

ORGANIZE FORCES FOR CHEST DRIVE TO START NOV. 12

With the community chest workers organized into an army, and officers appointed to head their troops, Medford will be the scene of one of the most complete mobilizations ever experienced locally, when the drive opens a week from today.

Four colonels will be in command of the four districts to be covered, with a staff of majors, captains and "rookies" under them. Every home will be visited and upon the receipt of a donation, will be included in the Community Chest membership. This will entitle them to a sticker for their windows, as well as other identifications that they have done their share in the campaign.

Inasmuch as this is to be the only organized drive during the year, many subscribers are contributing according to incomes as follows:

- Income up to $1200—$6 a year.
- Income up to $1800—$12 a year.
- Income up to $2400—$18 a year.
- Income up to $3000—$24 a year.
- Above $3000—1 1/2 per cent a year.
- Above $5000—2 1/2 per cent a year.
- Above $7500—3 to 5 per cent a year.
- Above $10,000—5 to 8 per cent a year.

FALL SPRAY FOR SAN JOSE SCALE GOOD INSURANCE

San Jose Scale caused a heavy entourage of fruit this season, the primary reason for this condition was the failure on the part of many growers to apply a spray for the control of this insect.

Wet soil conditions made it impossible for some growers to get their spray machines into orchards at the proper time in the spring. In sections where this difficulty may occur it would be good insurance to apply the lime sulfur spray this fall.

Liquid lime sulfur, one gallon to eight gallons of water, applied when the foliage has been reduced to a point so that good coverage of branches is possible will be as effective in the control of scale insects and blister mite as the spring application.

Remembering the experiences of the last few seasons, it would be well for orchardists to consider the fall spray program and to make their plans accordingly.

Oregon-Made Plane Providing Air Treat for Many Medford Residents

Members of the city council, police force and other local citizens were guests yesterday of the Breese Aircraft company of Portland in flights over the city in the "City of Portland," cabin plane which arrived at Medford yesterday, piloted by Major Gilbert Eckerson. The plane was busy today taking up officers of local service clubs and American Legion officers in district conference at Ashland.

For a number of yesterday's passengers, it was their first ride, and they came to earth wondering why they had never gone up before. The plane, a sister ship of the "Aloha," which flew to the Hawaiian Islands, piloted by Martin Jensen, has room for five passengers, seated in comfort on soft upholstery.

The plane is powered with a 225-horsepower Wright whirlwind motor and has a top speed of over 150 miles and a cruising speed of 120 miles an hour. It can climb 1200 feet per minute and is one of the latest to be manufactured by the company, which now has ships in use by air mail and transport lines. The company manufactures five and seven-passenger cabin ships, and is recognized as one of the outstanding companies of the west.

George E. Love, factory representative and well known in Medford and southern Oregon, arrived yesterday a short time before the ship and is in charge of local arrangements. Major Eckerson, an army flier, who conducts a flying school at Springfield, flew the ship here and was accompanied in another ship by Lloyd Kinney, a student taking his first cross-country flight in an Arrow Sport plane.

Yesterday's passenger list includes the following air enthusiasts: Mayor A. W. Pipes, J. C. Collins, R. E. Hammond, E. M. Wilson, R. E. McElhose, Frank Farrell, John Buchter, Police Chief Clayton McCredie, Traffic Chief George Prescott, Policeman Joe Cave, State Traffic Officer Robert Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bromley, H. S. Devel, H. D. Gess of the Crater Lake Automobile company, H. G. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ferguson of the Mail Tribune, Deputy United States Marshal Cal Wells and Policeman William Peck.

The ship went through a number of stunts over the city during the noon hours, presenting a demonstration rarely done by a cabin ship. It will also be in Medford tomorrow.

The following people were passengers in the Breese plane this morning:

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Chaffey, Mrs. Carl Wimbler, committee woman American Legion Auxiliary, Ben N. Harder, Mrs. R. E. McElhose, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hammond, Bob Hammond, J. C. Collins, A. E. Finney, president of Greater Medford club, Mrs. Wm. Lee Bricker, Miss Alessemer, Mr. and Mrs. Gain Robinson, Mrs. Henry Graybill, Mrs. T. W. Daily, Mr. and Mrs. John Enders, Ashland, Mrs. C. S. Armstrong, Carl R. Moser, state Legion adjutant, Sidney S. George, state Legion commander, S. J. Anderson, Frank Farrell, Mrs. M. J. Edwards, Mrs. Adeline Ninek, Mrs. Van Scoyoc, Miss Marian Van Scoyoc.

169 ARE TAKING TYPING COURSES AT HIGH SCHOOL

The major objectives of the high school typing courses this year are thorough grounding in the proper technique and constant practice for the business, and a variety of exercises with a maximum of practical experience.

A total of 134 students are enrolled in the beginners class, and 35 in the advanced class. Pleasant progress has been made by the beginners classes this year as a result of the application of the advanced methods of instruction being applied this year by Mrs. Elizabeth Jerome.

The first speed test, usually given at the end of 16 weeks, is being given this year at the end of the 8th week. This result has been obtained in spite of the fact that typing periods this year are 60 minutes in length instead of 90 minutes as last year.

The secretarial system used to give practical experience to the advanced students is of particular value. Five secretaries are available at all times to take care of typing work for the teachers, and the principal's office throughout the day.

In addition to this work, a large amount of typed work is turned out for the superintendent's office, cooking classes, history department, Hi-Times, and Career annual. All typing is carried on under the supervision of Mrs. Jerome.

DOLL SHOW

Friday at 4 o'clock

Listen, Girls—

—this DOLL SHOW is something different. All of our Xmas Toys will not be displayed—Just Dolls.

You will see hundreds of dolls Friday at four. Maybe more than you have ever seen at one time before. These are all the famous E. I. Horsman Doll Company Dolls.

You know Girls, we have 1400 stores and we buy them by the thousands. Just imagine thousands of dolls.

We want every girl in Medford to come in and see the biggest crowd of dolls ever shown at one time in Medford. Say girls, these are all new dolls. They just arrived.

FIRST MASONIC DANCE OF SEASON IS TONIGHT

One of the best opening dances for several seasons is anticipated by the Masonic Dancing club, which holds its first party of the fall and winter series at the Masonic temple ballroom tonight. Special decorations have been put into place and a committee has arranged for refreshments to be served during the course of the evening.

The Broadway orchestra will make its first appearance for some time and will present several special numbers. A large attendance of Mason, Eastern Star and De Mole members is expected from Medford and also from neighboring lodges. The party is given for the benefit of the Medford donation to the Masonic and Eastern Star home and good support is expected.

Only members and their invited guests will be present and dancing will begin promptly at 9 o'clock.

MEDFORD HUMANE WORKERS LAUDED NATIONAL CONFAB

"Medford is on the map in humane work," declared Mrs. F. W. Swanton, manager of the Oregon State Humane society, who arrived in the city this morning as a guest of the Jackson county society, Mrs. Swanton, who recently attended the national convention of humane societies at St. Louis, Mo., said that President Sidney Coleman devoted 15 minutes of the official address at the convention to eulogizing this city for its leadership in humane activities.

"The humane society is just as necessary to the city as the garbage man and other factors considered indispensable," said the executive. Mrs. Swanton explained that, contrary to the belief of many people, the humane society was concerned more with the prevention of cruelty and unhumanitarian treatment to children and aged people than animals.

Asked how long she had been interested in the work, Mrs. Swanton told how, at the age of four years, she had become so enraged over the cruel treatment of a man to his team of horses, she grasped a hatchet in her two hands and split his foot wide open.

She organized the first humane society in Alaska, in 1909, she said, an organization which is still in existence. She has been actively engaged in the work in this state for 22 years and has served in the capacity of general manager for the past 11 years.

Mrs. Swanton, met at the train by Mrs. Sid Richardson was the guest of honor at a humane society luncheon given at the home of Mrs. L. D. McCaskey on the Old Stage road at 1 o'clock. She will speak tonight at the city council meeting and before the county court tomorrow morning.

GAME PROTECTIVE ASSN. WILL DRIVE FOR MEMBERSHIP

The Jackson County Game Protective association will commence its annual canvass for membership on Monday, November 18, to continue through that week. The drive will include solicitation for funds to be used in the furtherance of an extensive and well organized plan for the conservation of game and fish in Jackson and Josephine counties.

The local association and the Frank Walton league of Grants Pass will cooperate in certain activities in both counties, the latter having indicated its intentions along this line at a recent joint meeting held at Weasuka Inn. A joint committee, with representatives from both counties was appointed at that time to consider matters in which both associations have a common interest.

It is planned by the two organizations to expend approximately $3000 during the next year, about one-half of which has already been pledged. The Jackson County Game Protective association delayed its campaign until after the completion of the local Community Chest drive.

HAS NEVER SEEN SUCH A MEDICINE

"I want my friends to know that I think Sargol is a blessing to humanity!"

"Although 82 years old, I was a very healthy man until about two years ago when I began to go down hill and lose my old time strength and energy. My bladder and kidneys got me up a lot of nights and this broke into my sleep and weakened me. I didn't have much appetite and felt tired and fatigued all the time, so I decided to take this Sargol treatment. I heard so much about it.

"Before I realized it I was eating right along and my food was tasting fine. I never saw such a medicine for building strength! My bladder and kidneys don't worry me now and I sleep fine. I have gained five pounds already, and I feel so strong and energetic. Honestly believe, I'll live to see my hundredth birthday. Sargol pills beat anything I ever saw for straightening out the liver."

PLAN CONSTRUCTION OF FOUR DWELLINGS

Applications for building permits by the Southern Oregon Construction company were on file today at the city building department for the construction of four houses. Two would be located on South Tolly street and will cost $9,000 each. One would be on Barnsbury Road, and the other on Glen Oak Court, each costing $4,000. The $6,000 dwellings are of the duplex type and some chance will probably have to be made in the zoning on the district in which they are located before they can be constructed. A. E. Resmes also made application to repair a dwelling on West Eleventh street at a cost of $250.

"Stolen Kisses" at Rialto Tomorrow

"Stolen Kisses," which opens at the Rialto tomorrow, a talking picture, is an up-to-the-minute jazz jamboree, in which a newly married couple, and the peppery father of the bride, go to Paris—with results that are guaranteed to make any audience sit up and take notice.

Funny, fantastic, but intensely human, this gay bit from the pen of Franz Suppe stars May McAvoy with Claude Gillingwater, Hollman Colley, Edna Murphy, Fred Hoxey, Arthur Hoyt and others in support. Vitaphone is magical in reproduction of dialogue, sound and symphonic accompaniment.

SEAMEN DRINK POISON ALCOHOL; TWO DEAD

PANAMA, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Two seamen of the American steamer Graylock died at sea on November 3 from the effects of drinking poison alcohol while a third, Arthur Hoyt, is now in the hospital at Colon, gravely ill from the same cause. The dead victims, Leonard Larson and Eric Johansson, were buried at sea Sunday.

KMED SILENT WHILE STRENGTH ENLARGED

In the process of adding new equipment, which will make the local set equivalent to 200 watts, KMED, the Mail Tribune-Virgin station, went dark at 2:30 this afternoon, to remain so until 9:00 o'clock tomorrow morning, according to an announcement made to this paper today. This is only a temporary arrangement which will tide the local station over until the arrival of its complete outfit of new equipment to be installed in the future.

PHOENIX CHURCH MEN WILL PREPARE SUPPER ON THURSDAY EVENING

The men of the Phoenix Community are planning to supply a supper to be given at the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening of this week. The supper will be a little out of the ordinary of the supper generally given here, and has been announced as a "Jazz Supper."

They will commence at 5:30 and continue through the evening. The Palmer Music House of Medford are going to donate a combination radio and phonograph for the occasion and music will be played throughout the meal. Another treat awaits all who attend, is that Earl Davis of Medford, former announcer over KMED, will deliver a monologue.

The entire supper has been planned, and will be prepared and served by the men of the community headed by the men of the congregation of the Presbyterian church.

Committees have been appointed to perform the various duties of the supper, and the kitchen committee is as follows:

Ted Littlefield, chief cook; Harvey Boyer, M. F. Shoats and Mr. Wilcox, assistants. Other committees to serve, etc., will also be appointed. The supper will be served for the moderate price of one dollar. The men ask that all will keep this date open and plan to attend. The proceeds will go toward the building fund of the Phoenix church.

EXPECT LARGE CROWD AT CHAMBER DINNER

"Coordination of Community Effort," will be the subject of the speech to be given tomorrow evening at the Chamber of Commerce forum dinner at the Hotel Medford, where Frank Jenkins of the Eugene Register and the Roseburg News-Review will be the principal speakers.

The forum is expected to be one of the best attended in months and will include representatives of the different service clubs in Medford. The Business and Professional Women's club will also be represented. The banquet will begin at 6:30.

COLBY DAMAGE SUIT UNDERWAY IN COURT

The damage suit of $2500 of Mont Colby against William Garrett was begun in circuit court today, as the outgrowth of a traffic accident last July when Colby, riding a motorcycle, and Garrett, driving a car, crashed together at the corner of Genesee and Main streets.

Colby claims he sustained painful injuries as a result of careless driving by Garrett. Kelly and Kelly are representing the plaintiff and the defendant is represented by Attorney Charles Reames.
