BAPTIST SUNDAY CLASS RALLY DAY TOMORROW

Mrs. E. E. Wilson, superintendent of the First Baptist Sunday school, believes that if you aim high you will be more liable to succeed. Mrs. Wilson seems to be determined that the Sunday school under her leadership shall be the best year in the history of the school. The school made a flying start last Sunday towards Rally Day, with an increase of 24 in attendance over the previous Sunday, the largest increase in attendance in the school's history, and from all indications Rally day tomorrow, October 27th, will have a record attendance. At 11 a. m. tomorrow will be a big Rally Day program, and we are counting on all who do not attend Sunday school elsewhere to join with us in our worship and study.

AUXILIARY TEA FOR OFFICERS ENJOYED

Said to be one of the most delightful social affairs ever given by that organization, the Auxiliary Tea for Officers, which was held from three to five in the Presbyterian church parlors yesterday, served as a formal introduction of the newly elected officers to the members and eligible guests.

Mrs. E. K. Deuel, mother of the new American Legion commander, and Mrs. B. G. Harding, a representative of the D. A. R., poured at a table enlivened with the tones of Autumnal flowers and foliage. Vocal and instrumental selections were contributed by guests during the course of the afternoon. The newly elected officers stood in the reception line throughout the first part of the afternoon and greeted and were welcomed by the 40 or more members and guests present.

Perrin, "Rex" and "Starlight" Isis Tonight

"The Thunderbolt Strikes," at the Isis theatre tonight, is said to be an exciting and absorbing drama of life as it is lived in the wide open spaces in the region of the Sierras, written for Jack Perrin. He has with both "Starlight," his wonderful white horse, and "Rex," his marvelous colts. The popularity of these two extraordinarily intelligent animals has more than warranted their continued appearance in the pictures.

SAMS VALLEY GRANGE DISCUSSES CUT-OFF FOR WILLIAMS CREEK

SAMS VALLEY, Ore., Oct. 26.—(Special)—Grange met in regular session Saturday night. The lecture hour was taken up with discussions of the Williams cut-off road.

Speakers favoring the road were Road Engineer Rytting, Bert Anderson and R. V. Williams. Mr. Shorb, editor of the Gold Hill News, opposed the road on the grounds that our county's attention was needed worse at home than on outside projects. The proposed road had been endorsed by the Sams Valley Grange, but some of the members were dissatisfied, wishing to know more details concerning costs, etc.

The Grange had endorsed the road at the previous meeting, when visitors from Williams Creek Grange were present talking for the project. During the business session of the grange members were pleased to be joined by Eagle Point visitors and two grangers from Josephine county. R. E. Nealon of the legislative committee and also a member of the county budget committee, gave a detailed report of the condition of the present county budget.

Will Perry of Eagle Point and the county road superintendent, explained the steps necessary to communities to get any new road work accomplished. Mr. Holbrook, master of the Josephine County Grange, gave a pleasant talk of encouragement to the Grange. After closing of Grange, all members and visitors partook of a supper of delicious venison sandwiches, pumpkin pie and coffee served by the H. E. C.

BROWNSBORO LAD INJURED IN SWING

BROWNSBORO, Ore., Oct. 26.—(Special)—Little Virgil Tucker was quite badly hurt when he fell from the swing on the school grounds last Tuesday morning. He was taken to Medford and after a careful examination it was found there was no cause for alarm. At the fifth period, which is free activity period, a musical and literary program was given. The high school orchestra, under the direction of Ward V. Croft, played three numbers. Both the boys and the girls' glee clubs sang vocal numbers, and Miss Lois Tuttle, supervisor of music in the schools, sang some very charming numbers.

At the close of school the parents and friends were served with tea by the girls of the Home Economics classes, who converted the sewing room into a tea room. SAMS VALLEY, Ore., Oct. 26.—(Special)—Jim Childer got his leg broken Tuesday while working in the logging camp on Evans creek.

The Rogue-Elk Inn

Rustic setting in the mountains. Where the pine trees lift its head, Where the Rogue River murmurs softly, As it flows o'er rocky bed; Where Elk Creek's lazy waters Blend with Rogue's cold dashing spray, That's where Rogue-Elk Inn awaits you, Waits, and welcomes you to stay.

On the way along Rogue River, Where the gamy Steelheads wait, Where the friends of Isaac Walton Pause to troll with shining bait, Where the pine trees on the mountains Murnur soft, as breezes wake Sweetest music mid their branches, On the way to Crater Lake.

Under tall trees by the river. In the welcome shade, so cool, Here the traveler loves to linger, By the side of sparkling pool, Where the speckled beauties glisten, Here is where real life begins, On the banks of the Rogue River, At the famous Rogue-Elk Inn.

Endless pleasure, here, awaits them, If they love the larger life In the mountains, near to Nature, Far removed from strife, Listening to the gentle murmur Of the Rogue, at close of day, Or the whippers in the pine trees, At the time when fairies play, Evening's lure, so well portraying, At the setting of the sun, As they dance amid the shadows When the work of day is done; Here we find, amid the mountains, At the close of summer's day, Quiet, peace, and joy entrancing, 'Tis our wish to always stay.

Nature calls us with the music Of the water and the wind, Bids us look to God who loves us, Bids us take our cares to Him; And if we would learn life's lessons, Learn, for us, the one, best way, We should spend some time with nature, Where the fairies dance and play 'Neath the tall and bending tree-tops, In the shadows, and the moon Seems to hang so close above us, Coaxing lovers fond, to croon Of the future days, so splendid, As they, their new life begin; Such a place you'll find near Medford, And 'tis known as Rogue-Elk Inn.

Famous for fine chicken dinners, Famous for its paintings rare; Famous for its sylvan setting, Famous for its mountain air; On the banks of the Rogue River, On the road toward the rim Of Crater Lake, you're welcome, At the famous Rogue-Elk Inn. —Paid adv. tpe
