

CONTINUE VISITS TO CRATER LAKE

The weather, like that in the valley, continues to be fine at Crater National park and tourists and other visitors still continue to visit Crater Lake daily in large numbers. Superintendent Solinsky said today that an average of 350 persons is visiting the park daily. So far, since October 1st, 3000 persons have visited the park, although its official season closed on September 29th last, which already breaks the record of after official season closing, by thousands. Seven hundred persons in 200 cars, visited Crater Lake last Sunday, and indications are that with a continuation of good weather this attendance will be much greater the coming Sunday. The park force has been cut down so low that only two of the chief are now on duty there—Chief Ranger Godfrey and Ranger Beck. Their chief duty is to look after the welfare of the daily visitors. A German letter, printed at Frankfort on the Rhine in 1668, has been given to Manchester college at Huntington, Ind.

Thirty-eight head of fine-bred hogs raised and fattened by eight boys and girls of the Jackson county Four-H clubs, and which will be entered by them in competition at the Pacific International Livestock exposition at Portland, which opens tomorrow, were shipped this afternoon for Portland.

The eight owners, in whose number is comprised the members of the livestock judging team and the winners of the county corn exhibit, who will enter into competition with the teams of other Four-H clubs of seven northwest states, will leave Sunday by auto, accompanied by E. T. Lathrop of Central Point and E. J. White of Medford, for the exposition, to remain there four days. County Agent R. G. Fowler will leave for the same destination tomorrow to remain all next week.

The eight Four-H club members are: Ed. White, Jr., of Medford; John, James, Ernest and Katherine Lathrop and Delmer Smith, of Central Point, and Robert Martin and James Martin, of Rogue River. Other members of the Four-H clubs and quite a number of the older agriculturalists and livestock men will attend the exposition from this county as individuals.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE OPEN AFTER THANKSGIVING DAY

Three hundred thousand Christmas seals, to be sold in the Tuberculosis seal sale campaign after Thanksgiving, arrived at the home of Mrs. R. E. Green, head of the drive here, today. They will be placed in the hands of a committee of health association workers, who will open their drive the day after Thanksgiving.

A letter was received today by Miss Mildred Carlton, head of the association from C. L. Newcomb, Jr., publicity director of the national campaign, who visited in Medford two weeks ago. The opening is in response to a hope expressed humorously by Miss Carlton that he would not find any town he liked as well as he did Medford. The letter follows:

Dear Miss Carlton: Your parting wish came true, and I have not had as good a time anywhere else as I had in Medford. I want to tell you how much I appreciated the enthusiasm you put into the Medford meeting. I hope the seal sale this year is larger than ever before. I enjoyed being in Medford on my all too short visit. Sincerely yours, (Signed) C. L. NEWCOMB.

BUSINESS WOMEN BALL ENJOYED BY BIG CROWD

More than 150 couples attended the Business and Professional Women's club Halloween dance held at Oriental Gardens last night. The Pep Peddlers, Don Provost's orchestra furnished the music which was heartily enjoyed by the members and guests who attended. The hall was beautifully decorated to depict the harvest season, with a big golden harvest moon gleaming from the back drop of the stage and serving as a vehicle for the black witch. Pumpkins, hay-shocks with Chinese pheasants perched upon them, and corn husks, added the mellow tones of the Halloween season to the very pleasing atmosphere.

ASK RECEIVER COLLECT RENT JOHNSON MARKET

Further developments in the involuntary bankruptcy proceedings against Edgar Johnson were made known today in the application of creditors of Johnson's Market to Harry C. Skyrman, United States referee in bankruptcy, for an order appointing a receiver to collect rental fees of the market building, West Sixth street, until such time that a trustee for the premises can be elected by the creditors.

Prior to the application of the creditors, persons holding liens against the property had procured the appointment of a receiver by the circuit court for the purpose of taking over the market and applying the rents on the payment of the liens. A hearing is to be held next Monday afternoon to determine whether the receiver appointed by the state court or the receiver to be appointed by the referee will take charge of the market. The hearing will be conducted before Referee Skyrman.
