

FIND MYSTERY WOMAN ON BEACH AT NEWPORT

NEWPORT, Ore., Nov. 8.—(P)—An unidentified woman, half clad and suffering from exposure, was in a sanitarium today after she had been found on the bay side of Newport yesterday by E. L. Pence.

The almost lifeless form of the woman was taken to the sanitarium where physicians endeavored to revive the feeble spark of life. She refused to talk.

BAKER SECRETARY TO CORVALLIS CHAMBER

BAKER, Ore., Nov. 7.—(P)—William E. North, secretary of the Baker county chamber of commerce since June 12, 1929, resigned yesterday and telegraphed his acceptance of a position as secretary of the Corvallis chamber. The resignation will become effective December 15.

North will also assume the secretaryship of the Eastern Oregon Mining association, of which he was organizer.

KLAMATH NEGRESS HAS ACCURACY WITH STOVE

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Nov. 8.—(P)—Nellie Leslie, negress, heated plates in her wrath. She was arrested twice last night by Klamath officers, once for possession of liquor, and the second time for rapping another negress on the head with a cook stove.
