

THE LUXURY HUSBAND

ETERNAL: Although Rita accepts Ray's proposal to marry as soon as Barbara divorces him...

THE KNAVE OF JAZZ

BARBARA went pale—this girl was trying to tell her that Ray still loved his wife...

"I believe you're right. Lately my mind has changed about his habit. I suppose it was hearing him play at the club."

"I'm sorry I thought what I did—that I said what I did. You've done a awful lot for Ray—more than I ever have."

How a Little Daily Dose of Kruschen

Makes You Lose Unhealthy Fat Gives You Splendid Health With Added Energy and Vitality

was the way you were brought up in a money made, money-worshipping set. I had the good fortune to be born poor.

"I wish it were. I'm as much in love with Ray as you are. It doesn't weigh an ounce with me that you're his wife."

"I mean about his music. He's told me how you objected to his playing in an orchestra. How you regarded it as beneath your social status."

"The Knave of Jazz," spelt in twinkling electric lights that winked against the velvet background of a sultry September night.

"I believe you and I are in for a long session. I'll tell you all about Ray and myself from the first moment I spoke to him at the Golden Dollar."

"I'm sorry I thought what I did—that I said what I did. You've done a awful lot for Ray—more than I ever have."

"I wonder why I was ever such a fool?" Rita asked, rising. "If I guess it wasn't altogether your fault," Rita conceded, rising.

Rita's sparkling wit revealed in tomorrow's chapter.
