

EASTERN GRIDS TO SEE FOUSTS OF UNHUMBLED

Army-Harvard, Dartmouth-Columbia and California-Pennsylvania Games to Draw Fans—Comeback Teams Hold Interest.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(P)—Battles of undefeated eastern college football eleven will attract thousands of spectators tomorrow. Army invades Harvard stadium to meet a team that has shown signs of winning its way back into the football sun. The experts disagree as to whether Harvard's line can check Cagle, star Army back. Dartmouth comes to New York to play Columbia. These unblemished eleven, each with its scoring stars in their lineups, promise one of the most thrilling games of the day. At Philadelphia the University of California plays Pennsylvania in the biggest intersectional fray. California chances look good to many experts.

Some of the east's mighty will be striving to regain prestige lost by poor showings in the early season combats. Yale, which bowed before Georgia, will stack up at New Haven against a Brown team which has shown signs of strength after a weak start. Princeton, beaten by Brown, will strive to recoup at Ithaca, N. Y., against an undefeated Cornell team.

Besides the Columbia-Dartmouth clash, New York will see a couple of other first class encounters. New York university will entertain Penn State and an inspired Fordham team will combat another Jesuit eleven, Holy Cross.

Penn State will face a team engaged by a 26-0 defeat last week at the hands of Fordham. Navy entertains Duke and West Virginia looks good to the experts to emerge victorious over Washington and Lee. Washington and Jefferson battles Carnegie at Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, strong again this year, meets a heavy Nebraska team on its home grounds.

Athlete Trains for 38th Year of Competition

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(P)—Joseph A. Ruddy, 51, is training at the New York Athletic club for his 38th year of amateur competition. He has been a shot putter, hammer thrower, baseball player, discus thrower, water polo player and swimmer. In competition he has scored 1550 points for the club. He has 978 prizes in a safe deposit vault. And he has raised a family of athletes. Three boys and two girls have their names in record books.

EVERETT GRID PLAYER'S NECK BROKEN IN FALL

EVERETT, Wash., Oct. 18.—(P)—Dodging and finally outdistancing his pursuers, Adrian McDonald, 19 Oak Harbor, Washington, high school football star, fell and broke his neck after he had crossed the goal line for a touchdown.

FORMER ILLINI GRIDER SHINES AS WRESTLER

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 18.—(P)—Jim McMillan of Chicago, former University of Illinois football player, defeated Paul Jones, Los Angeles, in the main event of a wrestling show here last night. McMillan won with a flying tackle and a body block after 54 minutes of wrestling. McMillan weighed 217 pounds and Jones 201.

Stomach Disorders First Revealed by Coated Tongue

Your tongue is nothing more than the upper end of your stomach and intestines. It is the first thing your doctor looks at. It tells at a glance the condition of your digestive system—and physicians say that 90% of all sickness starts with stomach and bowel trouble. A coated tongue is a danger signal of those digestive disorders which lead to so many kinds of serious illness. It tells why the least exertion tires you out; why you have pains in the bowels, gas, sour stomach, dizzy spells. Coating on the tongue is a sign that you need Tanlac—the medicine which has helped thousands who were physical wrecks from stomach and bowel troubles—who had "tried everything" in vain and about given up hope. Tanlac contains no mineral drugs; it is made of barks, herbs and roots. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

Selection of Shawkey As Yankee Manager Is Surprise to Experts

BOB SHAWKEY

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(P)—Unconditionally released by the club two years ago, Bob Shawkey, ex-savior, has been named manager of the New York Yankees, leaderless since the death three weeks ago of Miller J. Huggins. A great right-handed pitcher in his day, coach of the Yankees during the last season, Shawkey never had any managerial experience. His contract is for one year. Shawkey's selection surprised the experts, who had expected that Arthur Fletcher, Yankee coach, or Bob Connerly, president of the St. Paul club of the American association, would be named to the post.

Oregon in "Pink" for Saturday Game With Idaho Vandal Eleven

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 18.—(P)—Oregon today had reached the peak of its preparation for the Idaho struggle at Multnomah stadium, Portland, Saturday, in the opinion of Coach John J. McEwan. The Webfoot mentor believed his charges not only were in the proverbial pink of physical condition, but that their mental attitude was equally favorable. Repeated rumors of Vandal power have not been disregarded by the Oregon athletes. McEwan maintained they served only to put his squad on a keener edge. The Oregon coach looks to Johnny Kitzmiller, the "Flying Dutchman" of the Webfoot, to do much in Saturday's contest. Kitzmiller, the outstanding back of the Ore-

GOLDEN BEARS WAIT PENNSYLVANIA GAME

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—(P)—Big and rangy and exponents of a system of football that combines power, speed and smartness, the Golden Bears of the University of California are here for their battle with the University of Pennsylvania Saturday.

CALIFORNIA MEETS PENN IN EAST-WEST GRIDIRON TEST

California and Pennsylvania meet in Philadelphia, October 19, for one of the most important east-west contests of the season. The Bears' hopes for victory are centered on Lom, a shifty legged halfback, Eisan, a brainy field general, and Beckett, a powerful, aggressive tackle. Penn is looking to Opekun, fullback, and Wilmer, quarterback, to bring in the winning touchdowns, while the line-smashing tackle, Captain Utz, can be counted on to star on the line.

CHAMPIONS ARE FETED BY HOME CITY ADMIRERS

Radios, Watches Distributed at Dinner for Athletics—Hope to Win Again Next Year, Says Mack—Collins Lauds Leader.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 18.—(P)—The Athletics, winners of the world series, were dined and feted last night by the city, the chamber of commerce and the Philadelphia Sports Writers' association. Connie Mack and Eddie Collins were presented with radios. Electric clocks went to a number of players and each member of the club received a wrist watch. "We hope to win another pennant next year," Connie Mack said, "but we will have to fight all the way."

Mack said the Athletics were successful because they were not a one-man team. "I want to take issue with Mr. Mack on that score," said Captain Eddie Collins. "Fans often ask me to compare the Athletics championship team of former years with the present aggregation. There is no comparison. Both were one-man teams. And the one man responsible for their success is the beloved Connie Mack."

Mayor Mackey told of his fanning with President Hoover, with whom he shared a box at the final game of the series. "When Haas comes to bat in the ninth inning after Bishop singled," said the mayor, "I turned to President Hoover and said, 'This fellow will hit one over the wall.'"

"What kind of a hit is that?" asked the president. "That's a wop of a hit," I told him, and he grinned. "On the way downtown from the ball park after the game, Mrs. Hoover told me to pay her personal compliments to Bing Miller, whose hit won the championship."

JOE WOOD QUITS SECRETARY POST BOXING COMMISH

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 18.—(P)—Joe Wood, secretary and general manager of the Portland boxing commission, handed in his resignation today. The commission announced that the next bout would be held under private promotion. Resignation of Wood makes the third member of the commission to quit their post after members of the American Legion posts called on Mayor George Baker to "clean house."

An investigation into the boxing commission started when it developed that the commission had borrowed $400 from the civic emergency fund with which it is said they paid debts contracted by the commission. The emergency fund, said to have been bankrupted by the loan, was used for charity purposes.

The decision to conduct the next boxing card under private promotion estimated many months of postponement on the part of the American Legion posts, who it is said, were dissatisfied with receipts realized from municipally conducted boxing shows.

HEAVIEST QUARTER IN COAST BALL

Sport Slants by ALAN J. GOULD

Baseball will feel the effects of one of the biggest shakeups in its history when the major league campaign of 1930 get under way. Since late this season and through the excitement of the world's series, more managerial changes have developed than in any single year on record, with no less than seven of the 16 clubs reorganizing for various reasons.

The death of Miller Huggins deprived the Yankees of a pilot who would have held his job as long as he wished but internal warfare, as well as demands for improvement, contributed to most of the other changes in leadership that have been effected or are about to be.

The big turnover began with the recall of Bill McKee to replace Billy Southworth in the leadership of the Cardinals, who abruptly sent the former to the minors after the debacle against the Yankees in the 1928 series.

Now McKee has a four-year contract with the Braves, a job that may easily last that long to get the Boston club lifted out of its long decline.

Donie Bush departed from Pittsburgh under circumstances reminiscent of McKee's leaving the Pirates a year after winning the 1925 pennant. Donie lost little time signing a two-year contract with the White Sox, replacing Lena Blackburne, while Jewel Ens, a coach under Bush, assumed the leadership of the Pirates.

Dan Howley made a first-division club out of the St. Louis Browns but resigned after a season of some discontent, to be replaced by Bill Killefer. A change in the Cincinnati ownership involved the withdrawal of Jack Hendricks as manager, with at least a half dozen candidates in the field to succeed him. "We will have a winning club in Cincinnati, no matter whether it takes one year, two or three years to build it up," said Sidney Well, the new club president, to me during the world series.

"No player on the club is for sale and there are at least three, Red Lucas, Hughey Critz and Swanson, the new outfield star, who could not be bought for any price. When William Wrigley, Jr., asked me to put a price on Lucas, I just laughed. Lucas is the greatest pitcher in the league. There is no reason why we can't put baseball back on its feet in Cincinnati."

The rest of the National league club owners will watch the efforts of Mr. Well to rebuild, with considerable interest, for his club has been a weak link, financially and competitively, for some time; so much so that there has been talk of shifting the franchise to such a city as Detroit.

Among the comebacks of the latter part of 1929, there have been none more conspicuous than those of Jack Sharkey in the ring, Big Bill Tilden on the courts and Glenna Collett on the links.

Miss Collett's performance was no comeback in one sense of the word, for she demonstrated her supremacy in American golf for the second successive year and fourth time altogether, yet it took a series of courageous uphill fights for her to even reach the final at Oakland Hills against Mrs. Leona Pressler.

NORTHWEST IS FOCUS OF GRID FANS SATURDAY

Warner Squad May Find Obstacle in Oregon State—Husky-Cougar, Webfoot-Vandal Games Are Viewed As Important.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—(P)—Interest in the Pacific coast conference football race will shift to the northwest tomorrow, with only one member of the big three of California gridirons scheduled to meet a conference opponent. The Stanford Cardinals will tackle Oregon State at Palo Alto in a game that may prove a serious obstacle in the path of the redshirts in view of the attitude of over-confidence that seems to have been taken on by Pop Warner's men. Stanford has one of its most important clashes of the season a week from tomorrow, meeting the Southern California Trojans, and preparation for the game has necessitated taking the Oregon Staters "in stride."

Southern California and the University of California meet non-conference opponents tomorrow, the Trojans taking on little Occidental college, and the Bears meeting the University of Pennsylvania in an important intersectional tilt, in Philadelphia.

Husky-Stock Slams The Pacific northwest will find the bulk of conference activity. At Pullman, the supremacy of the state of Washington will be decided, when the Huskies of the University of Washington meet the Cougars of the State college. Early season favorites, the stock of the Huskies has slumped as a result of their 6-6 tie with Montana two weeks ago, and their overwhelming defeat at the hands of the Trojans last week.

At Portland, the University of Oregon takes on the Idaho Vandals. The Vandals demonstrated a powerful team last week in smothering the University of Montana, and they may take the decision over the Webfoot.

The University of California at Los Angeles will see action tonight at Pasadena meeting Cal Tech in a night game, while Montana will take a rest.

Stop Using a Truss Free Demonstration

Stuart's Plapao-Pads are different from the truss, being mechanical-chemical applicators made self-adhesive purposely to keep the herbal muscle-tonic called "PLAPAO" continuously applied to the affected parts, and to minimize danger of slipping and painful friction. The fabric is soft velvet, and being adhesive, it clings to the body, without straps, buckles or springs. Easy to apply—comfortable—inexpensive. The epidermic absorption of the "PLAPAO" and the utilization of mechanical-chemical, tend toward a natural process of recovery, after which no further use for a truss. During 23 years, thousands have successfully treated their ruptures at home, without delay from work. Awarded Gold Medal, Rome; Grand Prix, Paris; Honorable Mention, San Francisco, etc.

FREE TO RUPTURED

At the Holland Hotel, Medford, Oregon, Tuesday, Oct. 22nd, From 12 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. By G. MARQUARDT Who speaks English, German, Italian and French.

It costs you nothing to examine, and have demonstrated to you privately, this scientific self-treatment for rupture, which so many others attest under oath freed them from the truss, and saved them from the knife. Remember the time and place, and

BE SURE TO CALL! If not able to attend this instructive demonstration, write for FREE trial of the remedial factor "PLAPAO." Address: Plapao Laboratories, Inc., 998 Stuart Building, St. Louis, Mo. Paid adv.
