

NORTE DAME IN TOP FORM FOR TROJAN CLASSIC

120,000 to See Football Game Saturday in Chicago—Rockne to Guide Squad From Wheel Chair—Coast Squad Has Fine Reserves.

By ALLAN J. GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(AP)—On the already well-established theory that they do come back, even if it takes a trip of 2000 miles for the purpose, Southern California's Trojans figure to be the team to stop Notre Dame's rush Saturday before some 120,000 spectators at Soldier Field, Chicago.

On the also well-established fact that Notre Dame, even with Knute Rockne able to direct them only on a part-time basis, turned out to be the greatest Hoosier army since the "Four Horsemen," the unchecked South Bend cyclone figures to sweep over the Trojans and to toward a national championship.

It is an argument that depends on the point of view. It won't be settled probably until the dusk settles along the shore of Lake Michigan, but if this intersectional battle doesn't turn out to be one of the greatest of the season, it will not be for the lack of spectacular elements.

Those who like the chances of Southern California see the Trojans bounding across the country to tone for their unexpected setback at the hands of California. U. S. C. has finished its big-game schedule on the coast and can "shoot the works" against Notre Dame, whereas the Hoosiers still have Northwestern and the Army to worry about.

Notre Dame, on the other hand, has taken its last two games in "strike" to be at the peak of Southern California. For the first time since beating Carnegie, Rockne himself will be on the sidelines, even though his ailing leg will keep him in a wheel chair. The psychology of this alone will be a stimulant to the Hoosiers.

Though it may be argued most of Notre Dame's victims so far have also been manhandled by other teams, the fact remains that Rockne's ramblers have convincingly disposed of one of the most severe schedules tackled by any team. The workmanlike play of the team, directed on the field by Frank Carideo, one of the best quarterbacks of the season, has impressed even its critics. The polish and the punch are unquestionably there.

Notre Dame has a smoother working backfield array, with Carideo, Martin Will, Jack Elder and either Savaldi or Mullins at fullback, but Southern California has a wealth of fast runners, including Duffield, Saunders, Musick, Hill and Moses. Don Moses is tabbed by coast experts as "the man to watch at Chicago." Ineligible last year, and out of action earlier in this season because of a broken bone in his foot, Moses is said to have returned to action in fine form.

The part that the two strong, hard-charging lines will play in this drama may be the decisive factor, however much the spotlight may be on Carideo or Elder, Duffield or Moses. Flanked by such fine ends as Tapanan and Arbelbide, Southern California's line has a massive center trio, featuring George Dye at the pivotal position and Captain Nate Barrager, a guard of all-American caliber. Notre Dame also is well equipped on the ends with a fine passer, receiver in Colerick and such other stalwarts as Captain Lew Mounthan and Cannon.

HERRINGTON'S RUN CLEARLY ILLEGAL

In the Mail Tribune account of the Ashland-Medford high school game yesterday, a misinterpretation of the rules resulted in an inaccuracy. When a player is off-side, as in the case of Herrington's run for a touchdown, the ball reverts to the starting place. Why? Medford tackle, was declared off-side. Observers on the sidelines, including Ray Henderson, coach of the Medford Junior high, said that both teams were off-side. It was a fatal offside and one of the few off-sides called during the game. It would have made no difference in the final outcome, as the Medford team was clearly outclassed, and Ashland has one of the best teams in years.

REVOLVING STADIUM FOR GRID BATTLES

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 13.—(AP)—A great boon to alumni and other football nuts seems possible. A contributor to Princeton Alumni Weekly has a simple method by which everybody at a game can have as good a seat as anybody else. It is to build a stadium on a track and have it revolve during the game.

NEGRO BOXER POSTS $100 TO GUARANTEE CORBETT BATTLE

Unable to fight Leo Lomski, claimant to the world's light-heavyweight title, because Lomski has left for the east, K. O. White, Chicago negro, will fight Tom Corbett of San Francisco here next Monday instead. Lomski left White in the coil and accepted a match in Detroit, and the negro's manager, Gus West, is anxious to show his boy to southern Oregon fans. He figures White will defeat Corbett, who won from O'Grady at Yreka, and to match White in a short time with the Ashland fighter on a winner take all basis.

White has posted a $100 forfeit with the Medford boxing commission, and this time will have no opportunity of changing his mind as he did when he was scheduled to meet O'Grady last week. The negro is expected to arrive here the latter part of this week from Portland to begin a short training program in Medford, and is taking no chances with Corbett, the first man to place a black mark against O'Grady's record of 30 fights without a defeat.

There will be a good assortment of preliminaries, including a fast semi-windup which fans remember in the last card was almost as good as the main event.

Ringside were placed on sale today at Brown's and will also be on sale at Ashland and Klamath Falls, with good delegations expected from both places.

ASHLAND WON THE GAME, BUT LOCALS WON THE MONEY

Although Ashland won the football game from the local high school on Monday, Medford high school reaped the financial rewards. A statement issued by the principal's office at the school this morning showed 2500 paid admissions, the total receipts being $1300.

The record for attendance at high school games was set Monday, this being surpassed only by the Frosh-Rook game Saturday. The high school officials and student body wish to extend their thanks to the townspeople for the splendid way in which they supported the team, and especially the business men who organized the pep, banquet and parade. As a result of this hearty co-operation, the financial success of the present system is assured.

TWO HEROES OF GRIDIRON DEAD

SPIRO, Okla., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Johnny McLain, 17, quarterback of the Spiro high school football team, is dead of concussion of the brain, suffered in a game between the Spiro and Tahina schools yesterday.

McLain, who weighs only 110 pounds, was injured in tackling a much larger player.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Henry Luoma, star university of Santa Clara football guard, died at a local hospital early today of peritonitis following an operation a week ago for appendicitis.

A call for volunteers yesterday to undergo a blood transfusion operation in an effort to save Luoma's life, was answered by 14 students of the university. Hugh Clark, Jr., of Dunsmuir, was selected for the operation, which however proved futile.

ASHLAND STUDENT IS UNIVERSITY HARRIER

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE.—(Special.)—Ray Neal, Ashland, is one of the leading harriers of the Oregon track team. Neal will represent the Webfoots on homecoming day, November 14, in the meet with Oregon State. There will be 10 men in each squad. The race will start 20 minutes before the whistle of the football game.

NORTHWEST IS BEATEN IN FIRST TARIFF FIGHT

Senate Places Shingles On Free List in Spite of Fight By Coast Solons—California and Washington Vote With Oregon—Walsh Demands Roll Call

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Retention of shingles on the free list was voted today by the senate. The vote was 48 to 20.

The senate in so acting sustained the recommendation of its finance committee. The house had proposed a 25 per cent duty.

A vigorous contest was waged on the senate floor by members from the Pacific northwest to obtain a duty on the product.

They contended it was necessary to meet import competition principally from Canada. It was further argued it would regulate the lumber industry so that it would as-ist conservation of forests by permitting the working out of a reforestation program.

Oregon Senators Beaten.
The roll call vote was demanded by Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, after Senator Jones, Republican (Wash.), had secured by a division vote approval of a proposal to place a 10 per cent duty on the article.
The roll call vote follows:

PROMOTER JAILED FOR SLUGGING MAT CHAMP ON CORNER

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Pete Ladjone, promoter, today is at liberty under $1000 bond pending his appeal from a conviction and sentence of thirty days in jail on charges of battery brought by Gus Sonnenberg, heavyweight wrestling champion.
Sonnenberg appeared in municipal court yesterday and testified that Ladjone called him on the telephone October 22, and made an appointment to talk over some proposed wrestling matches.
"I met him on a downtown corner, and we stopped to talk," the wrestling champion testified. "Then, quick as lightning, something struck me in the face, and I went out. When I came to, a second later, Ladjone was standing over me saying he had licked the champion, and that I was a cheap champion anyway."
It took the jury ten minutes to find Ladjone guilty.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Elimination of E. E. Brodie, editor of the Oregon City Enterprise, as United States minister to China was seen today in Shanghai dispatches that the name of Nelson T. Johnson had been submitted by Washington for their approval in that position.

GAME COMMISSION CUTS DOWN COSTS

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 13.—(AP)—The Oregon State Game Commission shaved $6000 a month for the next four months from its funds yesterday after commissioners spent five hours poring over accounts.
Despite the fact that the cut was made in reducing the expenses of wardens, reducing work under way and discharging several game wardens, there will be no slackening in the efficiency of the department, Harold Clifford, game warden, said.

'STRANGLER' GETS NEW TITLE MATCH

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Ed "Strangler" Lewis former heavyweight wrestling champion, again will seek to regain his lost laurels in the ring here tonight in a finish bout with Gus Sonnenberg, title holder.
The match with the championship going to the winner of two out of three falls, several took place several weeks ago when Sonnenberg won the deciding fall after the seconds for both grapplers had jumped into the ring. The dispute which followed brought about the rematch.

Leedy, county agent and secretary of the Douglas Co-operative Turkey Growers. T. W. Holtz, market specialist of the United States department of agriculture, who recently conducted a grading school at Salt Lake City, will be in charge of the school.

AIR CONFERENCE SHOWS LOCAL AIRPORT A FINE ONE

City Engineer Fred Scheffel and Airport Superintendent Seeley Hall returned to the city yesterday from Los Angeles, having attended the western airport conference last Thursday, Friday and Saturday, where approximately 40 airport officials were in attendance and the program was a source of much aviation information.
At developed at this conference that the biggest problem confronting southern California aviation interests is the constantly increasing air traffic, many planes being in the air, coming and going, at all times, presenting a situation tending to possible air collisions. The Los Angeles airport, Mr. Scheffel said, somewhat resembled in its activity a great metropolitan railroad passenger station.
The two Medford men got over a large stretch of California territory, much of it by plane, as the convention sessions were held at various airports. "Outside of area and buildings, the new Medford airport compares favorably with the majority of airports we visited," said Superintendent Scheffel today.
Klamath Falls—Construction is under way on $40,000 Newberry store building at Eighth and Ninth.
