Wedn'day Study Club of Medford Guests Ashland

On Monday, Oct. 28th, the Wednesday Study club of Medford was entertained at luncheon at the Lithia hotel by the Ashland Study club.

The beautiful dining room of the Lithia hotel permits an artistic and unusual table arrangement. Red berries, autumn leaves, bright candles and colorful place cards made of the tables a gorgeous picture.

After luncheon each Ashland hostess escorted her Medford guests to the ball room where the remainder of the afternoon was spent.

Mrs. J. A. Churchill, the president of the Ashland club, presided at the entertaining session that followed. Mrs. H. C. Galey with few words but deft and telling descriptions gave current events, national happenings and here and there a vivid close-up of some prominent personality.

Mrs. Victor Mills reviewed the unusual book, "The Romance of an Art Career" by Chase. With true artistic insight she brought out for her hearers the author's more technical explanations, and with sympathetic appreciation told of some of his prominent sitters, and his humorous experiences both in America and in the war zone.

Mrs. Arthur Coggins reviewed the book, "Great Poems of the English Language." Her personal knowledge of the author of this authology and her understanding of poetry made easy for her this difficult review. Mrs. Coggins also read most beautifully several short poems from this work.

Mrs. Grey, the president of the Wednesday Study club, voiced the appreciation of the entire membership when she said that each year that we have enjoyed the gracious hospitality of the Ashland Study club has seemed the best, but this year in which we were accepted into the inner circle of their real work we feel has been the best.

The Wednesday Study club will meet in regular session on Wednesday, Nov. 6th with Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. Janes and Mrs. Harding on the program.

St. Mark's Guild Luncheon Held Friday.

The members of St. Mark's Guild enjoyed a luncheon on Friday, November 1st, at St. Marks Parish house. About thirty members were present.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick Hostess Hallowe'en Party.

The employes of the traffic department of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company enjoyed a Hallowe'en party at the home of Mrs. W. Kirkpatrick Thursday evening. Miss Renee Jewett assisted the hostess. Hallowe'en games and bridge were the diversion for the evening. In the bridge game Miss Myrtle Otterdale held high score and Miss May Heath low.

Guests included Mesdames Leonard, Newland, Kirkpatrick, Bannister, Barnes; the Misses Heath, Glenn, Grove, Jewett, Goff, Inch, Mahan, Billings, Anderson and Otterdale.

Mrs. Volney Dixon of Seattle is a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Waite of Vancouver avenue. Mrs. Dixon is a sister of Mr. Waite.

Will Reside In Oregon City.

Mrs. Lois Russell Moore, who has been employed for some time at the Jacque Lennox Millinery shop, will go to Oregon City Friday to join her husband, Traffic Officer Moore who was formerly stationed in Medford. Miss Sophia Nielson will accompany Mrs. Moore and expects to make her home in Oregon City during the winter.

District Convention To Attract Legionnaires

A large number of local Legion and Auxiliary members are planning to attend the district convention of the American Legion which is to take place at Ashland Monday. Legionnaires and their wives from all parts of District No. 4 are expected to be present to take part in the business session which will occupy the most of the afternoon. In the evening a joint banquet of legion men and women will be held at the Elks club. Several state department officials from Portland are expected to be among those present, both afternoon and evening.

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A. will be held in the club rooms Monday evening, November 4th. All members are urged to be present.

Regular Meeting of Garden Club Thursday.

The Medford Garden club will meet at Hotel Medford Thursday evening at 7:45.

There will be important business matters to discuss and a full attendance is desired by the president, Mrs. Carl Swigert.

Also, November 12th the Garden club members are urged to attend the afternoon session of the Horticultural society at the Elks temple.

The flower seeds on the library grounds are ripening and flower lovers are invited to come and get them, being careful not to do any damage.

Mrs. George W. Rugg, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harold Grey, left for her home in Pendleton Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Grey and children accompanied her as far as Roseburg.

Legion Hallowe'en Party Successful Event.

One of the largest dance crowds of the year attended the Legion Hallowe'en party at the Oriental Gardens Thursday evening. A program of special features and popular dance music made a hit with the local dance fans who are already looking forward to the next Legion affair in pleasant anticipation. The "speed dance" contest proved a success and will probably be repeated at some future date. Much credit for the success of the affair is due to the efficient committee in charge of Henry Fluhrer, chairman.

This was the second of a series of holiday dances sponsored by the local Legion post, the next one being slated for Armistice day, November 11th.

Mrs. Mollie Muna, of Hood River is staying with her mother, Mrs. Horn of Jacksonville, who is very ill.

Willet Radio Recital Will Be Broadcast Soon.

Music lovers of the valley will be pleased to hear of another attractive radio recital by the Rosa Blackmore Willet studio in the near future. Mrs. Willet has been training her pupils for the event and is preparing a splendid program from the great master composers. Included in the group of students to be presented will be several new juvenile artists who will make their debut over the local radio station for the first time. The Willet recital will be given through the courtesy of the California Oregon Power company.
