Distribution Without Waste

Extra Food Values

By "Extra Food Values" we mean values that are even greater than we customarily offer. We never hold a "sale," but sometimes we make unusually fortunate purchases on which we effect extraordinary savings. These savings are always passed on to our customers. We have made several such purchases lately — due to our huge buying power — and this week you get the benefit of them. Many items listed below cost the average dealer more than we can offer them to you for. Come and get all you can use.

Society

Triangle Club Has "Goodwill" Meeting.
Thirty members of the Triangle club met at the First Christian church last night for their regular meeting. The business session was in charge of Harold Archer, president.

The program, in charge of Margaret Hon, included a song, "I Love to Tell the Story," followed by a prayer. The subject for the study was "The French Arcadians in Louisiana, and Virginia Gregory and Edwin Anderson each gave short talks.

The work of the organization is on the order of a goodwill flight, and the members are divided up into different flying squadrons, each trying to make the most points. The standings at the present time are Barbara Sander, 453; Geraldine Latham, 210, and Conway Latham, 186.

A social hour followed the meeting, during which refreshments were served to the 30 guests and members present.

Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett and Miss Gretchen Corbett of Portland are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller on Rogue river.

Auxiliary Members To Have Luncheon Monday.
On Monday, November 11th, the members of the American Legion auxiliary and friends will meet at 12:30 at the Hotel Medford for a no-hostess luncheon. In former years there has been nothing planned for the auxiliary members after the parade until the football game, or the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Earle Davis is chairman of the committee, and a jolly time is assured. The officers especially urge all members of the auxiliary to be present. Fun is the order of business for the day.

Josephine Price Announces Engagement to Joe Price.
The engagement of Miss Josephine Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Price, and Joe Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Price, was announced in Portland last Friday.

Miss Price has spent the past several summer seasons at Crater Lake lodge, her father being vice-president and general manager of the Crater Lake National Park company.

Zulema Temple, daughters of the Nile will meet at the Hotel Medford for luncheon Saturday at 12:30.
