

BOGGS WILL HEAD CO-OP IN SHAKEUP

Readjustment of Exchange Found Advisable After Audit—Parker's Resignation Announced—Cease Circulation of Petitions Against Directors—Cut Overhead Aim.

Readjustment of the Farm Exchange Co-operative to the end that its affairs be placed upon a paying basis, was underway today at a meeting of the board of directors held in the office of Attorney O. C. Boggs, recently named president of the board.

The board of directors, after a recent audit by E. M. Wilson, accountant, showing a loss of approximately $4000 over a six months period, and not counting depreciation, asked for and received the resignation of Clay D. Parker, manager. A week ago, Elton Waldron of the Jackson County Building and Loan association, assumed the management.

The directors in their re-organization, requested O. C. Boggs to become president of the board, and directors today stated "that he did so only after their earnest and persistent solicitation." Boggs was recommended by a local county business interests, for the place.

While these changes were underway, petitions were circulated among the shareholders in the exchange, asking for the resignation of all the directors. This action, according to J. H. French of Eagle Point, a director, "was due to a misunderstanding." It was further stated that the circulation of the petitions would cease and no further action be taken pending the annual meeting and election to be held in January.

The general policy of the directors was announced today as "cutting down overhead, and putting the business on a paying basis." Directors present at the meeting today were John Anderson, Central Point; J. H. French, Eagle Point; J. R. McCracken, Ashland; Justin Judy, Griffin Creek; and O. C. Boggs.

Pressure was being brought to bear upon Judy, who filed his resignation, to rescind this action. He has long been identified with the business and is highly informed upon its workings. He will probably remain.

In the realignment plans, E. T. Newby of Talent, voluntarily resigned as director, and J. R. McCracken of Ashland, as president. McCracken retained his directorial position.

The board of directors this afternoon issued the following statement to the exchange shareholders:

Directors' Statement
To the Stockholders of the Farmers Exchange Cooperative:
We, the undersigned directors of the Farmers Exchange Cooperative of Medford, Oregon, having read in a daily newspaper an article relative to the management of said corporation, say to the stockholders thereof that said corporation was losing money to the extent that we did not believe it could operate much longer, not to exceed one year, after thorough investigation, and after consulting with business men and bankers, as well as farmers, we made an effort to secure the services of O. C. Boggs as president of said corporation, basing our request to him upon our own judgment and upon the recommendations of the business men and bankers and farmers whom we consulted in regard to the matter, and he was recommended to us as the one man who could place the Farmers Exchange Cooperative upon a paying basis, if that was possible. We believed then and believe now, that our judgment in securing Mr. Boggs as president, was, and is, for the best interests of the exchange; and it was only after the most earnest requests upon our part, extending over a period of two months, that Mr. Boggs consented to become a director and president of the said exchange.

In order that he could become president, Mr. Newby of Talent voluntarily resigned as director, and Mr. McCracken resigned as president, and Mr. Boggs was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Newby from the board of directors, and was then elected by the board of directors as president of said exchange.

JEERS RESOUND FOR RETURNING BERLIN MAYOR

Threatening Crowd Greeted Gustav Boess After U. S. Tour—Communists Stage Demonstration at Railway Station.

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Jeers, hisses and threats of physical violence greeted Gustav Boess, lord mayor of Berlin, arriving here after an American tour in which he was everywhere honored as first magistrate of one of the world's largest cities.

A crowd of 2000, composed largely of communists, and bearing banners assailing his alleged share in Berlin's municipal scandal, met him at the railway station and shouted "down with him" into the windows of his railway coach.

The lord mayor and his wife both were hurried from the station by a private exit while squads of police kept the angered citizens back from them, but they found another gathering in front of their home.

As he missed the early boat train at Bremerhaven, where there was another antagonistic demonstration yesterday, he arrived in Berlin too late for the sitting of the city council where he was to be questioned in connection with a communist motion for his removal from office without a pension.

The municipal scandal revolves around contracts given a Berlin furrier and clothier. It has been charged the lord mayor paid the house a ridiculously small sum for a fur coat for Frau Boess.

TOPPLING STONE CRUSHES BERGER

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Henry A. Berger, trustee of the sanitary district of Chicago, was killed today when a load of stone weighing a ton, toppled from the 24th story of a new North LaSalle street building, in the heart of the loop, and crushed him.

Berger was walking to his office a block away when the stone dropped to the sidewalk of LaSalle street. The building, a skyscraper of 28 stories, is under construction at Madison and LaSalle streets.

The body, first thought to be that of the driver of a light delivery truck that was crushed in the street, was identified at the Iregouis hospital by Berger's law partner, Benjamin F. Goldstein.

HORTICULTURAL MEET PLANS ARE DISCUSSED

Plans for the Oregon State Horticultural association meeting to be held in this city, November 13, 14 to 15, were under consideration today by a local committee, composed of H. VanHoozenberg, president of the state association; David Rosenberg and Leonard R. Carbenster and Prof. Clayton D. Laing of the Oregon State college.

General discussion of the details of the three days' meetings were discussed, and all angles thoroughly aired.

The program and list of speakers will be completed early next week, and same is now in a tentative state.

GOVERNMENT LIQUOR ACT IS VINDICATED
TORONTO, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Re-elected in power by the biggest plurality ever given a government in Ontario, the conservatives today recorded the election as vindication of their policy of government sale of liquor.

Inaugurated three years ago by the government of Premier A. Howard Ferguson, the government control act was the principal issue in Wednesday's general election. The progressives demanded four-day legislation and the liberals' prohibition.
