Twice in succession clothes have been stolen off the same line on South Riverside avenue, according to a complaint received at the police station this forenoon. The first theft took place a few days ago when the line was in the back yard, and to prevent further thefts the line was moved to the back porch, but another theft of clothes took place last night.

For hunting birds on enclosed land, and that, too, without a license, Frank Moulton, 19 years old, of 816 East Main street, received fines of $25, and $4 costs in each case in justice court yesterday. He hunted on the Alice Hanley ranch, heedless of the "No trespassing" signs scattered over that ranch, and following his arrest on that charge Deputy Game Warden F. M. Brown preferred the charge of hunting without a license.

Bounty warrants were issued at the county clerk's office today to Ray Guchoa of Medford, one coyote, and to George Brownlee of Jacksonville, one coyote.

Every member of the volunteer fire department is expected to be on duty on Armistice day to take part in the annual Armistice day celebration, Fire Chief Roy Elliott announced today. A special drill is scheduled for Monday evening in preparation for the ladder climbing demonstration to be held at the Hotel Medford. A 100 per cent attendance is urged at the drill.

Seven carloads of Jackson county sheep were shipped to Portland markets yesterday.

City Engineer Fred Scheffel was busy this forenoon completing a schedule of rates for the new municipal airport, including hangar and office fees. Overnight storage of planes in the hangar will be two dollars for ships of 40-foot wingspread and less, and more for larger ships. Private concerns will also be charged for the privilege of landing on the field for passenger carrying purposes. Rentals from the Boeing system and the Copper King company have already been received.

A chattel mortgage of $88,000, in favor of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hunt, signed by Harold Franklin and Albert Leeds, president and assistant secretary, respectively of the Fox West Coast Theaters company, was filed at the county recorder's office yesterday. The mortgage was drawn in connection with the sale of the Crater and Riado theaters, recently sold to the Fox interests. The sum includes the entire purchase price.

A marriage license was issued this forenoon at the county clerk's office to Herb Rothchild, 48, and Jane McMahon 30, both of San Francisco.

L. Harding, district manager for the Standard Oil company, with headquarters in Medford, spent several hours yesterday visiting the local office. He is on his way back to Medford from Portland, where he enjoyed the stock show.—Roseburg News-Review.

C. N. Culy, who is at St. Martin's Springs, Wash., seeking a cure for his rheumatism, is reported to be greatly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. James Peckel left last evening for their home in Glendale, Cal., following a short visit here with relatives, while en route by motor from Seattle, Wash.

MINOR DAMAGE IS REPORTED RESULT HALLOWE'EN NIGHT

Halloween passed by more or less quietly in Medford as far as the police were concerned, but local residents reported a variety of mischievousness, ranging from carrying on jack-o'-lanterns to moving porch chairs, and in some cases damage of a minor degree. A few windows were reported broken and some porch lights were not burning today because milk bottles had been carefully aimed at them.

Out on West Main street some ambitious pranksters moved from Jacksonville the city limits sign.—"Entering Jacksonville: speed limit 20 miles per hour." A few wagons, resurrected from some junk yards, roared this morning on some front yards and pieces of scaffolding were on front porches. The biggest joy, apparently, was in the soaping of store windows and windows of parked autos, and there was a general window washing campaign in session this forenoon.

Halloween parties kept other pranksters indoors for a large share of the evening, but they took part in some mischievousness when the parties were over. The police made no arrests and had no trouble in preventing any serious damage. The cannon in the park was not moved to the high school as it was last year, as since that time the piece of artillery was anchored in a foundation of concrete and it was placed there to stay.

LEGION DANCE LIVELY WITH SPEED CONTEST

Declared a huge success in every respect, the American Legion Halloween dance held at the Oriental gardens last night attracted an enthusiastic crowd of over 600 people. The evening was lively with jazz treats contributed by the Pep Peddlers' orchestra, and a number of entertaining stunts, arranged by the committee in charge.

Considerable excitement, as well as amusement resulted with the opening of the speedy dancer's contest, in which Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cash and Don Edwell and Myrtle Buckley tied for honors. A cash prize was divided between the couples.

This was the introduction to a series of fall and winter dances to be given by the Legion. The next one will be on November 11, at which a program of equally interesting stunts will be carried out.

FROSTS COMPLETE RUIN SAMS VALLEY DISTRICT

SAMS VALLEY, Ore., Nov. 1.—(Special.) The lowest temperature of the season was recorded here for the first three mornings of the week when everything that had survived the cold weather of a month ago was killed entirely by heavy frosts.

Some uneasiness is felt by the few who had done some early fall sowing for fear the dry cold will prove disastrous to the grain that is up.
