

SENIORS LEADING FOR HONOR ROLL JUNIORS SECOND

The honor roll for the first six-weeks period of school was issued at the Senior high school this morning by Principal Conkle. The senior class heads the list with 10 students on the roll, and the juniors second with nine. There are five on the freshman list and only three in the sophomore group.

Seniors
Amy Dorf	2 A-2 B
Laura Deary	2 A-1 B
Virginia Gregory	2 A-2 B
Ruth Hooker	2 A-1 B
Josephine Power	2 A-2 B
Roberta Stearns	2 A-3 B
Josephine Taylor	4 A
Billy Bray	3 A-3 B
William Dougherty	3 A-1 B
Walter Scott	2 A-3 B
Juniors
Irene Brewold	3 A-1 B
Doris Bundy	2 A-2 B
Loleta Jones	3 A-2 B
Louise Oenbruggo	3 A-1 B
Leneve Simkins	2 A-2 B
Helen Wilson	2 A-2 B
Jean Woodford	2 A-2 B
Fred Colvig	2 A-2 B
Billy Hagen	4 A
Sophomores
Mildred Conway	2 A-2 B
Dorothy Paley	2 A-2 B
Helen Power	2 A-2 B
Freshmen
Bobby Root	2 A-2 B
Lloyd Simmonson	2 A-2 B
Grace Franboe	3 A-1 B
Velma Smith	4 A
Betty Stennett	4 A

LIST STUDENTS WHOSE WORK UNSATISFACTORY AT LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL

As an aftermath of the issuance of six-weeks grades at the high school, the unsatisfactory work list has been compiled by Principal B. H. Conkle, personally, with the names of all students whose work has been so poor that it is necessary to bring some pressure to bear, or to give extra attention to determine the causes for the low quality of work being done by them. Pupils with 2 E's, 1E and an incomplete, 1 F, or 2 incompletes are on the list.

Copies of the list are given to the counselors, who in turn interview the pupils and find out as completely as possible causes for the difficulties and remedy them when possible. In some cases the pupil must be given assistance in solving some problem such as poor health, too much outside work, poor home conditions, social activities and too heavy a school schedule.

Often the parents are interviewed by the counselors to more quickly reach the causes for the scholastic troubles.

The object of the whole system is to keep a close check on all pupils and minimize the number of students doing unsatisfactory work.

Pupils who fail to do passing work in two or more subjects are placed on probation, and if work in these subjects is not brought up to passing within two weeks, the pupil is dropped from school. This is done on the assumption that unless a student is passing in a majority of his subjects, he is not doing enough work to warrant his continuation in school.

JOINT FORUM SET NOVEMBER SIXTH

A big chamber of commerce forum is scheduled to be held on the evening of November 6 in conjunction with all service clubs of the city. It was announced today by William Bolger, head of the forum committee of the chamber. The forum to a large extent is to lend further incentive for the successful operation of the recently organized Central Civic Council, composed of representatives from the chamber, service clubs and the American Legion.

A feature of the meeting is an address to be given by Frank Jenkins, publisher and editor of the Eugene Register and Roseburg News Review, and he will speak on "Coordination of Community Effort." Mr. Jenkins is an interesting speaker and has this subject well in hand. The forum, beginning with a banquet, will be held at the Hotel Medford.

DR. B. L. LAGESON BUYS NEW GLENN OAK HOME

Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Lageson have purchased Glenn Oak's newest house, recently completed by the Southern Oregon Construction company, and which was inspected by many Medford residents Sunday when it was officially open to the public.

The attractive seven-room structure is the sixth one to be built in the Glenn Oak district, under the direction of Walter A. Jones, of the Southern Oregon Construction company, during the past year. Glenn Oak has been selected by Mr. and Mrs. Jones as an ideal location for their own home which is rapidly nearing completion.

'ILLUSION' SHOWS ATTRACTIVE CAST IN LOVE TRIANGLE

Three unusually attractive leading character in Buddy Rogers, Nancy Carroll and June Collyer in a "triangle" furnish a very sweet love story in "Illusion," all-talking film, which opened yesterday at the Criterion theater to run until Thursday, which, together with a short talking comedy featuring Clark and McCullough in "Beneath the Law," and Fox Movietone news provides an excellent evening's entertainment.

"Illusion" delights with its plot, clever dialogue, very good portography, all-around smoothness and finish and the natural sounding voices of the actors. While Buddy Rogers and Nancy Carroll, that popular team of young screen lovers, are featured as the stars and their work is up to their usual good standard in this respect—in fact Miss Carroll's personality and acting seems to stand out the best she has ever shown in Medford; the strong personality, attractiveness and finished acting of pretty June Collyer stands out like a lighthouse in a fog with the audience and places her at least equal with the other two. In fact Miss Collyer's ability and charm is a surprising unannounced feature.

One gets all absorbed in the romance of these three. Buddy Rogers, as Charles Thorpe, a vaudeville actor and drawing room entertainer, is in love with his vaudeville partner and life-long friend, Claire Jernigan (Nancy Carroll) and also with Hilda Schmidlap (June Collyer), daughter of a very wealthy former truck driver, and the troubles and tribulations arising therefrom furnish a good plot which gives Miss Carroll, who has always been deeply in love with Rogers, at times a chance to display her versatility in convincing pathos. The unusual beauty of two attractive young women of opposite charm and surroundings continue to contribute to the indecisiveness of the young man until he is disillusioned and discovers his real love has all the time been his vaudeville partner.

An excellent bit of character acting is done by Emelle Melville, as Mother Fay, a cynical trouper of the old vaudeville school. In fact it is the brightest spot in "Illusion," and her somewhat cynical and horse sense philosophy about life furnishes the comedy of the play.

Of course Buddy Rogers and Miss Carroll are each heard in likeable songs. Miss Collyer's vocal ability is shown in her wonderfully natural screen talking voice, which is in keeping with the difficult character she so splendidly portrays. R. A. K.

SERVICES SUNDAY AT EAGLE POINT CHURCHES

EAGLE POINT, Ore., Oct. 29.—(Special)—Mrs. Lillian Davidson, wife of the pastor, will conduct the Sunday morning service at Eagle Point Presbyterian Community church. The subject will be the "Other Wise Man," based upon the story by Dr. Henry Van Dyke.

At the Community church of Eagle Point Rev. R. Griffiths will conduct the evening service, commencing at 7:15 p. m. Special music by Mrs. Koenig. All are welcome.

Periphatmus Schlosser is the only fish in the world that can wink its eyes and climb trees.

ASHLAND SISTERHOOD OF P. E. O. ENJOYS LUNCHEON

ASHLAND, Ore., Oct. 29.—(Special)—Chapter A. C. of the P. E. O. Sisterhood held a most enjoyable one o'clock luncheon on Saturday at the home of Mrs. A. H. Pracht on Vista street. The regular business program was held at the close of the meal and the president led a quiz on the constitution of the chapter. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. P. Dodge on the Boulevard on November 12.

One of the largest cobra plantations in the world is at Tavuni, in the Fiji Islands.

Read this remarkable dress news carefully

EIGHTH CAR OF BOSCS IN DETROIT TOMORROW

The eighth car of Boscs in the Winter Pear Committee campaign will be offered for sale on the Detroit market tomorrow. Clearing weather, after the storm last week in the Great Lakes region, has lived up to the sale.

The seventh car was sold Monday, 90 per cent of the lot being bought by chain stores off Detroit, insuring a wide distribution and quick disposal.

NORMAL STUDENTS IN KMED RADIO PROGRAM

ASHLAND, Ore., Oct. 29.—(Special)—A group of students of the Southern Oregon State Normal went to Medford on Saturday evening to broadcast from KMED. Professor V. V. Caldwell, Miss Eloise Duck and Miss Helen Anderson chaperoned the group. Those who appeared on the program were Floy Young, Ellen Galey, Marie Moon and Lucile Crews.

New Show Tonight AND WEDNESDAY

ISIS THEATRE
East Main, Near Bridge
Admission 10c and 15c

George Walsh in Combat

with Claire Adams and Gladys Hulette
Also a Rollicking Comedy