Bob Weaver has ended a long peign at the head of the Southern California Association of the Ama-teur Athletic Union. Weaver told me at Del Monte that he felt it was time for him to let others han-dle the reigns and do some of the worrying he has shouldered in the worrying he has shouldered in the past decade or so. His successor is Leelie A. Henry, national chairman of the A. A. U. track and field committee, who has jumped at once into plans for bringing the national championships to Los Angeles in 193 0and holding them on the night of July 4 in the hig Collegeim. The southern California city turned out 60,000 to see Paavo Nurmi ran and believes it can do better than that for the nationals, especially for an evening instead of a matinee performance.
