Screen Life Hollywood

By Robbin Coon.

HOLLYWOOD. — Believe it or not, talkies are easier to direct than silent movies, and by a thousand per cent!

Or so says Louis F. Gashler, director of many voiceless films, who recently has completed his first talkie. It would appear difficult to accept such a statement in view of the thousand and one intricacies involved in the filming and recording of talkers, were it not for Gashler's stage training and experience—and, after all, the mechanical difficulties are the technician's worry, not the director's.

Gashler was on the Parisian stage 19 years before the movies intrigued his interest, and now, after nearly a score of years spent in the silent medium, either as production manager or director, he has "come home," in a way, to his first love.

The drawing-room tragedy that began in the dining-room

NOT SO many years ago she would only laugh gaily when asked the secret of her alluring complexion, sparkling eyes, radiant manner. She hadn't the slightest idea. But now, so unhappy over her wan, haggard face—her dull eyes and constant fatigue, she was as much at a loss to know why her beauty had gone. It couldn't be her diet... she was so careful about what she ate.

Unfortunately, her diet was to blame. For in her menus she had neglected to include dishes with that all-important element—roughage. The result was constipation which was poisoning her system—stealing her beauty.

What a pity so many women and men do not realize the value of roughage! And more—do not know that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—a delicious cereal—can supply roughage and bring sure relief from constipation!

and distributes it through the digestive system. Gently exercising the intestines—sweeping out poisons. In a part-bran product there is seldom sufficient bulk to completely perform this work. That is why doctors recommend ALL-BRAN.

ALL-BRAN works as nature works. How much better than habit-forming drugs whose dose must be increased—which may injure the system.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is an inviting cereal to eat with milk or cream. Delicious with fruits or honey added.

Use it in cooking—recipes on package. Mix it with other cereals. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases, with every meal. Serve it in some form regularly and you will protect your family from dread constipation.

ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Served at hotels, cafeterias. On diners. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Why ALL-BRAN is so effective Kellogg's ALL-BRAN furnishes bulk in most generous quantity. This bulk absorbs moisture Guaranteed! Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is sold with this definite guarantee: Eat it according to directions. If it does not relieve constipation safely, we will refund the purchase price.

Spooks.

Gashler's first talkie, "Darkened Rooms," is Evelyn Brent's first starring picture, the cast including Neil Hamilton and Doris Hill in support. The picture is itself a "first" in that it initiates the "ghost story" among the other popular types of all-talking drama, and if it succeeds no doubt a flock of similar tales will be recorded hastily, forming a school to rival the mystery, courtroom and crook melodramas which have flourished since the success of "The Canary Murder Case," "The Trail of Mary Dugan" and "Ailbil."

It Happened.

A story that sounds like a press agent's dream is told by George Jessel, who avows and declares it isn't.

It began in a little New Jersey town 18 years ago. Jessel, aged 19, and Gus Edwards, his vaudeville partner, were walking along the street, with little George kicking about the "girl I have to sing to" in his act. It seemed she didn't pay much attention when he sang, and George wasn't inspired to do his best. Gus replied in a sarcastic vein:

"So you want to pick your leading ladies already, huh? Well, let's see you do it."

"How about that little girl over there?" said George promptly.

Bill Picks 'Em.

He pointed to a pretty child with big dark eyes who was playing with a doll on a porch. Gus was impressed. Ere long the pretty child became George's leading lady, and as "Billie" she played opposite George in various Edwards vaudeville acts for several years. When Jessel eventually left Gus to try his stage luck alone, the girl stayed on. Then she came to Hollywood and entered the movies.

Recently, when Jessel was considering suggestions as to a leading lady for a new starring talkie, none seemed to suit. In despair they told him to pick his own. George sent for "Billie."

And it was Lila Lee, now grown up, who came.
