempted. Cost means nothing; an absolute liquidation of everything is the only thing that matters. To make the final close-out quick and certain, I have taken enormous reductions on everything in the store. This big advertisement shows you something of the savings, BUT NOT ALL. It is impossible to list everything; there are other things showing the same tremendous reductions. Be wise—come early to this, the Greatest Quit Business Sale in the history of Medford.

SCOTT WOOLF.

Read Mr. Woolf's Statement

During the 21 years I have been identified with the Furniture business in Medford, it has at all times been my endeavor to serve the people of my community with only dependable merchandise and honorable service. In pursuing this policy I have had much satisfaction in seeing this business grow and patronized by an ever increasing number of our best citizens, until now I can boast of a patronage who feel they can safely trade at this store. The friendships I have made during by business career has added much to my pleasure and I wish to extend my thanks to these friends, as well as the many I do not know personally, for what measure of success I have had. And now that I am retiring from business due to ill health, I wish to assure all my old friends and customers that they may expect the same honest merchandise and efficient service that has made for this store the reputation for dependability.
