Convict Author. OMAHA.—(AP) Frank Connell has won a $200 prize for the best essay on pioneer life of Nebraska. He is serving the 14th year of a life term for bank robbery and murder.

Recognition Robber Brings Brutal Attack On Highway—Husband Also Shot—Hunters Find Victims at Early Morning Hour—Husband Tells Story As Death Near.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Mrs. Lucille Bolton, 29, a bride of a few weeks, was shot to death early today as she sat in her new automobile, and her husband, John Bolton, 24, was believed fatally wounded by two robbers.

Bolton, who was found by hunters, gasped out before he lost consciousness that his wife shouted as the man walked away: "I know you; your name is Woods!"

Bullet Pierces Head. Without a word, the husband related, the man turned, stared at his wife and then fired. The bullet pierced her head.

Bolton said he cried: "For God's sake stop that," whereupon both men opened fire, one bullet striking his chest and another penetrating his abdomen.

Bolton, who recently sold his dance hall after marrying one of his employees, believed his wife probably recognized the man as a visitor at the dance hall.

CAMPUS SPIRIT CLUTCHES CITY FOR BIG GAME

This city, accustomed to the thrills of state champion football teams, reveled today in its greatest football classic—its first collegiate game between the University of Oregon Frosh and the Oregon State Rooks, at Van Scoyoc field this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A crowd of 3000 was expected, with the weather threatening rain and a cloudy sky.

Both squads were in bed by 10:30 o'clock, and were up this morning at seven. Each took walks to look over the field. At 10 o'clock they all went back to their rooms to rest until noon.

Both coaches were gloomy, Coach Callison being more so than his rival. They made no predictions. Each was doubtful of his starting line-up, which will be about as follows:

PILOT INJURED BY AIR MAIL CRASH AT PORTLAND IN FOG

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 9.—(AP)—An airmail plane operated by the Varney lines crashed and burned near here today, Kenneth Neese, pilot, was injured but it was not believed he was seriously hurt.

Witnesses said the pilot circled the district several times, apparently looking for a place to land. It had left the Portland airport only a half hour before.

KING GEORGE IS BACK IN SHOOTING FORM

Word that King George once more is able to ride and to shoot has caused gratification in all parts of England. At this time of year the English aristocrat's mind turns to guns and birds. So news that King George spent a morning at Sandringham shooting pheasants was as significant to the man on the street as a physician's statement of health.

JAS. J. RIORDAN SUICIDE RESULT STOCK LOSSES

Friend of Al Smith Believed Victim Market Adversity—Was President County Trust Co.—Campaign Fund Contributor, Politician.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—(AP)—James J. Riordan, president of the County Trust company and a personal friend of former Governor Alfred E. Smith, committed suicide today by shooting himself at his home in West 11th street.

Although close friends of Mr. Riordan could not ascribe any reason for the suicide, the police said they believed heavy losses in the stock market caused the act.

Mr. Smith was a member of the board of directors of the bank. Mr. Riordan, who was 74 years old, was a widower. He leaves two sons and two daughters.

For many years he was active in Democratic politics. He was a large contributor to the campaign funds of the former governor, whom he had known from boyhood.

With William F. Kenny, wealthy contractor and John J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic national committee, Mr. Riordan and Mr. Smith often played golf foursomes.

FIVE KILLED IN BLAST AS LIGHT APPLIED TO FAG

ELYRIA, Ohio, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Five men were killed and four and three women probably fatally injured today in a gas explosion that ripped on the walls of the Times Spring company here.

Three of the dead identified are John Rapie, 38; Louis Butcher, 40; Mize Sweet, 59.

Dean Puts Foot on Campus Kiss

By Chorus Girls. MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 9.—(AP)—A delightful scheme to boost the circulation of the 40th, undergraduate year book at the University of Minnesota, has failed.

DINERS PLEDGE ARMISTICE DAY GAME SUPPORT

Two hundred business and professional men of this city last night at the Hotel Medford staged a "pep" banquet for the high school football squad and their coach, and pledged support for the Armistice Day game with Ashland high school.

Speeches were made by Charles E. Thomas, Ralph Cowgill, John E. Mann, E. C. Jerome, G. O. Alenderfer, M. N. Hogan, E. J. Lemmon, Coach Murray Hagen and John Sprague for the team. Dr. F. G. Thayer presided.

Members of the team were introduced by their hosts. Coach Frank Callison of the University of Oregon Frosh, former local mentor, was rushed from the lobby upon his arrival and said a few words.

CORVALLIS FRATERNITY HOUSE HAS BAD BLAZE

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 9.—(AP)—The second fraternity house fire this fall caused from $1,500 to $2,000 damage to the Kappa Sigma house here yesterday. The blaze, which started in the attic, burned away a part of the roof and upper floor. Most of the third floor rooms were damaged by smoke and water. The buildings will be repaired.

Oregon Weather. Oregon: Fair tonight and Sunday. No change in temperature. Moderate northwest winds on the coast.

PANTAGES HEIRESS TO SENTENCED SELL COAT TO PRISON PAY BROKER

Millionaire Theater Magnate To Serve One to Fifty Years—Motions for New Trial and Stay of Judgment Denied—Probation Refused—Notice of Appeal Given.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Alexander Pantages, multi-millionaire magnate, was sentenced to San Quentin penitentiary for a term of one to 50 years today by Superior Judge Charles Fricke, for a statutory offense against 17-year-old Eunice Pringle. The court denied motions for a new trial and arrest of judgment, and refused permission to file an application for probation. Defense attorneys made an oral notice of appeal.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—(AP)—With his wife, Mrs. Lois Pantages, at liberty under probation for 13 years from her manslaughter conviction in connection with the death after an automobile collision of Juro Rokumoto, Japanese gardener, Alexander Pantages, wealthy showman, is to appear before Superior Judge Charles Fricke today to be sentenced for a criminal attack upon Eunice Pringle, co-ed dancer. The theater man will ask for a new trial on grounds of irregularities in deliberations of the jury.

Mrs. Pantages yesterday was released from the custody of the sheriff by Judge Carlos S. Hardy, who ordered her $5,000 bond exonerated and demanded that she report once each month for a period of ten years to the county probation department. During that time she must refrain from drinking intoxicating liquors and must obey all laws. Violation of any of the probationary orders would result in her being ordered to serve the manslaughter term of from one to ten years in prison.

Losses License. In addition, the theater man's wife was deprived of her automobile driver's license for the period of her probation, and was ordered to satisfy immediately a judgment of $78,500 awarded the survivors of Rokumoto. She endorsed a certified check for that amount, and presented it to William G. Bonelli, attorney for Mrs. Rokumoto, the gardener's widow.

Mrs. Pantages, brought into the courtroom in a wheel chair by two white-clad nurses, broke into tears when Judge Hardy read the ruling which released her from a possible prison term. A few minutes later she had signed the check in settlement for all claims of the family of the accident victim, the pen fell from her fingers and an audible sigh of relief escaped her lips. She was wheeled from the courtroom by her daughter Carmen, and her sons, Lloyd and Rodney.

Not Drinking. In granting the woman's plea for probation, Judge Hardy declared the preponderance of evidence adduced during the trial indicated that she had not been drinking before the accident last June, when her automobile crashed into the machine in which Rokumoto sustained injuries which resulted in his death. Guests who attended a beach party from which Mrs. Pantages was returning at the time of the crash, testified at the hearing that no liquor was served at the party.

District Attorney Euron Pitts, who participated in the questioning of witnesses at the probation hearing, said it was the policy of his office neither to approve nor oppose probation for any defendant. "I would like to inquire, however," Pitts said, "if the court would have reached the same decision had the defendant in this case been Juro Rokumoto instead of Mrs. Pantages?"

COLEMAN APPOINTED BY ASSESSORS BODY

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 9.—(AP)—F. I. Randall, chief field deputy assessor for Multnomah county, told the assessors' convention here yesterday of plans to reappraise most of the taxable property in the city of Portland for taxation purposes.

J. B. Coleman of Jackson county was appointed on the committee for classification and equalization of industries and merchandise.

Block Hefted. WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—(AP)—An attempt by Senator Heftin (Democrat), Alabama, to obtain authority for an investigation by the federal farm board, of speculative transactions on the New York, Chicago, and New Orleans Cotton Exchanges, was blocked in the senate today by Senator Jones of Washington, acting Republican leader.

DORM THIEVES BUSY UNIVERSITY CAMPUS

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Watches, clothing and money, valued at $200, have been stolen from the rooms of the University of Oregon students at Sherry House Hall, men's dormitory, during the past week, authorities were informed today.

Fortune of $900,000 Inherited From Tobacco Baron Wiped Out in Stock Crash—Owes $50,000—'Just One of the Suckers' Is Philosophy—May Give Piano Lessons.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Her $900,000 inheritance wiped out by the stock market crash, Miss Margaret Shotwell, concert pianist, hopes to earn $50,000 in her profession in order to pay what she owes a broker.

Miss Shotwell, who is 22 years old, was known as the cigarette heiress after she received $1,000,000 from the estate of John Neal, district manager for the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco company. He died in 1923. Part of the fortune was in stock of the Reynolds company. "I was just one of the suckers," she said.

"I lost every cent I had in the world." That was $900,000 and I owe $50,000 to my broker besides. "But it isn't smart to be rich any more. I've got lots of company, now, you know."

"I was in Omaha visiting my mother when the market started to drop. I sent my Reynolds stock to protect my margin and started for New York. My broker carried me as long as he could and I began to hope I'd pull through when I was wiped out in the last big slump."

She said she planned to remain in New York a few days longer and "try to find a bear who'll buy my chinchilla coat." She intends to accept all concert engagements that are offered her, she said, adding that if she could not raise the $50,000 any other way she would give piano lessons in Omaha.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—(AP)—The stock market was closed today after ending its week with a session of normal trading which, in the opinion of bankers, indicated a return to stability.

The stock exchange and the curb exchange will be open Monday, Armistice day, with a two-minute suspension of business at noon in recognition of the day. Three-hour sessions from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m., will be continued next week with the exchange closed on Saturday. Total sales of the stock exchange yesterday were 3,214,000 shares. The turnover for the week was 22,516,410 shares.

The ticker was 37 minutes late at the close.

WIFE WIELDED AUTO JACK IS CONFESSION

WENATCHEE, Wash., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Mrs. Verna D. Woodall confessed to police today she beat her husband, Walter R. Woodall, 55, to death Thursday with a soup bone and automobile jack.

Will Rogers Says: HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Nov. 9.

"People were just about getting over this crazy epidemic of dieting when along came this stock market and drove 'em all back to it again. All the big financiers and writers are saying 'the good values are worth as much as they ever were,' but that's the trouble, nobody knows what they ever were worth. To make things look prosperous every company is trying to declare a dividend, and they will do it, too, if they can sell enough stock to declare it on."

One thing I like about Senator Bingham. He did not say 'I did it for the wife and kiddies.' He just said 'I did it for the poor manufacturers of Connecticut.' Yours, WILL ROGERS.
