

SOLO HONORS IN ORE. IDAHO TILT CHEF INTEREST

Perfect Weather for Portland Game—Types of Attack Carefully Guarded—Kitzmiller and Pedersen Are Fan Focus.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 19.—(AP)—An undefeated University of Idaho football team, with aspirations for the northwest championship and a University of Oregon team, similarly imbued were matched to open the gridiron season on Multnomah stadium field here today.

Perfect football weather for the game was promised early this morning. The Idaho squad, one of the most powerful and colorful ever assembled in the history of the school, completed its 40-mile jaunt from Moscow early yesterday and both teams started a light workout on Multnomah field in the afternoon.

Grid fans from all over the state were assembled here today. A special train having brought the University of Oregon delegation from Eugene yesterday, and it was estimated that a crowd of more than 17,000 would be in the stands for the starting gun.

To the grid fans who managed to smuggle themselves past vigilant guards for the final practice yesterday the work of Waldemar Pedersen, the "Galloping Swede" of Idaho, and Johnny Kitzmiller, the "Flying Dutchman" of Oregon, was of major interest.

The probable lineups: Oregon—Pos—Idaho Erdley—LE—Dittman Colbert—LY—Diehl Shields—LG—Martin Stedelman—C—Kirkpatrick Lillie—RT—Coxley Chelmsen—RT—Bosler Archer—RE—Price Kitzmiller—Q—Pedersen A. Browne—LH—Hult Mason (C)—RH—Kereshnik Mosler—F—Wisnik

Led by Galinsky, Goble and Thurman, the Juniors scored two touchdowns in the first quarter, on long end runs. The heavier Glendale team held the locals even in the second and third quarters. In the fourth quarter they scored a touchdown, and were on their way to another when the final whistle blew.

The Juniors showed they knew lots of football, and tackled and ran interference with more than the average skill. The line charged well, and from start to finish they played a heady game.

"Donie May Tame 'The Great Shires'"

Chicago's White Sox, or, as Art Shires would put it, the club known as the one which "The Great Shires" stars, has a new manager. The news of this move, however, centers around prospects of Donie Bush, Lena Blackburne's successor, and Shires behave.

CHICAGO (AP)—Baseball men Frediet Art Shires, better known as "The Great Shires" and as the game's freshest busher, is going to pick up a teammate as a spare pitcher now that Donie Bush has signed to take Lena Blackburne's job.

Donie is not one of the hard-boiled managerial school but he certainly will tolerate no flack from Shires or anyone else.

Blackburne was a bit too game, it appears, when it came to tackling Shires. As a manager he won several debates with Arthur but he dropped three decisions at fist-cuffs and also lost prestige with the owners.

Talk around the major leagues is that Shires will be traded so little Donie may not even be threatened by the unfortunate experiences that added to the grief of his unfortunate predecessor.

Chicago's White Sox, or, as Art Shires would put it, the club known as the one which "The Great Shires" stars, has a new manager. The news of this move, however, centers around prospects of Donie Bush, Lena Blackburne's successor, and Shires behave.

STATERS FIGHT TO UPHOLD GRID HONOR IN NORTH

Invasion of Cardinal Stronghold to Vindicate Northwest if Possible, Following Defeat for Oregon and Husky.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Oct. 19.—(AP)—Two of the most powerful gridiron aggregations on the Pacific coast will come to grips when the Stanford Cardinals meet the invading Oregon State College eleven in the stadium here today.

Last week, the Oregon States was not alone that of vindicating their alma mater, but that of the Pacific northwest as well, because of the crushing defeat administered by the Cardinals, and an overwhelming victory by Southern California over Washington in past weeks.

Last week, the Oregon team, without the services of Cecil Sherwood, its greatest back, held the Southern California Trojans 21 to 7, using more reserves than the southerners. Thus, to the northers were expected to give the Stanford eleven a strenuous afternoon.

The probable starting line-up: Oregon State—Stanford McKalip—LE—Neil Stuart—LT—Artman Cox—LG—Driscoll Young—C—Heineke Jones—RG—Dawson Byington—RT—Tully Striff—RE—(C) Mander Sherwood—LH—Frentrup Hughes—RH—Rothers Gilmore (C)—F—Smallish

Under the direction of Dudley DeGroot, once a gridiron star of Stanford and an All-American selection, the Menlo College football squad warmed up yesterday afternoon on Van Scoyoc field in preparation for their game at 3 o'clock this afternoon with the Southern Oregon Normal of Ashland.

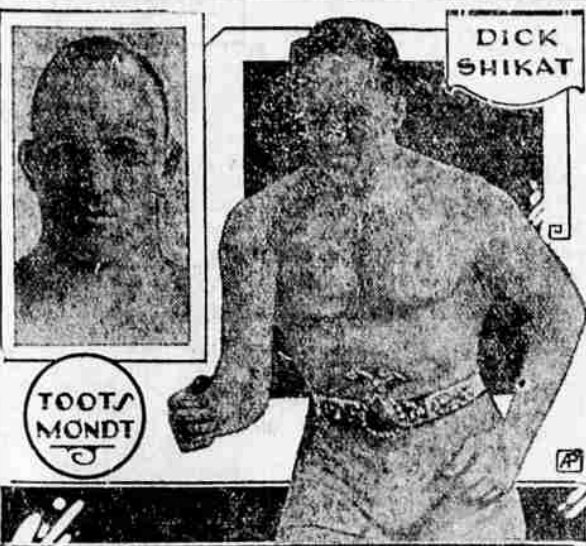

The fast and husky squad went through their drill with speed and precision and spent most of the time punting and catching forward passes. They throw the ball like a bullet, and the kicks are all high and twisting.

The Menlo team arrived yesterday afternoon and are stopping in this city.

Loser Becomes Winner's Manager

"Toots" Mondt got a break when Dick Shikat outwrestled him five months ago. Mondt is now Shikat's manager. Now Shikat is recognized as a heavyweight champion in Pennsylvania and New York.

PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—In all of his years of wrestling Joe "Toots" Mondt never was bounced off the floor harder than when he was thrown by Dick Shikat. "Toots" hit the canvass so hard that he was convinced that he had met his master and furthermore that his master was some man. So the next day "Toots" signed as Shikat's manager.

Now Mondt & Shikat Inc., comprise one of the ranking teams of wrestling. Shikat stands recognized in Pennsylvania and New York as the world's heavyweight wrestling champion and hopes to gain a match with Gus Sonnenberg, generally accepted as the champion because of his victories over "Strangler" Lewis.

With four former Medford high school stars in the line-up, the University of Oregon Frosh defeated the Chemawa Indians at Eugene yesterday afternoon, 42 to 0.

The Medford youths playing were Bernard Hughes, center; Al Stoehr, guard; Bill Morgan, tackle; and Clifton Garnett, quarterback. Garnett scored one of the touchdowns on a long end run, and aided in scoring another, when he intercepted a forward pass on the Indians' 15-yard line. Garnett has heretofore not been mentioned prominently as a Frosh player.

There was considerable local interest in the game, because of the Medford players in the line-up. Bernie Hughes, at center, and Al Stoehr, at guard, according to Eugene papers, made it easy for the backs to make consistent gains, by opening holes in the center of the Indians' line.

The first string ran up 26 points in the first period, and Coach Callison used his second string, in which Jack Hughes, at guard, and Clifford Moore, at halfback, took part.

The game was the first regular contest for the Frosh under the direction of Prink Callison. The line-up of the two teams follows: Chemawa—Pos. Frosh—Alexander—LE—Hare McKay—LT—Morgan Littlelight—LG—Stoehr Hoover—C—B. Smith Curley—RG—Billings Jones—RT—Decker Miller—RE—Decker Smith—Q—Garnett Wilde—LH—Currie Honder—RH—Rushlow Beacham—F—Watts

While the bigger guns of the University of Oregon were booming away in preparation for the Oregon-Idaho game at Multnomah stadium today, the lesser fry of the state went into action yesterday and carried their color to victory.

At Eugene, Ore., the University of Oregon Frosh had little difficulty in winning from the Chemawa Indian school of Salem, 42 to 0. They scored at will. While the youngsters ran wild and ran up a total of 29 points.

The second university team took the field after the first period and continued to show football prowess.

A hard end, football team completely outclassed a heavier Corvallis squad on Bell field at Corvallis and swamped the locals, 37 to 6.

Brown and Owen displayed stellar backfield work for the visitors in running over six touchdowns. Adams saved Corvallis from a whitewash by tossing the ball in the third quarter to Bally, who dashed 70 yards for a touchdown. Gameday fighting against the battering of a much heavier Oregon State rook team, the Eastern Oregon Normal school football team lost yesterday, 13 to 6. The rooks piled up 13 points on long, sustained marches in the first and early in the third quarters.
