Apostolic Faith Mission

nd 7:30 p. m. About 100 young people and alldren attend our Sunday school 2:30 Sunday afternoon. All

A fourteen nicce orchestra will lead the singing. A ladies' quartet and also a mixed quartet will furnish the special singing at each service. The Word of God is preached in its fullows. Yo selections are its fullness. No collections are ever

Main St. Methodist Church, South,

The Frieldly Church on the Cor-ner. James E Conder, pastor, Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Dr.

Roberts would be glad to have you

If you are not attending elsewhere

Well organized classes here, Preaching at 11 a. m. Dr. S. H. Shangle will speak.

Sermon subject, "Art Thou He?

Special music.

ing at L.

'clock.

Special program.

Fallen Man."

prayer services.

Preaching in the evening at 7:30.

In the afternoon Dr. Shangle will in the atternoon Dr. Shangle will speak on some playes of the mis-sionary work. Bring your lunch and spend the day. At noon the tables will be spread and the lunches all put together. Don't ular the disconterior liss this discussion. Prayer meeting Wednesday even

You are cordially invited.

Central Point Federated Churches J. M. Johnson, pastor. Bible school at 9:45 a. m. Young people's services at 5:39

Men's prayer meeting Monday enings at 7:30. Ladies' Bible study and prayer

ircle, Tuesday afternoons at 2

Mid-week prayer meeting, Wednesday evening at 7:15. Men's Brotherhood meeting on Tuesday evening, November 12th.

Chair practice on Thursday even

In the church services of tomor ow the pastor will preach on the ubject, "Preparing for Pentecost," and in the evening service on the velcome to these services.

First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Authorized branch of the mother

hurch, the First Church of Christ

Scientist, in Boston, Mass. Scientist, in Boston, Mass. Services are held every Sunday at 11 o'clock, church edifice, 212 North Oakdale, Subject for Sun-day, November 10; "Adam and Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Ap-plicants under the age of 20 may be admitted.

Wednesday evening meetings,

subject, "The Church: Its Messa Negative and Positive," All i

Choir rehearsal after taken. Everybody welcome

Sunday services at 10:30

uldren are welcome.

14

SYNOPSIS: Barbara's early morning vigit at Rifa's apartcount of the a wicked misunderstand-ing Tenninutes after sine demitis in the second second second second in the second second second second have been been been as a second second have been by an relephone bell, where the is available of the se-sion of the second second for an array of the second second for an array of the second second second second her unce, vandarer fandon, is a second second second second second her unce, vandarer fandon, is a second second second second second her unce, vandarer fandon, is a second second second second second her unce, vandarer fandon, is a second second second second second her unce, vandarer fandon second her unce, vandon second her unce, van

Chapter 25

A CORNER TABLE

ONE particular night, about 10

Henderson, Barbara found herself alone in her apartment. She had been feeling very blue since dinner, lying on the couch, books and magazines in great array around her, but there wasn't one on which she found herself able to concentrate. Perhaps this was because the inevitable love theme made her at the same time both wistful

"It's all absurd," she cried aloud

in resentment as she came to the end of one story. "Stupid, claptrap fiction, written so as to throw a rose hue over life that doesn't exist. Men faithful-blah! They can't remain true to one woman, once she's out of their sight, for

A clock struck ten. She stretched horself lazily. Hours before she need go to bed. Anyhow, she was sleeping badly and the prospect of long, weary hours of wakefulness appalled her. Gradually, as she lay strong desire to see Ray again, just to see him, if only for a few min-

She didn't quite know when the idea of going to the Golden Dollar

it had, it took a firm hold of her,

for a few minutes could do no possible barm. She wanted to see Ray nue towards the Golden Dollar club,

Perhaps she was alraid that should they linger she would lose brilliant, twinkling sign of

to hamper their speed.

and angry.

10 minutes."

utes.

days after her dismissal of

brit fan PAGE THREE

The Rogue-Elk Inn

DIVE DID

Rustic setting in the mountains, Where the pine tree lifts its head,

Where the Rogue River murmurs noftly. As it flows o'er rocky bed;

There Elk Creek's lazy waters Blend with Rogue's cold dash OF REESE CREEK ing spray. That's where Rogue-Elk Inn awalts

Walts, and welcomes you to stay.

Where the gamey Steelheads wait,

Where the friends of Isaac Walton Pause to troll with shining bait, Where the pine trees on the moun

Sweetest music mid their branches,

Under tall trees by the river, In the welcome shade, so cool, Here the traveler loves to linger, By the side of sparkling bool.

Where the speckled beauties glisten. Here is where real life begins. On the banks of the Rogue River, due perhaps to the good crop o acorns in the mountains this year At the famous Rogue-Elk Inn

(Spe

spending

Endless pleasure, here, awaits them.

If they love the larger life In the mountains, near to Nature, Far removed from strife, Listening to the gentle murmur of the Rogue, at close of day, Or the whispers in the pine trees, At the time when fairies play.

Evenings lure, so well portraying, At the setting of the sun TALENT, OFC., NOV. 9.—(Special) (al.)—The Talent Community club held fits regular meeting November 6, with good attendance.
(b) the contract of the shadows When the work of day is done; Here we find, amid the mountains,

At the close of summer's day, Quiet, peace, and joy entrancing, "Tis our wish to always stay.

Nature calls us with the music Of the water and the wind, Bids us look to God who loves us, Bids us take our cares to Him; And if we would learn life's les-

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard, who re cently sold their home in Talent sons, Learn, for us, the one, best way, moved to the home of their daugh

We should spend some time nature, Where the fairles dance and play.

Neath the tall and bending tree tops, In the shadows, and the moon Seems to hang so close above us Coaxing lovers fond, to croon Of the future days, so splendid, As they, their new life begin;

Such a place you'll find near Medford, And 'tis known as Regue-Elk Inn.

Famous for fine chicken dinners, Famous for its paintings rare; Famous for its sylvan setting, Famous for its mountain air; Famous for its mountain air; On the banks of the Rogue River,

On the road toward the rim Of Crater Lake, you're welcome, At the famous Rogue-Elk Inn, Paid adv. tf*

Women's Hose

$1.00 Pair

Silk from top to toe with French Heel

heloggery

INSURANCE

First Insurance

Agency

A. L. HILL, Manager Phone 105 30 N. Central

Medford, Oregon

Phone 9 for

THE LUXURY HUSBAND TO HEAD GRANGE FALLS TO HUNTER showed beneath it, the several fine, inconspicuous tings that adorned hor white hands. AT ROGUE RIVER "Certainly, Come this way, madam." He seated her in a little booth near the door, from where she was able to see much without herself being seen. By craning her neck ROUTE HIVER Ore. Nov. 9 .a little around the side, she had a clear view of the crchestra, the gay and impudent clowns of Jazz known as the Golden Symphony Eight. A few seconds it was before she could bring herself to look directly at Ray, although he was easily dis tinculshed towering, as he did, shove the other members in the band. At sight of him she felt a queer, sick feeling inside her. She had to blink very hard to keep the tears out of her eyes.

ALL STREET

The watter, a swarthy, handsome youth from sunny Italy, was speak-ing as he presented the menu.

"Madam, she expect some one?" "No-no." she saw, a look of plty pass over the waiter's face. Then she laughed silently and mirthlessly at herself. It must seem a little strange to see a girl of her type come alone to such a club. She ordered a lobster salad. When the waiter had gone she sat staring fixedly at the table moment she wanted immediately to leave the club and never, never set foot in it again. The next, to rush towards the orchestra and force Ray to notice her-just as she had forced him to notice her that first night on board the Vendeus. She fidgeted with a knife, spinning it around in circles, dropping it finally upon the floor. Then she to crumble her began nervously roll into a little, white-brown, speckled mound. there, she became conscious of "I hear the saxophonist in your jazz band is quite a composer," she remarked presently as the walter swept the crumbs away with napkin, "Madame, 'e ees wonderful!"

club came into her head, but, once The man was all enthusiasm. "Ze patrons adore him. 'E make ze Why shouldn't she go? The club was open to the public and, this being Monday night, it was unlikely music so they zey cannot help but dance. Zum nights you shoould hear ze applause." . that she would run across any of Anyhow, just to drop in monly interested in her plate. kept her face lowered towards it. conscious that she had flushed a bright scarlet. Absurd-but at the man's words she had been aware of a sensation that she might have

The manager was announcing Miss Rita Gilmore. As Barbara heard that name she seemed to freeze all over. She sat motion-less as the room darkened, her eyes fixed to where a changing spotlight made a colored ribband the platform across the dancing floor.

Their progress was slow. To Bar-bara, afover with impatience to be Rita, her personality compelling in there now that she had definitely decided upon going, it seemed that stant attention, her beauty catchevery obstacle possible cropped up her nerve. That she might, seemed fairly evident, for, when finally the the Golden Dollar club blinked at her from across the street, she made the driver go round the block once more before she had sufficient courage to pay him and run across the pavement into the arched doorway.

Barbara, seeing her at cloze ange, sat amazed. Certainly here was not the type

breathlessly, colliding with the manager, a distinguished, sauvewith Ray. looking man who might have to this singer? She puzzled over it as, miserably, she tried to swalgraced the diplomatic service had there not been more money in night

She had remarked to him casu-ally, as he refilled her glass with

"But, yes" he assured her. "Mees "No." said Barbara. Then, with Gilmore is ze finished artiste. It is a show of impatience, "I want a she who made to contract, it is

Heck! chaplain, Mrs. Emma Hall, lecturer, Mrs. Lela ShepHard, Ceres, Mrs. Lela ShepHard, was prime and weighed in the neigh-borhood of 200 pounds. The pelt was prime and coal black. It was killed on the mountain between the Ernest Dahack homestead and the Minter estate, and the shooting could be plainly heard from the H. Ball ranch. The animal was aid to be in the finest condition

The contract

tows

Smith.

White

Wilsor

raylo

Evelyn

Arthur Long.

RUEEE CREEK, Ore., Nov. 9.— (Special)—A resultar Gramp med-ing was held Monday flight with good attendance. Election of of-fibers was held with the following elected: Master, Oscar Sheiblerd to werseer. Perry Walle; steward, t. T. Galligar; gatekeeper, Mr. Heck; assistant steward, Mr. Heck; chapkin, Mrs. Ehema Hall, between, Mrs. Lela Sheiblird; Cares, Mrs. Lela Sheiblird; Cares, Mrs. Lela Sheiblird; Cares Mrs. Lela Sheiblird; Mrs. Lela Sheiblird; Mrs. Lela Sheiblird; Cares Mrs. Lela Sheiblird; Mrs. Lela

PRIME BEAR PELT

REESE CREEK, Org. Nov.

TALENT CLUB HAS

TALENT, Ore., Nov. 9.

chased from Chas. Davis.

Klamath Falls are also s few days in the auto park

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY AT

ROGUE RIVER SUCCESS

6, with go

GOOD ATTENDANCE

Mrs. C. Homes of Central Point was in Talent November 5, looking after the property recently pur-maline Lehrman; secretary, Mrs. Laura Carter and treasurer, Mcs. Perry Walte

OSCAR SHEPHERD

"No-no." No-no." ASHLAND LISTING ALL LOCAL MINERAL WATER

> ASHLAND, Ore., Nov. 5.-(Spl. Ashland looks forward to the capl talization of her wonderful minera waters and the Civie-Municipa group of the Chamber of Com-merce, under the direction of Leo-Hanson, is making an effort to list all mineral holdings. A que tionnaire has been sent out to all owners of mineral properties ask-ing for the name and location of such properties, general descrip-tion and area, what curative qualities the water may possess, and whether the water has been anawhether the water has been ana-lyzed. The question is also put whether family near Eagle Point. Mr. and West Untrast, and the owner plans to develop his property and whether it is for sale or fease. The committee has arranged with a chemist at the Oregon State college to obtain if possible the complete analysis of the mineral during during and mrs. Burtel, former res-idents of Talent have returned and arranged Mr. and Mrs. Burtel, former res-idents of Talent have returned and are stopping at the Manning auto park. Mr. and Mrs. Parker of

It is the plan of the committee o use the collected information for folder to make the assembled facts readily available for the pub He. Barbara was suddenly ncom-GRANITE QUARRY BUSY

ON BIG STATE ORDER described as pride. ASHLAND, Ore., Nov. 9.- (Spl. A force of 17 men is hard at work at the Bisir Granite quarries, get-ling out 140 tons of granite for the state house office administration building at Salem. is to be finished by the end of No-vember and then the crsw will be put on the commercial orders that Down that pathway of light came have been accumulating.

ing every eye.

have been accumulating. Negotiations are pending relative to the 'installation of a mammoth saw, which will cost between $10,-000 and $12,000. This equipment will provide for splitting the granite without the present waste The company has recently in of girl she had expected! She had thought to find her hard of face. stalled two new air compressor and an air tank with a housin shed for rock drilling, two ney But there could be no denying the fresh, sweet quality, the look that shone in Rita's countenance, Barsurfacing machines and a new holst bara, watching her through her and derrick. song and dance, found it imposal ble to believe her had. It was re-ROGUE RIVER COUPLE luctantly brought home to her that this girl might be sincerely in love Down the steps ab+ ran, quickly, But, even granting that, why had Ray turned from her, Barbara, to low her salad. In the end it was the walter who unconsciously gave her the key to the puzzle.

leed water: "That girl sings and dances exceptionally well "

-desperately! which include testimonies of Chris. Of course, she wasn't weakening tian Science healings, at 8 o'clock, The reading room, which is in the Medford building, is open daily in her decision to divorce him. That Henderson had been discredited in her eyes made no apprecia-ble difference. She had seen Ray from 11 to 4, except Sundays and holidays. The Bible and all authorized Christian Science literain the girl's apartment at an hour when the inference she drew was the natural one. In no, time Barbara found herself sitting tense and straight in a taxicab, rattling down Fifth ave-people and blesses. Evangelist Lucas will bring forth things new and eld from the word First Presbyterian Church.

Claude B. Porter, minister. Real dence phone 1372; church phon 194 Church school at 9:45 a. m.

C. E. societies at 6:30 p. m. Worship services at 11 a. m. and :30 p. m

The morning sermon topic will be "A Pertinent Answer to An Im-pertinent Question." In the evening Mr. Porter will preach on " Christ-like God."

At 4 p, m, an Armistic day ves per service will be held under the auspices of the auxiliary of the American Legion. The public as Auxiliary are invited. Commencing Wednesday noon, from 12 to 12:45 the church will tion is to every a set of the set of the open for worship and medita-tion. The organ will be played during the hour. The mid-week service will be omitted for the men's meeting.

Tamilton Patton, Claude E. Forter and William W. P. Holt are Medford members of the state a d v is or y committee. Paul T. Shaw of Portland is chairman nent chairman of the board. INTERDANL LADIEO HAVE sented Sunday morning: Prelude, "An Old English Alt," Miles; of-fertory, "Deep River," Burleigh; anthem, "Prepare Ve the Way of Pastor's subject, "Let No Man beceive You." Come to the church o'er the President Half. Dean Dubacs, Dean Kate Jameson, Dean Vir-ginia Judy Esterly and many others have endersed the West-minster foundation's activities and influence for good on the cam-o'er the Volce of a Great Country.

First Christian Church.

LUTHERAN LADIES HAVE BAZAAR, DINNER, MON. The ladies of the Lutheran charden and the Lutheran charden and the Lutheran charden the Lutheran charden 11:15 h a. m., Morning service, Wm. B. Hamilton, recto. Church of God. Church of God. West Holly and Haven. Pastor, Rev. Chas. A. Cooper. Sunday school, 10 a. m. Preaching, 11 a. m. Evening service, 7:30 p. m.

Full Gospel Church.

Morning worship at 11 a. m.

Jail services, 2 p. m. Young people's service, 6:30 p.m.

English Latheran Church. Fourth at Oakdale Ave. Where the Way Is Made Plain.

at the 11 o'clock service.

Special music: Prelude, "An-dante Religioso," by Lautenschlae-zer: anthem. "Praise the Lord." by Wilson: offertory, "Melody in F." by Rubinstein: postiude. "Hymn

We invite you to worship with

Phoenix Christian Church.

Our church services and Sunday chool were well attended last Sunday with visitors from a nearby church. The Sunday school hour is 19 and the preaching hour is 11. Com of Triumph," by Cubibert.

Luther Birthday anniversary ser vice. Dr. Funk will speak on the great question, "How May a Man Have Pence and Be Just Before Cod?" a the

T. S. Winey, pastor

Main and Newtown Sts. Bible school at 9:45 a. m

Everybody welcome

God?

Clumbra

St. Mark's Episcopal

Corner Oakdale and Fifth St.

a. m., Holy communion

a. m., Sunday school.

and special musical program. Paster Alex-ander G. Benpeti, who ander G. Benjett, was was paster to solidiers at Camp Funston, Kan-sus during the world ing, 7:30 p. m. Mednesday evening prayer meei-ing, 7:30 p. m. A hearty welcome extended to served in the 35th di-din.

ARMISTICE SUNDAY TO ACTUS OF the over sens, will speak OT "What America Must Show to the World." Mrs. C. H. Paske will sing.

"There is No Death," by O'Hara, Patriotic hymns will be sung by the congregation. Mrs. Matie Heu-nergard's organ program includes Evangelistic services, 7:30 p. m. Mid-week services are held at 325 North Oakdale street, Tuesday and Thursday, 7:30 p. m. "Evening Prayer," by Nelson Twilight Hours. by Paulsen:

BE SPECIAL FEATURE

AT METHODIST CHURCH

"Armistice Sunday" will be observed in the First Methodist church, at 7:30 p. m., with address

J

"March," by Ashford, Sunday morning Paster Ben-nett's sermon-subject is to be "The Other Half of the Menning of the Cross," The finances of the church year will be presented by C. C. Darby and the finance committee, and the annual every-member calls made during the day and the week

C. A. Meeker sings McDermott's "Ninety-first Psalm." The anley's "Christian, the Born Breaks Softly O'er Thee," with incidental solos by Mrs. Paske, A. L. Vro-man, C. A. Meeker. The organ numbers are to be

The organ numbers are to the Tschnikowsky's "Chanson Triste." Beethoven's "Minuet in G." and Sheppard's "Allegro con Moto." A delightful reception was tor-dered the new pastor and his fam-116 and dered the new pastor and his town ily last week, a large company attending. The Ladies' Aid, Mrs. O. Arnspiger presiding, served re-freshments, and arranged the pro-gram.

munion is just before the regular Pastor Bennett leaves Monday evening for Portland, to address the Kiwanis club Tuesday, but will return to Medford for the "A Kingd Sermon subject for next Lord's day is from the words of Christ, "A Kingdom Not of This World." Wednesday evening mld-week de-Let's try to see just what Jesu votional hour, leading in a study of "The Love Song That Trans-forms a World." otional hour, leading in a study f "The Love Song That Trans-trans a World." A score of young folks from the billion of divine worship at the old-billion of divine worship at the old-billion of divine worship at the old-

Ashland Methodist church atended the Medford Epworth cague meeting last Sunday night. tended when the local members presented a playlet and served refreshment in the Recreation Hall.

A ALPLINST es of Presbyterian churches throughout the state of Oregon will celebrate November 17 as Westminster Foundation Sunday, when pastors will tell their congregations of the work being done t the Westminster houses at Eu-cene and Corvallis where 140 1400 Presbyterian young people are attending university and college,

Money is needed to carry on the work and many of the promi-have promised to assist in fur-thering the enterprise which is recognized by leading educators to be a valuable asset to the youth of the state.

of the state. Dr. John Straub, President Kerr, De

President Hall, Dean Duback.

Hamilton Patten, Claude

M. Brownrigg, pastor Revival Meetings. Advent Christian Church (Not Seventh Day.) West Jackson and Welch streets t end of North Fir, Beginning Sunday, November 10

time gospel program.

11 a. m., meetings every night ring the week, beginning at 7:30 m. Evangelist, J. S. Lucas of Port-and, Ore. Come where God meets with His prople and blesses. The public is cordially invited to ins of God. All children are welcome in th-

Junior choir. All are welcome. Come. Valley Radio Church,

Bill Ray, pastor. P. O. Box 218, Office, Herald Bidgs, next to Post Office. Residence phone, Jackson-ville 102.

play of household articles, won-derint quilts that have a history, the pastor, "What America Must making them invaluable There will be a fish pond for the chil-dren, and wonderful dolls for the little-ones. The post office will class be a big attraction. Don't fail to call for your mail.

(Contributed)

Ho, ye People! You are cor-dially invited to join us in celo-brafing the anniversary of the birth of Martin Luther Sunday, "Drifting." Dirth of Martin Luther Sunday, November 10, at 11 a. m. Dr. Funk will speak on the great spectra and is just Before God?
The church that bears the name of the church. By P. U. at 630. At 7350 Dr. Eaton will be the series The line address of the series the line the the console. The series the line address of the series The line address of the series the line the series the

An a new service, three days at Show the World."
Show the World."
Youth's hour at 6:30 p. m., two great and the moon hour and until 12:45, the anditorium of the First presbyterin church will be open of the public. Organ mucic will be open of the public of the public. Organ mucic will be in the consoleration of The Lore the world."
Mid week devalenat hour 7:200 resolution of the public. Organ mucic will be in the open of the public. Organ mucic will be in the consoleration of The Lore the public. Organ mucic will be in the consoleration of the public. Organ mucic will be in the consoleration of the public. Organ mucic will be international Photographers' association of Amurica will be show as the desired and to leave the heather of the rational grave a comprehensive report of the standard and to leave the standard and the leave whenever nocessary.

single table, as secluded as possi-ble." Lowther, our eaxophonist, a popu-laire. She sings them, often."

"You have a table reserved?" he Barbara shook her head, She was beginning to feel slightly foolish

"You are perhaps going to join

Afterwards she congratulated very high hand.

inquired deferentially.

under his polite scrutiny.

clubs.

friends?'

laire. She sings them, often." So that was it. Barbara almost herself upon carrying it off with a choked over a moulhful of lobster

A perceptible second longer his hand. A mutual interest had brought them together. It hurt her, that

MARRIED 52 YEARS

ROGUE RIVER, Ore., Nov.

----(Special)---A surprise party was held Tuesday evening, November 5, at the C. B. Botkin home, in honor of the 52nd wedding anni versary of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bot-

kin. The evening was pleasantly spent playing 500 and cribbage Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served. Those present were Mrs. Price. Mrs. Leon Rusho, Mrs. Emmi Hall, Mrs. Robert Burkhart, Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Swacker, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Swacker, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dengler, Mrs. Oscar Shepherd, and Mr. and Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dengler, Mrs. Oscar Shepherd, and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Botkin. Doard, consils of Earl Isane, F. D Wagner, G. W. Dunn, E. F. Jones Duran Shepherd and State Sta Sam B. McNaly

: 9 MARJORIE GOFF HEADS TICKET SALES AT 'U'

UNIVERSITY OF O R E G O N. Eugene-(Special)-Marjorie Goff of Medford, was in charge of licket sales for the Girls' Oregon club, Tuesday night when the first dime crawl of the year was the lenges (Transcontinental.) NBC held, service to KGO, KFL, Ev

KPO, KFL to $ p.m.-Lucky Strike Hour (transcontinental) NBC serve ice to KGO, KHQ, KOMO, KGW, some foreign land. The foreign KPO, KFL student scholarship is one to 11 p.m.-"Tales Never Told." NBC service to KGO, KHQ. to 12 p.m.—Musical Musketeers NBC service to KGO, KHQ, KO 6:30 p.m. Leagues NBC service to KGO, KHQ. 11 to 12 p.m.-Musical Musketeers MO. KPO.

KGO.

Roseburg-Mercy hospital com-pleted installation of modern N-along more constructive business lines. C. F. Richardson of Milwaukie. in 2 1929.

Next meeting will be the second cay machine.

There are 7684 troops registered 2816 different communities, while new troops registered in 1928 numbered 2522 in 903 new communities. There has been a much greater increase during

2 midnight to 1 a.m.-Wilt Gun-zendorfer's Hotel White om b Danre Band, NBC service to KGO.

